A GOOD example anticipative of Xmas: Messrs Moore & McLeod have presented each of their employees with a ticket to the Y. M. G. A.

Mr. Goodwill Clark was over in Prince Edward Island last week for stock and brought over a horse and a number of sheep.—Pictou Advocate.

Rev. J. M. McLeod preached in Montague yesterday in the absence of Rev. W. H. Spencer who is laboring in another section of the province in the interest of the century fund. Mr. McLeod leaves for Montreal on Tuesday morning, where he will spend a few days after which he goes to Chicago, then he will proceed to his home in Vancouver, B. C.

ONE of the most successful entertainments and pie socials ever held in Charlottetown took place in that hall on Tuesday last the 28th all under the auspices of the C. M. A. The large hall was packed to the doors. The programme, which was quite lengthy, was well rendered and received much applause. Mr. James Affleck acted as chairman, while A. S. Wright auctioned the pie, realising about $40.00 which goes toward purchasing a library for the C. M. A.

THE Toronto evening Star says: Rose Coghlan comes to the Toronto Opera House next week in "The White Heather," an English drama which has a splendid record of success at the Drury Lane Theatre in London, and at the Academy of Music in New York, this season. The play is this year mounted in magnificent style, the scenery being most elaborate, especially the diving scene in the last act. This bit of realism has never been excelled on the stage. There are four acts and ten scenes of marvellous beauty. The greatest of these show the bottom of the sea, where the hero in divers' armor goes down to his wrecked yacht to secure the vessel's log, which would prove his marriage to the heroine. There is a desperate fight with knives takes place between the hero and the villain. Miss Coghlan's supporting company includes John T. Sullivan and a score or more of competent actors and actresses. The gowns worn by Miss Coghlan and the other ladies of the company are described as marvels of the dress-makers' art.

A VERY pretty wedding took place in Chelsea, Mass., on Nov. 30th, when Miss Leonia J. Millar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Miller, was united in marriage to Mr. Ernest J. Hardy, son of Thomas Hardy, Esq., Little York. The bride was becomingly attired in a dress of blue silk and was supported by Miss Maria Hardy, sister of the groom who also wore a blue gown. Mr. Charles Snair, of Chelsea, acted as best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. N. S. Whittaker, of the Mt. Bellingham church.—COM.

ON Friday evening last, 1st inst., quite a number of people gathered at the new Methodist Parsonage, Pleasant Valley, to extend a cordial welcome to the Rev. and Mrs. Dystant into their new home. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and singing. At about 9 o'clock the company sat down to a sumptuous repast gotten up in excellent style by the ladies. This pleasing feature of the evening being over all repaired to the drawing room, and a short program was rendered. Mr. A. K. Henry acted in the capacity of chairman and in a few well chosen remarks stated the object of the pleasant association of the occasion after which Miss Weeks played an appropriate selection of music while all joined in singing. Mr. Thomas Bertram, Circuit Steward, then gave the address of welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Dystant. Mr. Dystant made a reply and thanked the brethren for the many kindnesses shown himself and Mrs. Dystant since their coming to the circuit and assured them all of the hearty welcome at any time to the new home. Mr. Ernest Weeks gave a short address, and after prayer by the Pastor the gathering retired to their respective homes well pleased with their first social meeting in the new Parsonage. The many useful articles left behind to replenish the pantry gave ample evidence of the high esteem in which the Pastor and his wife are held in the circuit.

DIED.

At her home at Wheatly River, on the 14th, of November, in her 37th year, Martha Nesbit, beloved wife of John Ling, after a year's illness which she bore with cheerful resignation to the will of God. She had been a consistent member of Church of Christ at New Glasgow for 21 years and passed peacefully away, leaving a loving husband and four children to mourn their great loss.

French Iron Founders.

Paris, Nov. 30.—A deputation of the Iron Founders' Association, headed by Senator Cordet, waited to-day on the Minister of Commerce, M. Millerand, with reference to the new Franco-American treaty, attention was drawn to the effect American competition would have on the iron industry of France, which, it was claimed, even under the general tariff, was seriously handicapped. The Minister replied, promising to carefully investigate the claims of the iron founders.
