FIRST SHOWING OF High Grade Furs -AND- FUR-LINED GARMEN

We take pleasure in presenting to our lady patrons the first showing of fall and winter styles in Ladies' Coats and furs. While our stock is not yet complete the selection we have on hand will convey a correct impression of the styles that will prevail when the cooler weather sets in. Good Furs Wear Well. It has always been and always will be our aim to offer to our patrons the highest grade Furs obtainable at the lowest possible prices, and that is the secret of our success. Our patrons know that any garments purchased of us are reliable because of their quality and perfect workmanship.

The Importance of Quality in Furs. There are many inferior grades of Furs on the market this year which will look well for a short time but which are not durable and will give poor satisfaction. In our stock you will find a complete assortment of High Grade Furs only made from the choicest skins and showing the highest degree of perfect workmanship.

Our Showing of Elegant Minks will delight you. Real skins in Canada can boast of a richer show than Minks. Every piece is guaranteed all to be of the highest quality. Labrador Mink notwithstanding. The fur is the same as last year. MINK BARS, throws neck pieces in plain, plow and animal effect, dark skins.

Ladies' Fur Lined Coats. Lined and trimmed with all suitable furs will be very fashionable this season. They can be recommended for their warmth, comfort and dressy appearance. Now is the time to make your selection when assortments are large and complete. There's nothing to gain—perhaps something to lose by delaying. We are splendidly ready. Never before have we shown so complete an assortment.

Ladies' Fur Jackets. Fine new Astrachan Bohara Lamb and Russian lamb jackets are here on large assortment. No other style of garment will give half the service or stand half as much wear. We strongly recommend them to country women and others who are obliged to do much driving. We have them in the Famous Moose Head Brand, The James Corestine & Co and other makers make.

For further particulars, see advertisement later or apply to Peake Bros Co. agents. The firemen were called out again last night for an alarm from Mr. Campbell's on Clarke Street. It appears the children were playing upstairs on a bed with matches, and Mrs. Campbell was ill downstairs, when the fire occurred. The smoke was seen by some neighbors and the alarm sent in, and then they rendered all assistance and were enabled to put the fire out before the firemen arrived. S. F. Tarbush arrived home Friday morning at 3 o'clock from a fortnight's trip in King's Cove. When he got to Morell Thursday evening a message was waiting for him to come home at once as his little child was very sick, he lost no time and drove home through the night. There is no hope for the child recovery. Mr. Tarbush has been since Friday morning unable to attend his own duties in the store, but is feeling much better now. A large number took advantage of the beautiful sail on West River Saturday afternoon. There was a strong breeze blowing, but every one enjoyed themselves. A large number landed at McEwan's wharf and took in the picnic, which was being held on the beautiful grounds of Capt. T. A. Stewart. The steamer called on her way down and took them on board again, arriving home at 6. The next excursion will be to Orwell on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Don't miss this beautiful trip as it only costs 25c return. As the season is getting short, be one of the number having a sail on the new steamer "Harland."
