LOCAL BRIEFS

SUPREME COURT.—Bill, Cameron and Walsh who had been indicted for larceny were acquitted last evening by the jury.

A shed caught fire on the Steam Navigation Co's wharf yesterday morning. The firemen had the fire "all out" in a few minutes.

LIEUT. Lorn Stewart of No 3 Co. received yesterday his certificate qualifying him for Captain, having passed a creditable examination at the Military School, Fredericton.

THE Baptist Sunday School Picnic will be held at Rocky Point tomorrow, Wednesday. No "visitor's table" but an excellent refreshment table will be provided. Strawberries and ice cream etc.

ZION CHURCH Picnic takes place at Freetown on 6th ins. A 40 cent rate will apply to all stations Charlottetown to Hunter River, inclusive—single first class fares from other stations; to Freetown. Tickets to be had on special train only which will leave Charlottetown about nine o'clock local.

MR. GEO REDDIN, who had been attending the Dominion Day races in Spring Hill returned home by the Princess yesterday afternoon with his horse Montrose. Mr. Reddin says the races were attended by about 3,000 people and were very good considering the condition of the track. Much interest was taken in both classes.

YESTERDAY forenoon Peter McAleer, for assaulting John Kelly, was sentenced to two months imprisonment. Geo. Bridges, for being drunk and incapable, was fined $2 or 10 days. The prosecution against Peter Coyle, charged with selling intoxicants without having paid his registration fee, was dismissed, the evidence being insufficient.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Archibald Kennedy will take place this morning at 8 15 o'clock to the P.E.I. Railway station, thence by train to 16 cemetery. The service will be conducted by Rev. T. F. Fullerton of St. James Church. The pall bearers will be Messrs John McPherson, T. C. James, Ambrose Brown, John A. Lawson, David Small, and Wm McLean.

MR. DONALD NICHOLSON, of Springton, received a telegram Saturday afternoon announcing the death of St. Paul, of his son John, who left home about four years ago for Minnesota. Mr. Nicholson was about 25 years of age, and being a young man of sterling character, was greatly respected by all his acquaintances. He visited his home in Springton about a year and a half ago. His parents, three brothers, and two sisters are living. Two sisters and one brother reside in the United States, one of which, Mr. M. D. Nicholson, whose arrival on the Island was announced in THE GUARDIAN some days ago. A letter telegram received Saturday evening stated that the remains were being sent to the Island for interment.

The first boat leaves the ferry wharf for the Baptist Sunday School Picnic at 9:30 Wednesday morning—not at 10 as announced. Next boat leaves at 11 o'clock.

A TELEGRAM has been received from the Department of Marine and Fisheries that the close lobster season is to be strictly enforced again this year.

Mr. John O. Hyndman, son of F. W. Hyndman has been appointed Soliciting Agent for the Canada Pacific Railway for Charlottetown and eastern sections Prince Edward Island. Mr. A. X. Campbell, has been appointed western agent located at Summerside.

THE first yacht race of the season takes place next Monday morning, over the course in the harbor. Twice around making 18 m. s. Entrance fee $2. No time allowance given. Flying star. Balloon tips and spinnakers allowed. Time limit on race 4 hours. Further particulars later.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Devlin and family of Detroit have arrived at the Mutch House where there will spend the summer months. Mr. Devlin took some men out with him on Saturday to make repairs to his steam launch. He will not remain as long on the Island as usual this year having purchased a beautiful residence in Detroit for which he paid $78,000, which he has yet to furnish.

By a programme and letter received by one of the boys from Vancouver, THE GUARDIAN learns that Mr. W. E. Flood, formerly of this town, won the 100 yard dash in the Annual I. O. O. F. sports of the Oddfellows held at Brocton Point, Vancouver, on the 17th ult. Mr. Flood is a member of Wilsey Lodge of Oddfellows of this town, and was Captain of the Abegweit Hockey Team during the winters of 96-97 and 97-98.

H. B. C.—The regular monthly meeting of the Hillsboro Boating Club was held last night. The club is in a flourishing condition, having about fifty working members, six of the boats were out for a spin last night practising for the coming Regatta which is drawing near. Great interest is being taken in the coming races and all that is necessary to make it a success is a little outside help which it is hoped will be forthcoming. Several new members were balloted for. The married men's crew are working hard for victory.

Dominion Day at Montague was duly honoured, all the business places were closed and the citizens scattered in different directions to enjoy themselves. The principle attraction was at the new trotting park and although the track was somewhat heavy the trotting was fairly creditable. In the three-minute class there were three entries. Mr. Kelly of Montague won 1st prize in three straight heats; Mr. Jas. M. Millar Albany Plains, 2nd and Mr. S. McPhee Heatherdale 3rd. In the free for all there was also three entries, Mr. John McCabe of Montague West took first money; Mr. Owen Hughes, of Montague West 2nd; and Mr. Isaac Stewart 3rd. The bicycle race was won by Mahewson of Heatherdale. The refreshment saloons, dancing booths and swings were well patronised and the crowd thoroughly enjoyed themselves and there was no drunkenness or rowdyism, thanks to the strict enforcement of the Scott Act in our village. The Monte band drove to Murray River and enlivened that thriving village with their sweet music which was no doubt thoroughly enjoyed by the villagers.

All-Wool and a yard wide is an expression you often hear nowadays. This may be true of the goods when you buy them; but very seldom after they have been once or twice washed. If they are then three-quarters of a yard wide, you can count yourself lucky. WASHES WOOLEN GOODS WITHOUT CAUSING THEM TO SHRINK. If you don't believe this, ask us for a free sample cake, use according to directions, and join the thousands of believers. Johnson & Johnson DRUGGISTS
