First Period of Competition Almost Gone

10 Per Cent Less Points for Subscriptions After Saturday Night.

OUT OF TOWN CANDIDATES ATTENTION

Out of town candidates as well as Charlottetown candidates may work up until the last minute of the close of the first period Saturday night, and mail their results any time before 10 o'clock Monday morning. It is not necessary that the subscriptions are at the office of the Competition Department by Saturday night or even Monday morning at 10 o'clock, but every candidate must either have their subscriptions at the Office or have them mailed not later than 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 11, in order to receive the benefit per the first period schedule. Make every minute count this week, candidates, and secure every possible point and subscription you can before the first period closes Saturday night, July 9. The more subscriptions you turn in during the first period the more points you will have and as points are the main requisites in winning the prizes you should make a special effort and secure every promise and every subscription you can this week as there will be a 10 per cent discount in points after Saturday night, that is subscriptions will earn 10 per cent less points next week. Hustle, hustle, every minute while the most points are given.

First Grand Prize

Gray-Dort Special $1640. The handsomest light car built. This grand reward is waiting for the Candidate securing the highest total of points in The Guardian Competition. Now on exhibition at McNutt & White, Ltd., Queen Street, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

CLOSING RULES OF FIRST PERIOD

2. All candidates may work up to the last minute of the closing of the first period.
3. Candidates living out of Charlottetown will have up until 10 o'clock Monday morning, July 11, to get their money orders and mail their subscriptions.
