POPULAR APPOINTMENT - Miss Margaret Darling has been appointed by the Provincial Department of Health and Welfare as Public Health Nurse for Kings County and will make her headquarters in Montague. She was previously employed in this province as Public Health Nurse for West Prince County from 1923-1924, where she enjoyed renewing old friendships over the thanksgiving weekend. Since 1922 Miss Darling has been engaged in Public Health Nursing in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and has come here from British Columbia, where she was stationed at Ladysmith on Vancouver Island. She is a graduate of the Saint John General Hospital and has her Certificate in Public Health Nursing from the University of Toronto.

REBEKAHS WELCOME OFFICER - A large number of members of Alpha Rebekah Lodge No. 10, I. O. O. F. were present to greet C. B. Warden, Sydney Mines, Mrs. Anna Snow, Sydney Mines, C. B. Warden of the Rebekah Assembly, on her official visit on October 12th. Also present were Sister Ruby Houle, Past President Rebekah Assembly Ethel Sutherland, P. N. G. District Deputy President and Past Grand Masters, Geo. Ryan and A. O. F. Gill, and David Bethune Past Grand Patron. Past Noble Grand, Jess Crockett, Helen Paulson, Hilda Harper, Little Gill and Phoenix Pound introduced the visitors who were welcomed by the noble Grand Lillian Smith. A short programme followed consisting of a piano solo by Helen G. MacEachern, P. N. G. reading by Past President Ruby Houle and vocal duet by Past Noble Grand, Clare Brown and Beth Compton. A pleasing presentation ceremony under the direction of Past President Houle was carried out by P. N. Grand, Beatrice Laphorne, Mae Adams, Bessie Holman, Georgie Campbell, Agnes Dixon, Alice Jewell, and Vera MacPherson, Anne Barboe, Helen Turner, Dorothy Rodd, Mary Dickie, Annie Birt, with District Deputy President Ethel Sutherland reading the address of welcome while the noble Grand Lillian Smith presented a gift on behalf of Alpha Rebekah No. 10, the staff presenting an arm bouquet of gladioli. The Warden Sister Snow spoke on the aims and aspirations of our order and the other visiting officials also spoke briefly. It being Alpha No. 10's birthday a birthday cake, blazing with candles was brought in and cut by the noble Grand after which refreshments were served. Many complimentary remarks were passed on the appearance of the Lodge room which had recently been re-decorated under the sponsorship of Alpha No. 10. Ad with the bowls of autumn flowers and berries was a delight to behold.
