
Close Finishes at Vernon Saturday

Despite a raw wind, and a sloppy ack, a large crowd came to witness the best ice racing of the season on Saturday.

Although the weather man sent some hail and rain, before the last class was called, the majority of the crowd stayed for the finish.

In Class A, two evenly matched trotters came to the wire, Lady Forbes and Star Junior.

The first heat, with the contestants matching strides all the way was declared a dead heat. In the next two heats Star won, by inches.

Class B brought four professional steppers before the starter, Ruby P., winning the first heat handily with Golden Aubrey winning the next two in blanket finishes.

In the Class C trot, four evenly matched trotters faced the starter, and was closely contested, Michael Peter winning the first heat. Queenie Kalmuck winning the second, and Brendon's Boy, a son of Lusty Frisco, owned by Leo Praught making his first start winning the third and final heats and race.

Georgetown And Vicinity

Mrs. Spurgeon Walker was a recent visit or Charlottetown.

Mr. Kerr Fraser, Mr. William Acorn and Mr. Peters all of Souris were visitors to Georgetown on Monday. While here they arranged for a game of hockey between teams of Souris and Georgetown Schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Leaman Allen of Montague, visited Georgetown on Sunday where they were the guests of Mrs. Elsie Prosper.

Friends of Mrs. William Fouchere are sorry to hear that she had the misfortune recently of falling, while going about her home, and sustained injuries which have necessitated her staying in bed. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Peardon and family of Montague visited Mrs. Peardon's mother, Mrs. Elsie Prosper on Sunday.

Miss Jean Bridges left recently for Charlottetown where she will be employed.

On Saturday night the Georgetown High School Hockey team visited Montague and won over Montague School by the score of 10—6. The same night the Georgetown Girls Team, lost to Montague Girls Team 4—1.

Horse Races at Montague

The Montague River was again the scene of some very fine racing on Saturday, when a large crowd thronged the race area to enjoy seeing some of the Island's record breaking horses in action —pacing the quarter in 30 seconds flat. This is thought to be enviable time but if there should happen to be an ultra exceptional who could lessen the time to 28 or 29 seconds, he would be very welcome on Wednesday 2 o'clock next week.

Bobbie Because carried away the laurels of the day nosing in ahead of H.R.D. and winning the race in the Class A Pace.

Two Long-term Convicts Missing, Three Recaptured

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 10 —(AP) —Five desperate long-term prisoners, armed with a smuggled pistol and a makeshift knife, stabbed a guard at Holmesburg State Prison early today, used him as a shield while they scaled the 35-foot prison wall then ran to freedom across snow-covered fields adjoining the Delaware River.

Three were recaptured within a few hours and tonight police searched for the two remaining fugitives, both life-termers, through a wide area of north Philadelphia.

One of the missing men, William (Slick Willie) Sutton, 46, was participating in his sixth successful jail break since he was sentenced to a life term for his part in the $10,000 holdup of a bank in 1934, his fourth conviction. Missing with Sutton was Frederick Tenuto, 30, also serving a life sentence on a second degree murder conviction.

Their three companions in the escape were Clarence Klinedinst, 38; David Aikens, 41, and Spencer Waldon, 37.

All except Waldon were members of the gang of nine prisoners that tunnelled beneath the wall of Eastern State Penitentiary at Cherry Hill April 3, 1945, only to be recaptured within a short time. Police said Waldon participated in an unsuccessful attempt to escape from the penitentiary in February, 1944.

A prison spokesman, expressing belief the pistol had been smuggled to the men, said Tenuto used a chisel stolen from the prison work shop to break the lock on his cell door apout 3 a.m. He freed Waldon and the two ambushed acting guard William Skelton. In his struggles to retain his keys, Skelton was slashed several times on the hands with a knife made from a pair of scissors.

KINGSTON Y. P. U.

The Kingston Y P.U. met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Smith on Tuesday evening January 28. Parker Newson led the Devotional Period which opened by singing Saviour Like a Shepherd lead Us. Scripture Lesson, John 10-1-15 followed by the Lord's Prayer. Hymn Jesus Loves Me. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by the roll call answered by 26 members present. It was decided to answer roll for next meeting with the next four books of the Testament. Lunch committee, Velda Green, Roy Younker and Norma Smith. Recreation, Jean Docherty and Verna Green. Study Period, Mrs. Parker Newson and Mildred Paul. Devotional Period, Velda Green. Next meeting to be held at the home of Mr and Mrs. Cyrus Holmes.

It was moved and seconded that we hold our meetings every second Tuesday night, if not fine Wednesday. Collection was taken which amounted to $1.40.

It was moved that a bill of 36 cents be paid to Shirley Newson for cards sent to sick. It was decided to hold a Young Peoples Service in the United Church, Feb. 2. Study Period was then led by Mrs. Calvin Holmes and Mrs. Elmer Colwill. The remainder of the evening was spent in games, contests, and sing song. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. and Mrs. Smith for the use of their home and kind hospitality shown.

Famous Paintings U. S. Property

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10—A rare self-portrait of the famous Dutch painter Rembrandt and two German-owned paintings, successively stolen, smuggled and sold illegally, today were declared the permanent property of the United States.

Ownership of the paintings now on display at the Dayton, Ohio, Art Institute was formally "vested" in the Government by Attorney General Clark. All were seized at Dayton during the war under the Government's power to take over enemy property.

The Rembrandt is valued at $140,000. The other works are a ter Borch valued at $2 000 and a painting by T. H. Tischbein valued at $1,200.

Clark's announcement said the Alien Property Custodian had traced the bizarre background of the collection back 25 years. The pictures, owned originally by the Grand Duchess Theodora Sachsen-Weimar-Eisenach of Heinrichau, Germany, were loaned to the Weimar Museum in Thuringia, Germany.

While on display at the museum a German court ordered the paintings placed in the permanent custody of the State of Thuringia.

The paintings were stolen from the Museum April 28, 1922. Alien property investigators said they were sold to two German merchant seamen, who brought them to New York in 1934 and later sold them to a Dayton resident.

The Attorney General said this purchaser, who was not identified, bought the three with knowledge of the theft. After the United States entered the Second World War, the paintings were seized as the property of an enemy state.

MARSHFIELD AND DUNSTAFFNAGE Y. P. U.

The Y.P.U. of Central United Church, held their weekly meeting in the church on Friday night.

The meeting opened with Hymn 501, followed by Scripture reading by Wilfred Stewart, Prayer by Scott MacArthur and Story by Mrs. Wilfred Thompson.

Responsive reading No. 714, followed by Hymn 485 closed the devotional period. The convener Miss Isabel Jenkins presided over the devotional period.

With the president, Miss Anne MacEachern presiding, the business period opened with the minutes of the previous meeting, which were read and adopted. Twenty members were present.

Mr. Charles Jenkins was appointed devotional convener for next meeting. His assistants are Wilfred Dennis, Winston Stewart and Lincoln Boswell.

Those appointed to assist Mr. Charles Reid on the Christian Missions Committee are Scott MacArthur, Mary Reid and Ethel Robertson.

It was moved and seconded that the Roll Call for next meeting be answered with a Bible verse.

Miss Ann MacEachern led the Christian Fellowship Programme, assisted by LeRoy Vessey, Opal Clow, Lillian Thompson and Mrs. Ephriam Clow.

Hymn 405, followed by Apostles Creed in unison closed the meeting. The organist for the evening was Mrs. Irving Thompson. The next meeting will be held in the Church on next Friday night. "All are Welcome."
