—NURSES ENTERTAINED—The nurses of the Prince County Hospital were entertained by Dr. J. B. Champion and Mrs. Champion of O'Leary on Wednesday afternoon at West Cape. They also visited Senator McArthur's country residence at Foxley River, where they were pleasantly entertained. Besides the nursing staff, a number of the Summerside doctors and their wives were present.—S.

—MEETING OF CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE—The first regular meeting of the Summerside branch of the Catholic Women's League since the June meeting was held on September 6th in the K. of C. home, the president, Mrs. Parnell McMahon presiding. The Chaplain, Rev. G. J. MacLellan, D. D., was present and spoke of the necessity of raising funds for the charitable work of the League. Mrs. McMahon gave an excellent report of the annual convention of the Provincial League held in Charlottetown last summer, which contained much of interest. The sewing circle under the auspices of the League resumed their regular weekly meetings on Thursday.—S.

—HARVEST FESTIVAL SERVICE—On Sunday evening last at the United Church at Long River a very pleasing service was held for the Harvest Festival. The service was arranged by the Y. P. S. of the Church. The sacred edifice was tastefully adorned with autumn flowers and fruits, which were afterwards sent to the Prince County Hospital. There was a very large attendance, many visitors being present. The beautiful service was conducted by Mr. William Briggs, in the absence of Rev. Mr. Somers. Mr. Murdoch MacLeod read the scripture lesson. Mr. Briggs preached an excellent sermon appropriate for the occasion. The music was particularly pleasing, a male quartette from Summerside, composed of Messrs. Bowness, Huestis, Forbes and Schurman, rendered some special numbers: Miss Sue Meadows accompanied the quartette. The organist for the service was Mrs. Murdoch MacLeod. The music was as follows: Male Quartette, "Wandering Child"; solo, "Jesus I Come"; Mr. Albert Huestis, solo, "The Beautiful Garden of Prayer"; Mrs. George A. Bowness; Anthem, "He Shall Feed His Flock," by the Long River choir; "Steal Away" by the Male Quartette; and after the sermon another by the Quartette, "Near the Cross." The congregation of Long River appreciated very much the numbers given by the quartette from Summerside and hope to have the pleasure of hearing them on a future occasion.—S.

SCHOOL GIRLS SUSPENDED BECAUSE THEY WORE SOCKS

MORRISVILLE, Pa., Sept. 13.—Three girls, all under 12 years, have been suspended from the seventh grade of the Fallsington school for wearing socks.

Socks, the principal said, are all right in the sixth grade, but not in the seventh, which is junior high school grade.

Indignant parents have protested to the superintendent of schools and to the State Department of Education.

—MONTAGUE LIBRARY—Miss Nora Bateson, director of the Carnegie Library demonstrations, was in Montague Monday evening, Sept. 11th and attended a meeting in the Assembly room, at the school. At Miss Bateson's request, a small representative meeting was held. Miss Bateson very graciously and efficiently explained the demonstrations and answered many questions in regard to same. With Mayor Mellish as chairman, a committee was formed as follows: L. H. Coffin, W. A. McLagan, M. F. McDonald, Dr. McIntyre, Dr. Grant, William Fraser, Albert Martin, Martin McKinnon, Norbert Grant, Rev. A. R. Gibson (for Boy Scouts), Mrs. Poole (for Girl Guides), and the Women's Institute by two of their officers. After the meeting, Miss Bateson, with some members of the Council, visited the Library room, and gave directions for fitting and furnishing same. This work is being started immediately by the Council. The Women's Institute have very willingly become responsible for the rent. The Library is expected to open in October, and the surrounding places will come to Montague with their requests for books on any subject, in which they are interested. Indeed they may now make their requests known, that their needs may be supplied at the very beginning of the demonstration in October.—H.

LAYMEN SAY CHANGE JAPAN MISSION NEED

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—A layman's fact finding commission reported yesterday the need of "radical changes" in missionary program, personnel and method for effective administration of Christian missionary work in Japan. The report was made public by Albert L. Scott, chairman of the Laymen's Foreign Missions Inquiry, as supplementary material extending the report recently made by the inquiry's commission of appraisal. "That radical changes are necessary in missionary program, personnel and method appears to be the conclusion indicated by the

The New HATS... COATS... DRESSES

F ALL Fashion Week clears all perplexities—Opening days offer the answer in a glance to all your fashion questions. Are skirts longer? . . . Yes, one or two inches longer depending on previous lengths. Are sleeves still big? . . . They may be wide or plain, but shoulders must look wide. What about necklines? . . . Necklines are even higher than last year, but strangely, they are more wearable. Any change in silhouette? . . . It's slimmer than ever with fullness low placed, and it's called the sheath silhouette.

How about the New Coats? . . . The distinguishing features are the built up shoulder, the different placing of the fur trim on sleeves . . . very large fur collars.

Dresses . . . Coats . . . Hats are all delightfully wearable but come in Thursday afternoon, and try them on for yourself!

STINGY SANTA CLAUS TOOK CHILDREN'S CASH WIFE WANTS ALMONY

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—What the McKennon children want for next Christmas is one good crack at Santa Claus. Mrs. Marjorie McKennon, their mother, told a divorce judge today that her husband last Christmas eve called their three children about him and gave each of them some cash. They went to bed happily, putting the money under their pillows. In the morning it was gone. McKennon explained it. "Santa took it," he told them. "He found he couldn't spare it."

CONTRACT KING TRAINS BEFORE BRIDGE TOURNEY

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—(C.P.)—Ely Culbertson goes into training before a bridge tournament. The game is just as strenuous as football, he says. Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson train by playing with their children. "They ask so many questions," the contract king declared. "They dominate your personality completely. Then you are in fine shape for the gruelling three days of a tournament." For those who have no children, Culbertson prescribed a week of going to the movies, preferably to

KIDNAPPING LACKS ORIGINALITY

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 13.—(C.P.)—Prisoners of North Carolina's State Prison look with disdain upon kidnapping, and they have their ideas why this crime has taken such a stronghold in America and about possible methods of curbing it. Five prisoners, their identities known only by number, aired their views in the "Prison News." "A very large percentage of those who resort to crime as a means of support," said No. 27,973 after recalling the escape of the Lindbergh kidnapers, "lack any originality, hence they must copy those who are successful, or apparently so." No. 27,229 would end kidnapping by "fighting fire with fire." That has always been successful," he added.

JULY IMPORTS OF CRUDE PETROLEUM HIGHER

Imports of crude petroleum in July totalled 116,271,494 gallons, compared with 121,120,617 in June and 104,209,139 in July, 1932. The imports came chiefly from the following countries: United States 77,678,436, Colombia 16,026,328, Peru 14,399,335, Dutch West India 6,129,521, Venezuela 3,714,406. In addition there were 5,616,838 gallons of crude petroleum not in the natural state from Trinidad.
