The factory, which was started twenty years ago, with the late John Acoro as most active mover, has been very successful. The demand for the now famous Lake Verdie Gilt Edge Butter being always at excess of the supply the factory was able to market the product at the highest price obtainable. As many who are not patrons expressed a desire to have their milk manufactured by The Lake Verdie Dairying Co., a prosperous year is looked forward to. THIS WEATHER.—There is no accounting for the weather this winter. Yesterday Charlottetown and all the country west of it basked in the sunshine of a perfectly beautiful winter day. At the same time the eastern end of the island was enjoying (?) one of the worst snowstorms of the season. The trains from Souris and Georgetown were stalled in the snowdrifts. Can you beat it?

NEW CHURCH WINDOW.—The design of a handsome memorial window for St. Paul's Church, to be put in under the will of the late Mr. John A. Matheson and wife, has been received by the trustees and the window will probably be installed in the spring. The window will make the third section in the large north transept of the church, and is the only remaining one to be filled. The design, which has been received from Messrs. MacCausland of Toronto, is in harmony with the other windows.

LITTLE ISLAND DISAPPEARS

According to a report from Helmsing one of the numerous islands in the "30,000 lakes" that make up a large part of the Finnish republic, has recently sunk beneath the waves. The tiny island was in the Paokola Canal, which forms part of the River Vuoksi. Part of the sand of which it was composed slid into the channel, temporarily reducing its depth to seven feet, holding up the river traffic. The lost island belonged to the State.

Woman Grows Rich By Pawning

BERLIN, Jan 31.—A woman in Hanover has discovered how to grow rich by pawning—thanks to the fall in the mark. Unable to live on her modest income, she thought herself a year and a half ago of her pearl necklace, and brought it to Berlin, where it was valued at 60,000 marks. She then pawned it for 30,000 marks. A few months later a friendly banker lent her 20,000 to redeem the necklace. After redeeming it she went to another pawnshop, who appraised the necklace at 225,000 marks. She then pawned it for 110,000 marks, repaid the banker's 20,000 marks, and was able to live for a time in comfort. Six months later she again received a loan to redeem the necklace, had it revalued, and again pawned it. The necklace, now valued at 250,000 marks, is now in pawn for 1,500,000 marks—and the woman is living comfortably on the profits.

Delightful Job

A lady bank clerk had completed her first week and a friend asked her how she liked the work. "Oh, it's glorious!" she replied. "I'm at a branch where nearly all the people we know have accounts and it's so nice to see how little money some of your friends have in the bank."

Dukedom of Leinster Baptist Pastor Is Now Incorporated

LONDON, Jan 31.—The Dukedom of Leinster has been converted into a limited liability company, according to the Daily Express, which says that a private company has been registered at Somerset House under the title of "The Dukedom of Leinster Trust, Limited." The nominal capital is £500, and there are two directors. The object of the trust, according to the articles of association, is first, to secure the annulment of the bankruptcy of the Duke, and second, to repurchase his rights to the income from the Leinster estates and property.

The Duke of Leinster, who he was Lord Edward Fitzgerald, sold his reversion in the Leinster millions to Sir Harry Mallaby-Deeley. A formal contract was drawn up between them, under which Sir Harry undertook to find capital sum of more than £500,000 and to pay Lord Edward a life annuity of £1,000. All rights to the income from the estate were made over to Sir Harry, and there was a clause which gave Lord Edward the option of repurchasing his reversion during the period of ten years.

Lord Edward Fitzgerald succeeded to the dukedom in the early part of 1922, since when, says the Daily Express, Sir Harry Mallaby-Deeley has been drawing all incomes from the estates, which at the death of the Duke amounted to £700,000 a year. "Now the trust company has been evolved to obtain the annulment of the Duke's bankruptcy, first of all," said a director of the trust to an Express representative, "and we can easily obtain the necessary money for that. Then we shall negotiate for the repurchase of an income from the estate at a fair price, considering the outlay made by Sir Harry Mallaby-Deeley. Funds for this purpose have already been offered to us, providing the Duke passes the insurance doctors as a first class life. The Duke has given to the trust complete rights in the administration of his estates as soon as the reversion is obtained from Sir Harry Mallaby-Deeley."

Bans Dancing

FROSTBURG, Md., Jan 31.—The Rev. Peter McClapper, pastor of the First Baptist Church, has stirred up much comment here by the way he treated the matter of dancing in a sermon from the text, "A time to weep and a time to laugh, a time to mourn and a time to dance."

Before a congregation which packed the Auditorium, he called upon members who insisted upon dancing to relinquish convention with the church at once. At the conclusion of the sermon the minister embodied one of the plainest talks ever emanating from a Frostburg pulpit, he asked all Christians of the congregation who would oppose dancing in the community to rise in their seats. More than 100 young and old, stood up, sanctioning the views of the preacher. "We see that the Bible time to dance was when dancing really expressed great joy when the sexes danced apart," said the minister, "and when the surroundings were such as to promote health. Dancing today leads away from God causing prayerlessness and rebellion and finally baseness."

Chicago Man's Business Scheme

CHICAGO, Jan 31.—Gustav Hottinger, President of the Northwestern Terra Cotta Company, said to be the largest concern of its kind in the world, today announced a plan to turn over his entire business with assets estimated at more than $4,000,000, to his older employees.

Mr. Hottinger came to Chicago as an immigrant from Vienna. In 1878 he and two associates pooled $1,000 each and began the manufacture of terra cotta. A few months later increasing business demanded expansion, and the capacity of the plant was enlarged. A process that has been repeated frequently since.

Now at the end of forty-five years, Mr. Hottinger has arranged to step aside for six employees who started with him as day laborers, and thirty other executives, shop heads and foremen.

LINK BERLIN TO RUSSIA NEW AIRPLANE ROUTE

LONDON, Jan 31.—The Deutsche Luftverkehrs Gesellschaft has just started a new way linking Berlin with Kharkov reports the Westminster Gazette. The faros on these German air services are high at present. Between Koenigsberg and Moscow, in winter, it is not possible to travel from London to Moscow of 10,000 miles.

Maritime Religious Education Council

The second week of the Teachers' Training Institute being carried on by the Maritime Religious Education Council Secretaries in five cities, has been productive of even more enthusiasm than the first week. Last week the third meeting was held in Amherst, with a super gathering in the Presbyterian Church with the Rev. R. P. Walker, as Chairman, over 130 in attendance. The Secretaries report that this was one of the best Banquets after the banquet for the carrying out of their work as follows:

Teen Age Girls and Administration in the Baptist Church, the Teen Age Boys Workers in the Presbyterian Church and the Children's Division in the Methodist Church.

Previous to the Institute the Amherst District Convention held their annual meeting. After reorganization Mr. W. L. Bell was elected President, Kelton Carter Vice-President and Mrs. C. A. Lusby, Secretary-Treasurer.

On Friday night in New Glasgow, 125 sat down to a banquet in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The proceeds of the banquet were donated by the ladies to the M. R. E. C. funds.

The New Glasgow District Convention was also held that afternoon and set up a splendid organization which speaks well for the successful carrying on of the work in this district. This year the M. R. E. C. has been very fortunate in the type of people who are being elected to carry on the Master's work. Mr. F. J. Binches was elected President; Freeman Moore, Vice-President; Mrs. J. W. C. Macdonald, Secretary-Treasurer.

In Halifax on Friday night there were about 100 in attendance. The Teen Age Girls' and the Boys' Groups met for supper, the former at the First Baptist Church and the second at the Y. M. C. A. The other groups met at 7.30 in the First Baptist and energetically took up the work of the Institute. The outstanding feature of this Training Institute is the series of addresses on "Some Fundamental Principles in the Teaching of the Bible" that is being given by Prof. J. M. Shaw. In Amherst this week Prof. Lines of Mount Allison University will give the first of his three Bible Studies.

In Moncton on Monday last Miss Allison's group met in the First Baptist and the other groups in the Central Methodist Church. Due to the serious illness of Miss Harrison's father she was unable to be present and her place was taken by Mrs. A. F. Robinson in Moncton and by Mrs. J. D. MacPherson of Sussex in St. John's meeting, covering the subject "Missionary Instruction for Young Children." There were about 90 present.

A total of 180 attended the four meetings in St. John's—28 at a supper meeting of the Boys' Workers at the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria. After the meal the boys for the time being returned into the Tuxis Square organized the previous week with the Praetor Mr. C. P. Weidner, presiding and Rev. E. M. Mulligan as Mentor. A helpful discussion on the Devotional period followed on the business session, then by the Scripture Mr. Wm. Denham gave a splendid illustration of how a Sunday School lesson might be taught to the boys.

The Girls' Group—27 present—met at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church for supper and Group Bible Discussion, and then adjourned to Germaln Street Baptist Institute to join the Adult and Administration Department for Bible Study led by Rev. H. E. Thomas, after which they adjourned to hear a splendid address written by Mrs. Harold Lawrence read by Miss Jessie Lawson on "The Value of Story Telling." Next week the points covered will be exemplified in the practical telling of stories.

The Adult and Administration Department at the same time took up the matter of proper grouping, grading and organization of classes the selection of material for instruction, with special emphasis on the suitability of the Departmental Graded Lessons, led by Rev. W. C. Machum.

On Wednesday the New Brunswick Boys' Work Board held their annual meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Cafeteria and adopted a vigorous programme for the coming year. A Committee was appointed to meet with the Y. M. C. A. officials and arrange dates so that a Joint Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp might be in the next few days.
