ANTI TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY —CHARLOTTETOWN BRANCH

The Anti Tuberculosis Society of Charlottetown and the Royalty has it hoped and desired that persons who are interested in this effort will undertaken to maintain a free Dispensary in the City, where all who are sick and unable to pay for such necessaries, may receive gratuitously, daily visits from a District Nurse, medicine, food, and medical attendance, whether they are suffering from Tuberculosis or other disease.

This institution is supported wholly by voluntary contributions from the public, and it is hoped that a large number of persons will become members of the society and thus give their sympathy and aid to the work.

The aim of the Society is to enlist as many persons as possible in this much needed work, and the membership fee has consequently been fixed at the small sum of one dollar per annum. It is recognized that this will not provide a sum sufficient to maintain the Dispensary in efficient working order, and enable the Society to put forth such other efforts as experienced may prove desirable, but personally investigate the work of the society and its contemplated aims and will thus be led to contribute such larger amounts as will be needed to overtake the needs of the suffering poor.

The public are earnestly appealed to, to become members of the Society. Annual subscriptions or donations may be handed or mailed to Mrs W. E. Bentley, Secy-Treasurer, Box 280, Charlottetown.

Since the organization of the above society which took place on the twenty-fifth of November 1909, membership fees have been paid for the year 1910 as follows:—

Mrs George Hodgson, Mrs F. L. Haszard, Mrs W. Leitch, Mrs W. E. Bentley, Mrs W. S. Stewart, Miss Farmer, Mrs Bulman, Mrs Tidmarsh, Mrs Percy Pope, Mrs George Stanley, Mrs J. A.
