WIFE'S CONSENT NOT NEEDED NOW

OTTAWA, August 11.—It is stated in authoritative circles here that the militia department is considering the advisability of cancelling the order which made it necessary for every married man to get his wife's consent before enlisting. It is said that many militiamen of extensive experience are unable to join the overseas force because their wives refuse their consent.

REV. DR. BURKE GOES ON ACTIVE SERVICE

EDITOR OF CATHOLIC REGISTER APPOINTED DIVISIONAL CHAPLAIN OF THE OVERSEAS FORCE.

(Ottawa Citizen.) The Very Reverend Alfred E. Burke, D.D., L.L.D., President and Founder of the Catholic Church Extension Society of Canada, and for the past seven years editor in chief of the Catholic Register and Canadian Extension, one of the best known clerical men in Canada, promptly offered his services to the Country in whatever capacity needed at the outbreak of the war. Now with the consent and sanction of the Church and military authorities he has been appointed Chaplain of the Overseas Contingent and will shortly proceed to England to take up his new duties. Dr. Burke has therefore tendered to Mr. Stagni, Apostolic Delegate, the presidency of the Extension Society to which he was appointed by the late Pope Pius X. The Board of Governors of the Society will be convened to present other names for the position he relinquishes with the regret of all and also to fill the editorship of Register-Extension, the exponent of Catholic thought in Canada. Under Dr. Burke the paper always breathed a strong patriotic tone and rose to a high degree of efficiency. It was stated here yesterday that Rome had recently elevated Dr. Burke to the highest degree of prelacy, that of a Prothontary Apostolic. Rev. Mr. Burke will then be the oldest and best known of our Overseas Chaplains and the spirit he has shown in making good his professions by taking an arduous service should be an inspiration to all Canadian soldiers. Dr. Burke will be attached to the Divisional Headquarters of the Second division C. E. F., with the Military rank of Major.

TROOPS RAISED AND EQUIPPED IN CANADA

(From our own correspondent) OTTAWA, Aug. 9.—The advisability of keeping four divisions in England and France instead of two as at present is to be considered by the Militia Department it was learned today. This would mean that future units would be equipped here but would get all their training in England. At present Canada has one division at the front and another, the second, in England, preparing its training. It has practically two divisions in Canada, the third, minus the drafts sent over as reinforcements, and those drafts of the additional 35,000 men which have now been recruited. The practice since the sending over of the second contingent has been to supply reinforcements through the medium of drafts from units raised as the third contingent. Though this plan is not the only one advisable under the circumstances, it has its disadvantages. For one thing the sending over of drafts interferes with the esprit de corps of units, which as a rule prefer to maintain their unity. It was announced, therefore, this afternoon, that the authorities would shortly give consideration to the plan of raising and equipping troops here and immediately sending them over to England where they would get their training. Two extra divisions, besides the two which are now on the other side of the water, would thus be maintained in England. The drafting to England Canada has raised since the beginning of the war 145,000 troops. In all some 80,000 have been sent to England, two numbers including the first and second contingents and reinforcements. There are now in Canada about 65,000 soldiers.

FRENCH CAPTURE PART OF CONGO.

PARIS, Aug. 9.—Encircling operations by French troops against German forces in West Africa, has resulted in further successes, according to an official statement issued by the minister of the colonies to-day. The statement says: "Encircling operations by French forces in the south and east Kamerun are proceeding successfully. On July 17 columns from the south took Bilama which the enemy had evacuated during the night, thus completing the conquest of that part of the Congo ceded to Germany by 1911. On July 23 columns operating in the east stormed the post of Moopa forcing the garrison to retire on Mombi, which in turn was captured four days later, reconnoissances were immediately dispatched against Ngaleni, Niassi. "Our troops are displaying great activity on the Gadj-Beri Berimha front. Gadj-Beri, after a violent combat was evacuated by the Germans."

A WORTHY MOTHER ENCOURAGES RECRUITING

Dear Sir.—Would you kindly print this letter in your valuable paper? It is a letter I received from my son every day when he was in the front. He went across to England in May. I THOUGHT IF SOME OF OUR YOUNG MEN WOULD READ IT, IT MIGHT ENCOURAGE THEM TO TAKE THE SAME STEPS AS HE HAS TAKEN.

I am, etc., (MRS. JAMES GRAHAM. Gaspereaux. Dear Mother.— This is a dandy country. Over here all the people are foolish about the Canadians. They come to see us every day when they are in the Hospitals and bring us cake and smokes; they give us a great time. I heard that we were going to be sent to the front the first of the month but I do not know how true it is. We are getting plenty of good food here and well cared for in every respect. We get all the paper and envelopes we want for nothing, only we have to buy the stamps. If we do go to the front I don't think you will hear from me for a while, but I am living in hopes to get back to Canada again to see all the boys and girls once more. Tell them I send my best wishes to them all and also tell them that I would like to see more of our Gaspereaux boys come over here to help us. How is Father and Percy getting along farming I suppose they are busy by this time haymaking. JEROME GRAHAM. July 21st, 1915. Monks Horton, England.

ONLY TURKISH SIGNS ALLOWED IN CAPITAL

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 9.—By courier to Dedeagatch, thence by cable.—In a determination effort to eradicate from the Ottoman empire all traces of things European, the Young Turks have just ordered the removal of all business signs written in Latin or Roman character. Only Turkish characters can be used hereafter in signs and advertisements. The same order applies to druggists prescriptions. The order became effective yesterday and Constantinople arose today to find herself the greatest labyrinth of mystery in the world. Two-thirds of the city's 1,500,000 inhabitants are Greeks, Armenians, Jews and natives of other countries. They have a slight speaking knowledge of the Turkish, printed characters. Strangers found it exceedingly difficult to get about and the average citizen could not tell from its sign whether a building harbored a hotel or gauges. The removal of the European lan-

Pharmasists made vain efforts to convince the Government that the carrying out of all medical formulas had their basis in the Latin languages and said it would be impossible to overturn the precedents of centuries. The Government in reply invited the pharmacists to keep their prescriptions and their bottle labels in Turkish or go out of business. Another action of the order prohibited children from wearing sailors' caps bearing on their band the name of any battleship save one in the Turkish fleet. German and Australia merchants obtained one slight concession. They were permitted to have their signs written in the language of their country, provided the and not Roman or Latin characters were used.
