It is learned that just as soon as a contract can be let, a steel bridge will be built across the bridge, five miles east of O'Leary, and the road straightened. Meanwhile reflectors will be placed on this dangerous curve which has been the scene of a number of auto crashes and accidents. One in 1944 caused the deaths by drowning of three young soldiers of the Reserve Army, G. Ramsay, W. Dennis and R. Brooks. Credit is due the Alberton and West Prince Board of Trade and the representative citizens of the Provincial Legislature and influential citizens in their efforts to have this dangerous curve straightened, and the Government on its decision to make the scene of the Western Road completely safe for tourists and the local population.

The O'Leary Young People's Union of the United Church held a very successful social on Thursday evening, Oct. 13th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dymont in Knutsford.
