

The great sale of whitewear, Linens, etc commences Friday

For a good many years past this white goods sale of ours has been the midwinter bargain event that every one looks forward to. And there's a reason. It is not a hurried, careless hodge podge of carelessly chosen stuff—but the result of long and careful selection—good stocks in every line advertised—and especially bought for this event. Now another matter—this year we are setting an even faster pace than ever—practically every yard of goods—and every garment offered in this sale comes direct from the mills. That means that we have saved for you the wholesale dealer's profit—this store has always stood for the lowest prices in the city—and for the best goods at the price—this latest move puts us in better position than ever to please you. And every mill that has sent us anything is one of the best in its line—there are no sweat shop goods offered you here. Plenty of room, no crowding.

Notable offers in Table Linens

Months ago, in preparing for this sale we searched for the best table linens that our money, and yours could buy. And we think we found it, at any rate we discovered a mill that pleased us better than any other had ever done. And please note that all these lines come direct from the makers; that means a twenty per cent saving for you at the start, as well as our special offering.
