

Lal Club Retains Gaboury Trophy

Score Easy Triumph After Early Lead In Inter-Club Bonspiel

Charlottetown curlers yesterday, in inter-club competition with rinks representing the Summerside and Montague clubs, retained the Gaboury Trophy. The scores were: Charlottetown 97, Montague 55, Summerside 48.

Emblematic of island club supremacy in the roarin' game, the coveted piece of silverware will rest for another year in the local club premises. Three rinks from each club engaged in play afternoon and evening with twelve ends being played in all matches.

Take Early Lead
Skips Anderson and Full rolled in the rocks in the afternoon's play to give the local "beams and stane" artists a comfortable lead and the restoration of play in the evening found the pair still pulling up the score to cement the victory. Between them they accounted for a score of 14. The A. W. Hyndman rink came through with the other two wins for a total score of 23 rocks in the charmed circle.

At the close of the play in the afternoon the score stood: Charlottetown 31, Montague 30 and Summerside 3.

The Match
One of the matches featured the bonspiel when the Montague rink and by doing, rather than trail their opponents in the early stages, on even terms with them.
