

A Twenty-Five Days' Finish Sale— Last Call in BROWN'S Farewell Sale

This ad announces the beginning of the biggest event in the largest sale ever held in this Province. The balance of my stock, over $10,000 worth is going to be cleared out in this 25 days' finish sale. Every article is a good value at the price, is in good condition, up-to-the-minute in style and is a real snap at the former price.

I know that by slow progress I could sell everything out in the ordinary way at reasonable prices and in short time but this will not answer my purpose. I have decided to start today and put on enough salesmen to handle the crowded store every day and cut the prices of each article away down below actual cost of manufacture.

I expected to leave Charlottetown by the first of December but the disagreeable weather and other causes have kept the sales lower than I expected them to be, and I cannot leave here until the stock is sold out and the business bought.

I must reach the West by January 1st at the latest and I know I will sell every article in the store this month at the following low cut prices. This is the last call in this big Farewell Sale and now and here is the time for you to make a saving of a life time.
