Have you entered the?
PROTECTO Contest

$510 in cash prizes to be awarded users of this marvellously superior protective paint

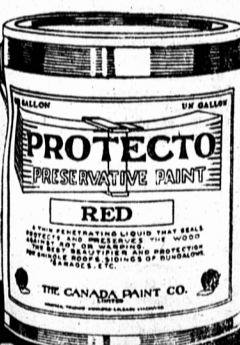

Perhaps it's a shingle roof you've beautified with this new preservative paint, or a wooden siding, a garden fence or, maybe, the wall or roof of your garage or barn. No shingle stain could ever give you such results. This color brightness, this lasting permanency, cannot be matched by the old-time staining process which, at its best, beautified but temporarily and protected the surface inadequately when it protected it at all. PROTECTO really protects because it is made from Creosote and Pure Linseed Oil, nature's greatest preservatives. Write and tell us of your experience with PROTECTO. We are giving a first prize of $100 and 54 other cash prizes for the most interesting letters telling how and where PROTECTO has been used and the results secured from its use. People who have not used PROTECTO and who desire to enter this interesting contest should secure a can at any Hardware store, use it on some unfinished exterior surface and then write us all about the job. Some one letter is going to win that $100 and, remember, there are 54 additional money prizes besides.

Here are the Contest Regulations:

Every resident of Canada and Newfoundland may compete. Canada Paint Company employees excepted.

The Canada Paint Company's executives will be the judges. Their decision will be final. Letters to be addressed "Contest Department, Canada Paint Co. Limited, Montreal," and mailed on or before June 30th.

According to entry letters are received they will be acknowledged. Every contestant will be notified as to the result of the competition.

Farewell Address

The following address to Rev. Gordon Moreside, Georgetown, speaks for itself:

Dear Mr. Moreside

It is with sincere regret that we the members of The First Baptist Church, Georgetown, have learned that you are severing your connections with us as our pastor.

We cannot let this occasion pass without expressing even in a feeble way the deep and sincere feeling we have in regard to your leaving. The harmony and good will which has ever existed between you and the members of this church speaks well for you as a man and as our pastor. We have always found both eager and willing to do more than your share in all measures meant for the success of our church. You have always shown tact and manliness overcoming the many discouraging problems which have confronted you in your work, winning our admiration and respect, and as you go to resume your work elsewhere we hope that you may retain the same feeling toward this congregation that its members hold for you.

We take this opportunity of expressing to Mrs. Moreside and yourself our heartiest good wishes for a happy and successful wedded life and ask you both to accept these small gifts not for their value but for the thoughts which they convey.

Signed on behalf of the members An address of a similar nature was also read at Sturgeon by Miss Lillian Creed on behalf of the members of the Sturgeon Baptist Church. Mr. Moreside although taken by surprise fittingly replied to both addresses, thanking the people for their thoughtful remembrances.

C. N. R. To Boost Eastern Tourist Trade

(Special to The Guardian)

VANCOUVER, May 17— Mayor Lou's D. Taylor at a civic luncheon to a party of twenty-five agents of the Canadian National railways from Eastern Canada and United States points told the visitors that Vancouver having attracted a large tourist traffic by advertising in California now intended spending increasingly large sums of money advertising in Eastern Canada and United States. Mr. C. K. Howard, general tourist agent of the system, Montreal, in charge of the party stated that this was the first of several educational tours the company was organizing among its ticket agents. Later it was hoped to send western agents on a tour of eastern lines with a view to cultivating Canadian travel east and west.
