Education
 is the stepping stone to progress and prosperity. You, as parents, know this and send your children to school that they may not be handicapped in future years.
 But do you know that about seven out of every ten school children in this country have defective eyes?
 Do you know that defective eyes are frequently the cause of poor school work, even though the child is naturally bright?
 Have your child's eyes examined now and know what their condition is—do not guess.

J. Morris, Manager of the Provincial Bank and Rev. J. J. McDonald, Summerside in well rendered Scottish Songs and Mrs. Callaghan and Henry Noonan in instrumental selection.  —MAYFLOWERS IN DECEMBER.—As an indication of the sumnerlike weather that Montague has lately been enjoying, Master Keith McKinnon picked a bunch of May flowers on the banks of that river a few days ago. The accuracy of this is vouched for by the boy's father, our efficient Street Commissioner, who as an honored member of our town council, which as a body is the very personification of honor and integrity cannot deviate from the paths of truthfulness. J.
 —HEARTILY WELCOMED HOME.—Her many friends are delighted to see Mrs. John Annear back again to Montague after spending the past year with some of her family in Calgary. Mrs. Annear was for many years one of the outstanding women in our town. It was her intention to spend the remainder of her days in the west, old home ties proved too much for her however, and compelled her to return to the scene of her early surroundings. J.
 —ANOTHER'S GAIN.—Montague is soon to suffer another heavy loss, not a family in this case, but one of its finest and most highly respected young ladies who we understand will in a very short time be mistress of her own domain in one of the neighboring villages. While this exceptionally model young lady, for such she is, was not born and brought up in Montague, we look upon her almost as one of ourselves. An employee and a faithful one in the town for the past number of years, she endeared herself not only to her every day associates, but to the whole town in general, and her departure will be keenly felt. We cannot help but compliment the fortunate and doubtless happy gentleman on the wisdom he displayed in the selection of such an estimable partner, and if there is anything in the old saying that happy is the bride on whom the sun shines, we earnestly hope that on the wedding day earth's greatest benefactor will shine forth in all its brightness. J.

IN MEMORIAM
 MR. EDWARD A. McMASTER.
 A deep gloom of sadness was cast over Glenfanning and vicinity by the death of Mr. Edward A. McMaster who passed away on Friday, November 30th at the home of his father at the early age of 21 years.
 The deceased had been enjoying excellent health until about a year ago when he contracted a severe cold which developed into influenza. The most skilled medical aid was resorted to and everything possible was done to retard the progress of the disease but he gradually grew weaker until it became evident that the end was far distant. Even the knowledge of approaching death however could not disturb the calm fortitude of the sufferer. Shortly before death when his suffering became intense he displayed that spirit of thoughtfulness for others which was one of the most outstanding traits of his character when in good health. The late Mr. McMaster was a man of excellent qualities was possessed of a cheerful disposition and was ready and willing at all times to extend a helping hand to those in trouble or distress. He was regarded in the highest esteem by a large number of friends and will be sorely missed as he was always an active participant in every movement that tended towards the improvement of the community in general.
 He was attended during his illness by his pastor Rev. W. V. McDonald and received the last rites of the Roman Catholic Church of which he was a devoted member.
 The funeral was held on Sunday, December 2nd and the services were conducted by Rev. Father McDonald interment taking place in St. George's Cemetery.
 The pall-bearers were Messrs Douglas Campbell, Donald Campbell, Albert Acorn, Lewis Cantello, John F. Rice and Raymond McDonald.
 The deceased leaves to mourn their loss his father and mother and three sister Clara, Mary and Irene. At home at Glenfanning also his sister Elizabeth in Boston and one brother Angus in this city.
MRS. JOSEPH PETERS.
 The mistress of the house is dead, a kind and devoted husband is bereft of a loyal and loving wife, and her children gathered around her bier, mourn for an ideal and truly Christian mother. Such in brief is the announcement of the death on December 2nd, of Catherine, beloved wife of Mr. Joseph Peters, merchant, of Rustico, P. E. I.
 Mrs. Peters was 58 years old, and always enjoyed good health up to about eighteen months ago when an illness which baffled the skill of her physicians caused her death on the above date.
 It is so well known of her many sterling qualities of mind and heart that the mere mention of them is but to record to a limited extent the beautiful virtues that adorned her all too short but useful life.
 Her was a happy and peaceful death, supported by all the love and devotion of her grief-stricken husband and children and comforted by the ministrations of her pastor, Rev. Jean Chasson, calm and undisturbed she faced the ordeal, as a Christian should, relying on the hope that is born of a firm faith in a glorious resurrection.
 At her bedside stood her husband, her daughters, Rev. St. Catherine, of Louisa; Mrs. W. A. Doucette, and Freda; also her sons, Alban and Clarence—the latter now a student at Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax, N. S. Her eldest daughter, Mrs. William J. Paquet, of New Glasgow, N.S., who was called to her bedside last spring, was unable to be present, as also her eldest son Wilfred, now holding a responsible position in Western Canada. On December the 4th a requiem high mass was sung by her pastor and was largely attended. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Abraham Peters, Isaac Doucette, James DeRoches, Russel Martin and Maurice Pinnaud.
 Reverently they laid her body in her grave to mingle with the dust of her forefathers. There in her quiet tomb, away from the tumult of the world the hearts of her loved ones live with her and pray.
 Eternal rest give unto her O Lord And let Perpetual Light shine upon her. (New Glasgow, N.S., papers please copy.)
