IN MEMORIAM
MRS. DORA O'HEENAY
 The people of Point De Roche and vicinity were shocked on the morning of July 5 when they learned of the death of Mrs. Dora O'Heenay, relict of the late John O'Heenay, at the age of 72 years.
 A week previous to her death she entered the City Hospital for treatment for heart disease where all that medical aid and skilled nursing was done for her but to no avail, and on the above mentioned date she passed away. The deceased was of a kind and cheerful disposition, always honest and upright, she made for herself a large circle of friends, and she will be greatly missed by all that had the pleasure of her acquaintance. She leaves to mourn one sister, Mrs. John Fricke, Tracadie Cross and one brother, Alfred Doyle, Ballinmore, N. H.
 Her funeral to St. Andrews on July 6th under the direction of A. A. Hennessy, was largely attended. Requiem High Mass being sung by the pastor Rev. A. P. McDonald. Service at the grave being performed by Rev. Maurice McDonald, Tracadie Parish. May her soul rest in peace.

MacNeil—Palmer
 Pink and white sweet peas and geraniums, with a beautiful bridal arch at the foot of the Chancel Steps, formed the setting for an interesting choral wedding in St. Peter's Church, Freehold, on Wednesday evening, August 7, 1935, at 5 p. m., when Edna Olive, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Palmer, Freehold, became the bride of Oscar William MacNeil of West Devon.
 The bride entered the Church on the arm of her father to the strains of the traditional wedding march, and stood under the bridal arch as the choir and congregation sang softly, "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden." With the bride and groom kneeling at the altar steps the choir sang, "Breathe On Me Breath of God." The ceremony was conducted by the Reverend A. H. Hart-Davis, rector of the parish.
 The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a white silk, floor-length dress of lace, with a picture hat and trailing white tulle. The bride's bouquet was in the form of a lovely shoulder droop of pink and white sweet peas. The ushers were Edwin MacNeil, and Milton Palmer. During the signing of the register a solo was rendered by Mrs. R. H. Palmer of Freehold, who sang "O Father All Creating."
 Following the ceremony a reception and supper was held at the home of the bride's parents. The floral decorations were under the direction of those of the Church. For travelling the bride wore a blue tweed suit, flecked with grey, and had blue and grey accessories. The bridal couple after a motor trip in the Marimides will reside in West Devon.

MR. REUBEN BREHAUT
 The death occurred on July 31st of Reuben Brehaut at his home, Lyndale, at the age of seventy-four. The late Mr. Brehaut was born at Lyndale of Huguenot descent. As a young man he followed the sea, attaining the rank of second mate on the government survey boat, the "Gulnare". He was a splendid seaman, a most interesting conversationalist, and a true friend. About thirty-seven years ago he married Catherine MacPherson. She died in April, 1918.
 He leaves to mourn his passing, one brother Robert in Philadelphia; one son Robert, Lyndale; and two daughters, Sadies, Mrs. Behm, Grand View, and Helen, Belmont, Mass.
 The funeral service which was conducted by Rev. A. E. Weil on August 2nd was largely attended. A tribute to the esteem in which the deceased was held, interment was in the Orwell Head Cemetery. The pall bearers were Malcolm D. MacDonald, Hershey Carver, Stephen Hicken, Harold Behm, D. M. MacDonald and Dan Mackenzie.

Doctor's Son, Bride Welcome 300 At Party
 Over 300 residents of this city and vicinity attended the reception the first part of the week to Mr. and Mrs. William A. McCausland (Allison Duncan MacLaughlin) at the home of Mr. McCausland's parents, Dr. and Mrs. William J. McCausland, of 123 Franklin St., Quinny. Mr. McCausland brought his bride here from Montreal, and the couple are now at Hampton beach for the season where they will be joined shortly by Mrs. William J. McCausland who left today. Dr. McCausland will go down to the beach in August.
 The young couple, Dr. and Mrs. McCausland, Miss Alice McCausland, of Quinny, niece of Dr. and Mrs. McCausland, who was maid of honor at the wedding, and Wallace French, a nephew of the McCauslands, who was best man, received the guests standing before the tall windows of the McCausland residence. Baskets of pink gladioli and blue delphiniums were placed at either end of the group, and over a cluster of small white wedding bells was suspended by wide white satin ribbons. Palms and ferns were also used.
 Guests inspected the display of wedding gifts in an upstairs room, a number having arrived today and yesterday and thus as yet unopened. In addition there is a wide variety of gifts in Montreal, where the couple will reside. Septimie and McLaughlin's gift, the former a silver service, the latter a silver service made to order with a special pattern.

Cold Drinks For Hot Days
 Milk drinks claim the distinction of being both refreshing and nourishing. In other words they are not only thirst quenchers but valuable food. An ideal combination for the summer days when appetites are apt to lag and there may be little desire for solid foods.
 The natural flavour of milk makes it a most palatable drink when served ice-cold. Some prefer the tang of fresh, buttermilk to that of sweet milk, while milk drinks, such as the following, made by the addition of syrups and flavorings are also quite popular.
Chocolate Milk Shake
 4 squares (ounces) chocolate (melted over hot water), or 3-4 cup cocoa, few grains salt; 1 to 1-1/2 cups sugar, 1-1/2 cups boiling water.
 Mix together chocolate or cocoa, salt, sugar and water and stir until well blended. Boil 5 minutes. Put in a covered jar. Use 2 to 3 tablespoons syrup to 3-4 cup of milk, beating together with egg beater or shaking well in a shaker. Serve thoroughly chilled.
Milk Orangeade
 1 cup milk; 2 tablespoons cracked ice; 3 tablespoons orange syrup.
 Make orange syrup by boiling together for 5 minutes equal quantities of orange juice and sugar. A little lemon juice may be added if desired. Put milk, ice and syrup in a jar and shake until blended and served cold.
Ginger Milk
 3-4 cup milk; 1-4 cup ginger ale; sugar if desired.
 Combine very cold milk and chilled ginger ale. Sweeten to taste and serve at once.
Milk Blossoms
 3-4 cup milk; charged water (to fill glass), 2 to 3 tablespoons fruit syrup or grape juice.
 Blend milk and syrup together before adding charged water. Serve very cold. Orange, lemon, pineapple, strawberry, raspberry or fig syrup may be made by using half as much sugar as fruit or fruit juice. In the case of berries, cover with water. Boil 5 minutes and strain through cheese cloth. Canned fruit or jam may be used to make the syrup. With most syrups a few drops of lemon juice improves the flavour.
 own natural reds as the cornfield knows them, and they look perfectly at home on a maize-coloured gown. They are arranged straight across the corage.

ADMIRALTY MESSENGER CARRIES KING'S TIME
 The King's Time prevails in London, according to an item in a recent issue of the Canadian National Railways Magazine which describes the formalities that are undergone daily when the Irish Mail carries the King's Time to Holyhead. Each day a special messenger brings a watch from Holyhead to London. The watch is carried to the Post Office, wound and handed back to the overseer, who carries it to Euston station where it is placed on the Night Mail to carry the official time back to Holyhead. An Admiralty messenger has been performing this function daily since 1837.
KILLED IN FALL
 SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9—Joshua Rapken, wealthy wholesale liquor dealer, was killed today when he leaped from the second storey of his burning home, landing on his head and breaking his neck.

SENTIMENTAL AGAIN?
 Young people, it is believed, are reaching to sentiment again. Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, and Lady Katherine Meade are bearing this in mind for a neutral garden party which they are planning for July, which is always the month of unusual parties. There is to be a German beer garden by the lakeside in Regent's Park.
 A wandering violinist will appear at the party—it is with him that the sentiment really comes in. He is to play sentimental tunes and haunting waltzes round the lakeside along the paths of Lady Dance's Regent's Park home.
A BIG ORGANIZATION
 LONDON, Aug. 7.—(CP)—Two well-known automobile speedsters chose contrasting methods of wedding-day transport recently. Phil Bishop dirt track rider and his bride left their wedding reception by motorcycle and L. Featherston, racing motorist, "punted" his bride down the Thames after the ceremony.

INSTITUTE CONVENTION
 The annual District Convention of Granville, Lyndale, Heatherdale, Valleyfield, Bellevue, Caledonia, Milltown and Whim Road Women's Institutes was held in Heatherdale Hall on August 1, 1935, with the President, Mrs. I. S. Martin, presiding.
 The afternoon session opened by singing the "Institute Ode" followed by the "Club Women's Creed."
 After the reading of the minutes reports from the various Institutes were read, all showed much good work done during the year.
 The audience was favored in having as their guest speaker for the afternoon, Miss MacMillan, supervisor of Institutes, who gave an interesting address on the Federated Convention held at Charlottetown, and gave an account of the Peace Garden.
 The following is the result of the election of officers for the following year:
 President: Mrs. John MacLeod, Bellevue; Vice-President: Miss Florrie MacDonald, Heatherdale; Sec'y Treasurer: Miss Ema Bruce, Heatherdale.
 On display were a number of antiques which created a good deal of interest. A story of a heroic deed by an early settler of the P.E.I. River district, read by the President, as much enjoyed, as was also a demonstration on twisting yarn with a spindle and hand reel by Mrs. Sarah Bruce.
 The bringing of the National Anthem brought the session to a close.

supper was served by a committee in charge.
EVENING SESSION
 The evening session was largely attended.
 The program was as follows:
 Chorus, O Canada; Solo, Mrs. Murchison (Milltown); Trio, Messrs Munroe, Bruce and Bears, (Whim Road); Reading, Miss Bessie MacLeod (Valleyfield); Address, Dental Hygiene, Dr. Keoping, Gaelic Solo, Alan Cameron (Caledonia); Trio, Messrs. Munroe, Bruce and Bears, (Kilmuir); Trio, Messrs. O. Martin, A. Martin and F. A. Bruce, (Valleyfield); Instrumental Music, Archie Stuart, Anna MacDonald and Florrie MacDonald, (Heatherdale).
 The singing of the National Anthem brought the Convention to a close.
