—AN ISLAND LADY.—The pupils of Miss Eleanor Ethyl Carter held their Recital in the High School auditorium, Beach Street, Revere, Mass., on Monday, June 2. The program was very elaborate, and for a first recital it surely was a grand success, and reflects much credit on Miss Carter for the masterful way in which she handled the affair. The spacious hall was filled and all were much impressed by the wonderful performance of the Tableau of 1875 by the High School class, was indeed worthy of mention. Amongst the tiny tots were the little Misses Francis and Eleanor Cormier, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Cormier, formerly of Charlottetown. Miss Carter is the only daughter of Mr. A. B. and Mrs. Julia Carter, also of P. E. I. She is a graduate of Miss Rooney's School of Elocution. H

—BUNGALOW BURNED AT KENSINGTON.—The beautiful bungalow situated on the Malpeque Road and occupied by Russell Inglis and family burned to the ground, about 6 o'clock on Saturday evening. Mr. Inglis was in Kensington when the fire took place. The fire started in the upper portion of the house and is supposed to have been caused by an over heated chimney. It was coming through the roof, when first seen by a nearby neighbor, James Shean. Mr. Shean succeeded in saving most of the furniture in the lower part of the house. Mr. Hart Abbott of Malpeque made a record mile and a half run to Kensington with the news. The Kensington fire fighters responded voluntarily to the call almost instantly in autos, but it was then too late to save the building. The loss is partially covered by insurance.—K.

FACE TERRIBLE FROM PIMPLES
And Blackheads. Irritation Intense. Cuticura Heals.

"I suffered terribly with blackheads and pimples. The pimples were large, festering and scaled over. They burned causing intense irritation. After washing my face the scales would fall off causing eruptions. I had to dispense with all pleasures because my face was terrible."

"I tried numerous remedies but all failed. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after using one box of Ointment and one cake of Cuticura Soap I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Felicia E. Smith, 2271 E. 40th St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum are ideal for daily toilet uses.

—ISLAND LADY DEAD.—Death regards no person, age, or circumstances, but garners here and there the void left in heart and home, despite the tears of sorrowing ones, the truth has just been exemplified in the home of Mr. Carroll, of Alberta, where the pure soul of his beloved wife answered to the Master's call. She was a devoted wife. Life is dear to those we love so dearly, but God's holy will must be done. Her beautiful death was a great consolation to the dear ones left to mourn. The late Mrs. Carroll was a woman of an excellent character. She was a general favorite with both young and old, and her untimely death will not only be regretted by her relatives but by a large number of friends and acquaintances. She was attended regularly by her pastor and was always prepared to die. She leaves to mourn besides her sorrowing husband, three brothers and two sisters, Mrs. McGuigan and Mrs. Albert McLough, of Georgetown. Sincere sympathy is extended to the family in their sad and sudden affliction. May her soul rest in peace. A

In his workshop, in the apartment, the reporter saw a large excellent model, entirely hand made even to the 30 miniature tackle blocks and pulleys. "I'd give all the inventions and money in the world, only to have my boy, Jordan back." Mr. Phee said, indicating on the wall the picture of a soldier, aged, perhaps, 22. He explained that the boy was killed in Chateau Thierry while with the 76th Field Artillery. Mrs. Phee, who is also an Island lady, is well known as president of the Central Massachusetts Council of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary. "You can say I'm glad we're going to be rich, so that we'll have an opportunity of helping the wounded veterans," she said.—H.
