ANOTHER ISLANDER WOUNDED—The latest casualty list contains the name of another Prince Edward Islander wounded. Private Uriah W. McDonald of Alberton.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED—The engagement is announced of Miss Lois Marian youngest daughter of the late Mr. James M. Hooper and Mr. G. M. Richards both of this city. Marriage to take place quietly this week.

The angel of death visited the home of Mr. Thomas Murphy, South Shore, on August 24th and claimed for his own their adopted son, Frank Steele, aged 16 years and 7 months, after a brief illness of quinsy. He leaves to mourn besides his adopted parents, his mother in Charlotte town and five brothers, three of whom are at Port Ives, Halifax, on garrison duty. His funeral took place at South Shore on Friday morning at 10 a. m. High mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father McQuaid. The funeral was largely attended and the floral tripe and esteem in which he was held by the community. May his soul rest in peace.

RECOVERING—The last issue of the Maple Leaf, published in Oakland, Cal. says: The many friends of Mr. Oliver Muttart of Summerside, P. E. Island, who has been spending the past several months in San Francisco, will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly recovering from his recent illness. Mr. Muttart is at present residing at the Madison Park Apartments in Oakland, and is enjoying the balmy air and sunshine on the east side of the bay, while at the same time meeting many new island friends. Mr. Muttart, before removing to Summerside, lived for many years in Augustin, Cal.

A BUSY POINT—There is great activity at Carleton at present. About 40 cars of ballast is being strown along on the new sparring leading to the car ferry terminal each day. Mr. D. R. Morrison, contractor for the buildings, is moving rapidly with a big crew of mechanics and workmen.

DIED OF WOUNDS—A telegram received at Hebron Lot 8 last Saturday announces the death from wounds of Lance Corporal Thomas Hierlby, who it will be remembered, was reported wounded in action some weeks ago. The late Mr. Hierlby was well known in Summerside where he had been employed for some time as salesman in the store of Sinclair & Stewart. He was a young man of excellent character, taking a leading part in church and Y. M. C. A. work. Many friends in Summerside as well as in his native district, Hebron, will learn with sincere sorrow of his death.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Senter, will have the deep sympathy of a large number of friends in the death, which occurred yesterday morning, of their youngest child, a bright little boy aged a year and four months. The little fellow had been ill for some six weeks but it was only within the past week that anything serious was anticipated. There are left to mourn, besides the father and mother, one daughter and four sons. The funeral takes place at 2 p. m. to-day from the home at 73 Chestnut Street to the People's Cemetery.

The death occurred at St. Louis on Wednesday, July 12th, after a lingering illness, of Eric, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Chaisson, at the early age of 38 years. He leaves a wife, nee Theresa Doucette, and three children to mourn the loss of a kind and loving husband and father, also his mother and father, four brothers and three sisters, John, Peter, Joseph and Theodore. The sisters are Lucy, Virginia and Mrs. Joseph Arsenault.

On Friday his remains were followed by a large number of friends to the church of the Immaculate Conception, Palmer Road, where Requiem High Mass was sung, after which he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery there to await the call when all shall be summoned to their eternal home. The pall bearers were, John Bernard, Charles Gaudet, Joseph F. Bernard, Sosime Bernard, Jerome Doucette, and Peter F. Chaisson.—R.I.P.

ST. PETER'S RED CROSS.—A great British offensive is now in progress. The inevitable result in wounded of such a movement must be evident to all. With this fact in mind the Red Cross Society of St. Peter's, of which Mrs. R. Kaneen is President, never fail in keeping up their splendid work. Much credit is due Mrs. J. Davidson and Mrs. A. E. Simpson, who made and presented a beautiful quilt which represented the Red, White and Blue, and which was sold by lottery tickets throughout the village and surrounding country by the ladies of the Society, the amount being $79.00. Much thanks is given to all who bought tickets to help the good cause. At the close of the sale of tickets the prize ticket was drawn by Mr. Charles Waye of St. Peter's in the presence of a number of the ladies of the Society, and the quilt was won by Mrs. J. H. Rattray, of St. Peter's. The proceeds of the Ice Cream Festival and the sale of the quilt gives the Society the amount of $98.00 in the treasury, also over sixty pairs of socks which will soon be forwarded to the soldiers in France. Although the night above referred to, passed off very successfully, being held at the home of the President, Mrs. N. Kaneen, at St. Peter's. There was a good attendance and a pleasant social time was spent. Mr. A. Dover of Winchester, Mass., a nephew of the hostess added greatly to the entertainment by giving several solos in his rich and powerful voice. As the evening brightened it was decided to serve the ice cream on the lawn, the ladies of the Society working diligently and deftly that everyone would be abundantly served, realizing the sum of $19 towards their funds.

"Greater love has no man than this, to lay down his life for his friends."

The home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dunning, Granville was plunged in sadness a few days ago when a telegram reached them at St. Peter's, sad news that their fourth son, Private Claud A. No. 44459 had been killed in action in Belgium on August 12th.

Deceased whose bright cheerful disposition made him very dearly beloved in the home and elsewhere was only seventeen years of age when he bravely answered the call of his motherland, and early in 1915 enlisted in the 55th Battalion, with Lieut. Rogers in Summerside and had been four months in action when the noble young life was cut short.

Besides a sorrowing mother and father there are left to mourn three sisters and five brothers, two of whom are serving their King and Country namely, Trooper Otto A. in action in France, Private Ralph R. training with the 105th Battalion in England, James and Mrs. Wm. Hemstreet of Sask. Mrs. Frank Dunning, New London, and James, George and Glen at home.

Briton's sons have always called her mother,
 Briton's sons have always loved her best,
 Briton's sons have always loved love her,
 The dear old flag laid on each manly breast.

On Friday evening, Aug. 18, the members of Eclectic Rebekah Lodge, No. 73, assembled in their lodge room at Kensington to bid a farewell to some of their valued members, J. W. and Mrs. Hogg, who are leaving their former home to reside in Summerside. After a few remarks, the following address was read by Dr. F. W. Jardine: Sister Irene and Brother John W. Hogg.—We, the officers and members of Eclectic Rebekah Lodge, No. 73, at this time to express our regret at the loss of the lodge is sustaining by your removal from us. Ever since we were instituted you both have taken a very active interest in its welfare and assisted at all times in making our meetings agreeable and enjoyable, always exemplifying yourselves the principles of our order.—Friendship, Love and Truth,—always punctual in attending meetings, and assisting us. We have never done much to make our lodge what it is, and give it its standing amongst our sister lodges of this province. We sincerely hope that you may continue to give your aid to our sister lodge where you will reside, and by your example always uphold the principles of our beloved Order. We assure you that you jolly with you the best wishes of Eclectic Rebekah lodge. And for brother Hogg we, the members of Regal lodge here present wish to express to him our appreciation of his efforts to make it what he has done. In conclusion we wish you every success in your new sphere of life and hope that you will frequently visit this, your old home town, and the members of Eclectic Rebekah and Regal lodges. Please accept these small tokens of our appreciation.

Signed in behalf of the members of Eclectic Rebekah Lodge, No. 73, and Regal Lodge No. 124.
 Dora Squarebriggs, F. W. Jardine, M. D.

After the above, an address was also read to Mr. W. C. Deleany, who is leaving to serve his King and country. It will be remembered that Mr. Deleany enlisted at the beginning of the war, and after being wounded returned to his home. But Will is determined to have another rap at the Kaiser. He was presented with a wristlet watch from the members of Eclectic and Regal Lodge. After the meeting ice cream and cake were served.

A highly esteemed citizen passed away yesterday morning in the person of Mr. George R. Montgomery. He was better known and none more favourably than the late Mr. Montgomery, his business connections for many years extending practically all over the province. He was born in Malpeque seventy one years ago, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery. When a boy he began his mercantile career, first serving an apprenticeship as salesman in the employ of the late Mr. R. T. Holman, and later opening a general store in his own right. This business he conducted successfully for a number of years. About twelve years ago he removed to Montague where he opened a general agency office. This business he, later, transferred to Charlottetown and conducted successfully until nearly a year ago when he was appointed Registrar of Deeds the duties of which position he performed with marked ability until laid aside by illness some two months ago. He was for many years a member and office holder of Zetland Lodge A. F. and A. M., Alberton, and was one of the oldest and best informed masons in the province. He always took an active interest in church matters, having been a member and a generous supporter of the Alberton Presbyterian Church during his long residence in that town and, since his removal to Charlottetown, of Zion Church. He was well informed on all public questions, and was always ready to help along in everything that tended towards the good of the community in which he lived and of the province. He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Isabella White of Alberton, also one brother, Mr. Daniel Montgomery, Summerside, and two sisters, Mrs. Ritchie of Malden, Mass., and Mrs. George Matheson of Revelstoke, B. C., besides a large number of relatives and friends. His only child, a son, died when six years of age. To the bereaved widow and relatives, the Guardian extends deep sympathy.

The funeral will take place at 3 p. m. to-day from his late residence, Kent Street, to the Railway Depot, and will be under the direction of the Masonic Fraternity. The body will be taken to Alberton where interment will take place tomorrow, Tuesday, at 2 p. m., from the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. W. D. White.

RED CROSS SPINNING BEE—The ladies of the Murray Harbor Red Cross Society held their annual Spinning Bee in the Public Hall on Friday the 18th inst. a large number being present. Over forty spinning wheels were in operation. A large quantity of yarn was spun which is now being knit into socks for the soldiers. Mrs. E. J. Jordan, the eldest lady present (being in her 78th year) handled the wheel as in the days of her youth. Dinner and tea were served in the hall, over sixty being present.

VISITS CARLETON POINT—Capt. J. J. Murchison, commander of the S.S. Prince Edward Island, visited Carleton Point Thursday and made a careful inspection of the new harbor and docks which is soon to become the captain's home port. Supt. Thos. H. Bassett, for the Roger Miller Co., placed a boat at the captain's disposal and showed him over every inch of the work.

This was the captain's first visit to Carleton, and he was highly pleased with the new harbor and surroundings. Mrs. Murchison accompanied the captain, so also did Capt. Thos. Howatt, of the ice boat fame. The party speak glowing terms of Mr. Barrett's kindness and ability to superintend such a gigantic structure.

The people of Bonshaw were sorely grieved on Saturday, July 22nd, 1916, when they learned of the very sudden death of Miss Margaret Crosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Abner Crosby, which took place at the P. E. Island Hospital, Charlottetown.

Deceased had suffered considerably from tonsillitis, and upon advice of physician and friends, decided to have the tonsils removed, so accompanied by her mother and father she drove to the hospital on Saturday morning to have the operation performed, but never rallied from the anaesthetic.

Maggie, as she was familiarly called, was a favorite with all who knew her, and her demise at the early age of twenty years, was a sad blow to her many young friends.

Great sympathy is being extended to the grief-stricken parents, brothers and sisters. Her pastor, Rev. E. P. Calder, assisted by Rev. J. S. McKay, conducted the funeral services, Monday the 24th at 1 p. m. A very large concourse of people followed the remains to their last resting place in Cornwall Cemetery.

The pall-bearers were: Daniel McEwen, Seymour McLean, Havelock Carson, Theoph. Beaton, Geddie McLeod, and Lawson Crosby.

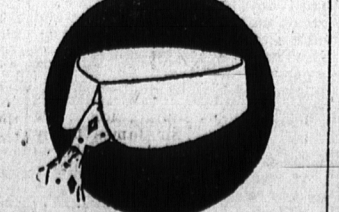

Lost, from around our family board, Where loving kindred meet,
 A face, O Lord, how dear it was,
 So sunny, fair, and sweet.

Found, in the Kingdom of our God,
 A face with love-lit eyes,
 Set like a star to beckon us
 Through gloomy, midnight skies.

Rev. E. W. Sawdon pastor of the Methodist Church at Mount Stewart, who was to have officiated at the services in Grace Church, City yesterday, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Mr. Littlejohns, was the victim of a Saturday night assault at Victoria Park on Saturday night some time after 9 o'clock. Mr. Sawdon had gone for a stroll around the Park breakfast and when he got as far as the last bathing house decided to return via the road leading up to what is known as Beech Hill. Just as he came to the point where the road curves at the best grove he saw two men suddenly appear. All he remembers is hearing one of them say: "Here he is." The next instant Mr. Sawdon was assaulted in the most brutal manner by the thugs, being quite severely cut about the head and face probably by both fist blows and kicks. When Mr. Sawdon recovered consciousness nearly two hours later he was a mass of blood, his clothes torn and dishevelled and the sum of three dollars, all the money he happened to have with him at the time, was gone. He managed to make his way back to his boarding house in town in a very weakened condition. As a result of his injuries he was unable to take the services in Grace Church yesterday being confined to his bed all day. It is believed, however, that he will be able to return home in a few days. Such an affair as this is something altogether unusual in Charlottetown. It is to be sincerely hoped that the law ruffians who would commit such a crime will soon be brought to justice and be given the full punishment which such an offense deserves.
