Concert At Kenington

The King George Hall, Kenington was the scene of a pleasing variety concert on Friday night when the Summerside Academy Glee Club and several popular entertainers of Summerside and Kenington treated a large audience to a delightful program of vocal and instrumental music, a reading, and dance numbers.

The concert was sponsored by the Home and School Association. Rev. Lewis Murray presided in a pleasing manner introducing the various performers with brief appropriate remarks.

The first number was two songs by the Summerside Glee Club "Santa Lucia" and "Cradle Song" which were most pleasingly rendered. The gaily colored skirts and sweaters and bright faces of the thirty girls taking part looked most attractive.

A charming little Miss, seven year old, Myrtle Perry, greatly pleased the audience with her stepping and dancing and graciously responded to an encore.

A piano solo, "Night Owls" cleverly executed by Miss June Sempie, Kenington, was the next member.

This was followed by a vocal solo when Miss Margaret Muttart, Summerside sang very pleasingly "In the time of Roses". Another junior, Miss Myrna Cousins, Kenington, contributed a piano solo in a pleasing manner, "Monkeys in a tree."

The next number was contributed by the youngest of all the performers, Margaret and Jean, charming little daughters of Rev. and Mrs. Lewis Murray. Their sweetly rendered duets were "Jack Frost" and "Brahms Lullaby".

Mr. Donald Baker, popular raconteur of Summerside, gave a realistic impersonation of "Sandy McTavish's trip to Boston."

The last three numbers on the program were tops in vocal music and merited their position on the program which is usually given to the best numbers.
