HAD LUCK WITH HIM—President French of 28 Hatch Rd., West Medford, Mass., returned Wednesday night from Springfield, Mass., where he had gone the day before on business for the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co. Mr. French intended to spend the remainder of the week in Springfield, but decided to return to Medford upon learning by telephone from Mrs. French of the illness of their daughter, Mildred. Rather than risk being marooned in Springfield by flood conditions, which were becoming increasingly alarming, Mr. French decided to return at once. He was fortunate in being able to get the last train to leave Springfield prior to the blocking of the main line of the Boston and Albany R. R. at Charlton by a washout. Mrs. French is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. MacKay of Murray Harbor North, P. E. I.

New Pipe Organ Installed At St. Paul's Church

The new pipe organ which is being installed at St. Paul's Anglican Church will be handed over to the vestry at a meeting this evening by Mr. J. E. Ledoux of St. John, who has had charge of the installation work.

The new instrument, replacing a two manual pipe organ which has been in the church for over seventy years, is an electric, pneumatically operated, three manual beautifully voiced organ. It is powerful or quiet as occasion demands. The organist and choirmaster, Mr. H. R. Shephard, is enthusiastic about the new instrument and said it exceeded his expectations. He had a four manual Blinn organ under his control in Old County before coming to Canada, and so is well qualified to judge.

The new organ has a splendid set of chimes which is a splendid addition to its other charming features. The Great Organ consists of:

The organ will be in use for the first time on Palm Sunday, April 5th, when the choir of 40 voices, which has been working very hard to come up to the standard of the organ, will be heard in a very fine work by Mozart, "I Will Give Thanks Unto Thee O Lord."

Messrs. Casavant Brothers, St. Hyacinthe, are to be very highly congratulated for the beautiful organ they have built for St. Paul's Church. The organ is placed in the same position as the old one, the console being at the other side of the chancel.

Final Competitions In Connection With the Show Held Saturday.

Bowling and ping pong competitions featured Saturday's programme at the Girls' and Boys' Hobbies Exhibition at the Y. M. C. A. The display of collections and hobby crafts was viewed by a large number throughout the afternoon and evening, while the programme of entertainment catered in particular to the girls and boys. Prince Shah Jehan who has been the centre of interest to many of the younger folks throughout the Exhibition entertained them Saturday night. Educational moving picture films provided by the Canadian Government and the Bell Telephone Co., of Canada were shown in the gymnasium and proved to be a very interesting part of the programme.

Tuesday night, March 31st will mark the close of the Exhibition when a high class entertainment and presentation of special prizes will take place at Prince of Wales College Hall. With few exceptions all programme numbers will be presented by young artists who were declared winners in vocal and instrumental music, dancing and reading of original poetry and eligible for first prizes in the contests held during the past few days.

A large attendance of parents and friends is anticipated.

The music for the evening will be provided by St. James Church orchestra under the direction of Mr. John Denny.

Public Meeting

A public meeting under the auspices of the Charlottetown Progressive Club will be held in the K. of P. Hall on Monday, March 30, at 8.15 p.m., for the purpose of discussing the conservation of fish and game and the regulation of trout fishing. All those interested are cordially invited to attend, especially out-of-town residents.

WITH SOUPS

With soups, particularly broths, a very good garnish consists of cubes of bread with cheese. To make them, toast slices of bread on one side then spread the other side with a little butter and plenty of grated cheese. Brown the cheese under the grill, then cut the toasted slices into cubes. These cubes, by the way, make a very good stuffing for omelettes.

GUEST RECITAL AT WOMEN'S MUSIC CLUB

The Guest Recital at the Women's Music Club meeting of March 28th was a rare treat from beginning to end.

Mr. Gomez and Miss Wood are forging surely and rapidly ahead, and to say that they have never been heard to better advantage is no mere meaningless phrase. On Saturday they gave a magnificent performance, the sympathy and perfection of unity between violin and piano being decidedly, and gratifyingly marked. Miss Wood's piano solo, Sonata in D Minor, Opus 31, no. 2 in three movements, "one of the most splendid of all Beethoven's sonatas," was played in a most splendid manner.

The other guest artists, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Raymond, as usual quite charmed their listeners with their lovely duet, "This" and "So," "Villanelle" with encore "Lakme," by Mrs. Raymond accompanied by Mrs. Rogers, and "The Road to Mandalay," by Mr. Raymond accompanied by Mrs. Raymond.

Following are Mr. Gomez's violin numbers and an abbreviation of his programme notes which were read by Miss MacKenzie. He was accompanied throughout by Miss Wood.

"Hebrew Melody" by Joseph Achorn—this composition for violin and piano, the theme of which had been heard in boyhood by Achorn in a Warsaw synagogue, was originally sketched in half an hour and eventually became world famous. It is performed by the greatest violinists of our day, always with outstanding success.

Concerto in G Major by Fritz Kreisler in three movements only two of which were played—the beautifully melodious adagio and the gay sparkling allegro. This work was originally published as having been written by Vivaldi an Italian composer of the eighteenth century, but it was actually written by Kreisler in the style of Vivaldi. Kreisler in explaining his habit of publishing his own compositions under the names of older masters, said, "Necessity forced this course on me thirty years ago when I was desirous of enlarging my programmes."

"Sonata in G Major" opus 78, Johannes Brahms—this work shows Brahms in a most genial mood, touched with a gentle melancholy. The composition, suggested by an early song of his, "Regenlied" or "Rain Song" is one of the rare instances in which Brahms took suggestions from external phenomena. The three movements were played. "Spanish Dance" by Granados—one of a set of twelve, originally composed for the piano. The opening section is strongly suggestive of the guitar, while the middle section introduces a lovely theme above richly harmonic chords. The music of Enrique Granados is marked with an arresting beauty of melody and rhythm.

"Molly on the Shore" by Percy Grainger—Percy Grainger was born in 1882 near Melbourne, Australia, and appeared in concert as a pianist at the age of ten. It was he who Edward Grieg chose to play his piano concerto when the great Norwegian composer was unable to perform it himself. Under the spell of Grieg he emulated his friend by employing folk tunes and rhythms in his compositions. "Molly on the Shore" is characteristic of his methods of workmanship. He has taken the tunes of two old E-

Monthly Meeting Ladies Auxiliary Canadian Legion

The monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was held in the Legion Hall on Friday, March 27th. A large number of members were present.

Arrangements were made to hold a big mixed Bridge Party in the Legion Hall on Wednesday evening, April 22nd.

The meeting was unanimous that application be made for a Charter for the auxiliary.

Eleven new members were welcomed into the Society. Six new members received their badge pins.

A very pleasing feature of the meeting was a visit from Matron Pope, who has served in both South Africa and the World Wars. Her delightfully informal talk held her audience enthralled, as she recounted many thrilling and amusing experiences as a war nurse. A hearty vote of thanks to Matron Pope, moved by Mrs. Cosh, seconded by Mrs. Croken, was presented by the President, Mrs. J. A. MacKenzie.

This is the first of a series of monthly talks to be given to the members of the Ladies' Auxiliary. It is to be hoped that the future monthly meetings will be as well attended, thereby encouraging the executive to endeavour to secure speakers who will give interesting and instructive addresses before the meetings.

CHILLED SALMON

Salmon is a welcome addition to the menu, but is too expensive when fresh to be used frequently. With careful cooking chilled salmon can taste just as well, and the secret is to add about a tablespoonful of olive oil or butter to the water in which it is boiled.

UNITED CHURCH MINISTER'S RETIREMENT

Services of Rev. J. W. Barbour Greatly Appreciated by Congregation.

General regret was expressed by Trinity United Church congregation when it was announced that Rev. J. W. Barbour had asked the Presbytery for a change in pastoral relations and that his request had been forwarded to the Settlement Committee of the Maritime Conference. A congregational meeting was held on Wednesday evening last when the matter was considered and many bore testimony to the esteem in which Mr. Barbour was held throughout the congregation and it was stated and approved by all that he had laid the foundation of religious education in this Church not surpassed by any Church in the Conference. The following resolution was moved by E. T. Higgs, seconded by R. H. Rogers and passed unanimously.

"Resolved that this Congregational meeting of Trinity United Church, Charlottetown, desire to place on record our appreciation of the services of Rev. J. W. Barbour, B. A., B. D., to this pastoral charge during the two years he has been our assistant minister. He has laboured unflinchingly and with great zeal and devotion in all the work of his ministry, and especially in the department of Religious Education, to which he has given the benefit of his special knowledge and training. His kindly and sympathetic nature and his attractive personality have made him always a welcome visitor in our homes and have won for him a high place in the esteem and affection of our people. His sister, Mrs. Ayer, has also filled an important place in our congregational life as an efficient officer in organizations and as a personal gift. We extend to both Mrs. Ayer and Mr. Barbour our good wishes for their happiness and welfare and we pray that God's blessing may attend them wherever they may be."

At a meeting of the Official Board a call has been extended to Reverend Andrew E. MacKenzie, now serving at Rockingham, Nova Scotia.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

ST. JAMES KIRK

"Christ is sacrificed for us, therefore let us keep the feast." Members and adherents of St. James Presbyterian Church listened to a most inspiring sermon yesterday morning when the minister, the Rev. Dr. R. Moorhead Legate dealt with this text taken from Corinthians V, verse 7. Dr. Legate referred to the Communion, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper at the banquet of the Cross. In Christ's death there was brought to the world joy and gladness. The sacramental occasion should be the gladdest and most exultant hour in the Christian's life. The true Christian never tires of the feast.

All who fully realize the greatness of the victory which the death of Christ means will join in the feast.

The anthem, "Jerusalem," Parker, was rendered by the choir with the solo parts being taken by Mrs. H. S. Henderson.

The evening sermon was based on the text, "What think ye of Christ," from the Gospel according to St. Matthew XXVII, verse 42. This was the concluding address in a series of evangelistic expositions leading up to the Communion.

The question may, and should be made a personal one. The best definition of Christ is the one given in the shorter catechism. "Christ as our Redeemer, executes the offices of Prophet, Priest and King."

As a prophet, or one who teaches, no other teacher can compare with our Lord. The words "No man ever spake as this man spake," can still be said in this age.

As a priest, as one who offers sacrifice to God, Christ cannot be criticized. He offered up the supreme sacrifice for all men.

As a king, or one who is strongest and most fitted to rule, there is none to even compare with Jesus, yet the only crown He wore was the crown of thorns. His only sceptre, the reed placed in His hand by His slayers.

Jesus Christ and His gospel are not the ordinary conventionalities we may think they are. Jesus Christ can reign over the world the world must be won for Him. The world cannot be won for Christ until each of us are won for Him.

The answer of the Christian to the question must be, and is, I need this Christ and His gospel and will take Him as my Saviour, as my Prophet, Priest and King.

Beautiful flowers in memory of a late member of the congregation, Mrs. Harry Houle, were placed on the Communion Table by her daughters.

The anthem at the evening worship was "Jesus, Word of God Incarnate," Gounod, sung by the choir.

Dr. Legate announced the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper to be dispensed in St. James Kirk next Sabbath.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

"His blood be on us and on our children." Matt. 27-25. This was the reckless response of the people to the appeal of diplomatic Pilate. Barabbas is frequently preferred to Christ. Rev. Mr. Miller continued his sermons on the lessons of the Cross at the morning worship. At Pentecost fifty days later when Peter explained what had happened some of these same men were conscience stricken and cried "What shall we do?" Rev. Mr. Miller then dealt with the questions, who were responsible for this deed? and why did they do it? Judas, Pilate, Herod, the Pharisees, the Sadducees, the public, the populace were all in turn considered. "Public opinion had much to do with the drama of Calvary. Had sufficient of the good people of Jerusalem really cared, Christ would never have been crucified." Pilate said, "For envy they had delivered Him." Envy—the secret of Golgotha. Envy that blinds the mind and corrupts the heart. Envy that at last is struck by its own serpent and dies from its own poison. There is however hope from the Cross. The Cross sanctifies all our sacrifices. The Cross is the hope of the world, the hope of the Church. Let us take our place on Golgotha and contemplate for a few hours, a few days, the Cross, and God shall pour out a blessing so great we shall not be able to receive it.

The solo for the service was sung by Miss Margaret Stearns with "There is a Green Hill," by Gounod.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Miller took as his text I Timothy, 2-5, "For there is one God and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus," and in an able sermon he dealt with the all sufficiency of Christ as Saviour. The heart and soul of the teaching of the Apostolic Church was that men could only be saved through Christ alone. Christ stands supreme as the Saviour of the world, the one and only Mediator.

The choir sang the anthem "The King of Love My Shepherd Is," with Miss Berna Huestis taking the solo part. There was in addition a well appreciated solo by Mrs. J. S. Henderson, "How I Love Him."

FROM A KITCHEN NOTEBOOK

It is not always easy to include as many fresh vegetables and fruits in our salads as we would wish at this time of the year. Raw carrots are very valuable from a health point of view and also for slimming, but they are not palatable unless grated. When grated they can be used as a garnish for both cold and hot dishes of meat and for salads. Spread between well-buttered slices of brown bread, seasoned with pepper and salt, they make excellent sandwich filling.

Wrapping it in well-buttered paper and baking it in the oven is another delicious method of cooking it.

RELIGIOUS SERVICES

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

At the morning service yesterday the Rev. F. E. Bishop, taking as his text part of verse 7 of the sixth chapter of the second epistle to Timothy "not a spirit of fearfulness but of power and love and discipline" preached a very interesting sermon on "God's gift to the Christian worker."

This beautiful letter of an old man to a young, one in bonds to one free, one approaching the end to one entering upon the service, suggests certain dangers that St. Paul feared for Timothy and out of rich experience offers suggestions valuable to Timothy and to all. "Not a spirit of fearfulness" for he who approaches his task in timidity and fear is half beaten at the start. God's gift to the worker is a courageous fortitude, let it be accepted. And to the worker God offers power. "I can do all through Christ who strengtheneth me" said St. Paul. Where God calls us to a task he provides the power to perform. The worker for God may have the gift of love, love that brings courage, love that conquers reluctance, love that makes us willing for the sake of others to labour and sacrifice. And there is needed the gift of discipline that brings order and proportion to power and love and shows the path to effectiveness. Discipline also expressed in sound judgment, kindly wisdom, purity of character.

And let us keep bright these gifts of God, for we are "called with a high calling" appealed to by a great example, challenged by a glorious tradition and "encompassed by so great a cloud of witnesses."

The anthem of the morning was Protheroe's "Shanard Psalm."

At the evening service Mr. Bishop's sermon was "Receiving Jesus." The anthem of the evening was Coleridge-Taylor's "O ye that love the Lord." Morning and evening services were broadcast by station CHCK.

HOLY REDEEMER CHURCH

Yesterday was Passion Sunday. On this Sunday, the fifth Sunday of Lent, crucifixes and images are veiled and the Gloria Patri is omitted at Mass. Large congregations were present at the three Masses.

Very Rev. H. I. Fleming, C.S.S.R., Rector, celebrated High Mass. Rev. W. Enright, C.S.S.R., sang the series of sermons on the precepts of the Church. He preached on the fifth precept.

Sunday School classes were conducted for all the children in the afternoon.

"The Crucible" was the title of a very inspiring and eloquent Lenten sermon delivered at the evening service by Rev. R. H. L. Baines, C.S.S.R. The Rosary was also recited and Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament was given by Very Rev. Father Fleming. The full choir rendered the singing.

ST. DUNSTAN'S BASILICA

The devotions of the 40 hours began in St. Dunstan's Basilica yesterday morning at the Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock. His Excellency Bishop O'Sullivan was present at his throne and was assisted by Rev. Dr. Bernard Gillis as high priest, and Rev. Fr. McCardle as deacons of honor. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Dougan as deacon and Rev. Fr. Dalton as sub-deacon. Rev. Thomas G. McMahon, C. S. P., preached on the meaning of the 40 hours.

The other masses were celebrated at the usual hours. Rev. Fr. Dougan celebrated the 8 o'clock mass and also preached. The 9.30 mass was celebrated by Rev. Dr. McMahon who preached on the third and fourth precepts of the Church. At all the masses large numbers received Holy Communion. At the close of the high mass the procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place.

In the afternoon at 2.30 the children of the parish assembled in the Basilica in order to spend a few moments in adoration. Rev. Dr. McMahon conducted the service for the children.

In the evening Rev. Fr. McMahon, C. S. P., preached his Lenten sermon. His subject was the Blessed Eucharist. His Excellency was present in the Sanctuary, assisted by Rev. Fr. Dougan and Rev. Fr. McCardle. Rev. Fr. Dalton gave the Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

The solo for the service was sung by Mrs. Joseph Dougan as organist, assisted with the music.

The devotion of the forty hours will continue all day today with a special sermon at 7.30 by Rev. Fr. McMahon and will conclude on Tuesday evening when Rev. Fr. McMahon will again speak.

King Has Plans For Home Sport

(By The Canadian Press)

LONDON, March 29—It is believed in court circles that King Edward is planning extensive alterations to the grounds of Buckingham Palace so as to make them more suitable for outdoor sport.

Construction of a swimming pool, a hard tennis court and a squash racquets court are among the possibilities discussed.

It is the King's desire that his presence in London—necessary during a large part of the year—should not take from him the opportunities for exercise which he was accustomed to enjoy as Prince of Wales.

The swimming pool probably will be constructed in a part of the large lake at present devoted to water plants and swans. Although in the heart of London it is admirably screened by the high palace walls and a thick fringe of trees.
