H. M. S. Cornwall is expected to arrive here today on her return from Quebec.

The congregation of St. James' Church worshipped in the schoolroom at both services yesterday owing to extensive improvements being made to the church.

At the morning service in St. Peter's Cathedral yesterday Canon Simpson took a weak turn in the pulpit which necessitated the immediate closing of the service with the benediction. In the evening Canon Simpson was sufficiently recovered to take the service without delivering any sermon.

A most successful entertainment took place in the Malpeque Hall under the auspices of Court Aberdeen, L. O. F., on Friday night last. Notwithstanding that the weather was not favorable and the roads in a sloppy condition the hall was filled by an appreciative audience. Rev. Mr. Rattee occupied the chair, and an excellent programme was rendered, including vocal solos by Miss Hazel Bremner of Charlottetown, Miss McKinnon and Miss Noonan of Summerside and Chas. B. Woodside of Malpeque, who also gave a couple of violin solos. All the performers were heartily encored and generously responded. Mrs. Delaney performed the duties of Accompanist, with marked ability. From a Forensic standpoint the meeting was full of interest and inspiration. The special event was the presentation to Arthur Owen, an honored and respected resident of Malpeque and member of Court Aberdeen, of his first cheque under the Old Age benefit scheme. Mr. Owen reached the age of 70 and has for his dues cease and he receives from the Foresters one tenth of his insurance yearly for the next ten years. John F. Wear of Charlottetown, High Counsellor, made the presentation of this first cheque to Mr. Owen in a capital address, pointing out the many benefits to be received from membership in the L. O. F. An excellent address was also made by S. F. Hodgson of this city and Chairman, Rev. Mr. Rattee, gave a Blackboard demonstration which had a convincing effect. The advantages of social and fraternal membership, of protection by insurance at a minimum cost, of the total disability clause, the old age benefit, the old age pension, the participation in the Home Fund, and the Sanatorium at Rainbow Lake in the Adirondack Mountains and a Free room and free medical treatment in the Prince Edward Island Hospital, were all ably set forth by the different speakers, and the audience clearly appreciated the grand work which the Independent Order of Foresters are doing in this Province.
