Alcohol and Morphine.
An Antidote Discovered.

A recent remarkable discovery in medicine which has been found to annihilate the appetite for alcoholic drinks and all drugs, even in the most hopeless cases, is attracting a good deal of attention among those interested in temperance work. The medicine is purely vegetable perfectly harmless and absolutely free from narcotics. It leaves no evil after effects and can be carried in the pocket and taken in absolute privacy, thus dispensing with the publicity, loss of time and expense of an institute treatment. The medicine has been tested and is vouched for by "The Vicar of St. Michael's Rev. Eather Quinnivan, Rev. Joseph Eggar Rev. B. B. L. Fitzgerald, Rev. Father Strubbe, Rev. Father McCallen, Rev. M. Gaughren, Rev. A. M. Covenary, Rev. Father Gaule, Sister Augustine, Sister William, S. S. H. Sister Ethelburga, and many others.

Full particulars regarding this medicine can be obtained by writing to Mr. Dixon, No. 81 Wilcocks Street, Toronto, Canada.

Pickling Season.

The pickling season has arrived and it is many other duties the pickling of them is postponed from time to time and at last the anxious housekeeper is face to face with the fact that the season has come and gone and those toothsome dainties so dear to men's palates are beyond their reach.

The pickling season only lasts a short time and the time to put them down is when the material to make them is at its cheapest. That season is now, not next week.

Every housekeeper should make their own pickles, you know then what you have, much of the imported article is decidedly unwholesome.

EVIDENCES OF ESTEEM

In Which Mr. Lawson Was Held by Residents of St. Peter's.

On the eve of his departure from St. Peter's, Mr. D. A. Lawson was banqueted at the Bayville. The dinner at which over thirty guests sat was served in Mr. McLaine's best style. The menu consisting of a varied and choice display of enticing viands was done ample justice to by the company. The banqueters having satisfied the inner man were called to order by the chairman who in terse, pointed and well chosen language pronounced a fitting eulogy on the guest of the evening. While the sterner sex were entertaining Mr. Lawson, those of the gentler, not to be outdone took Mrs. Lawson by surprise and presented her, not only with an evening's entertainment but also a tangible proof of their unalloyed good will in the shape of a valuable tea service. Among the invited guests at the banquet we noticed James McIsaac of the Charlottetown Herald, J. A. Matheson, Inspector of Fisheries G. B. McEachern, Souris. The following programme interspersed with music, was presented and each part eloquently responded to, the speakers bearing ample testimony of their appreciation of the guest as a public official and of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson and family, as citizens.

Address by Chairman.—Dr. McDonald. The King—National Anthem. The Lieutenant Governor.—Respondents Robert Lewis, Charles Waye. This Canada of Ours.—James McIsaac.

Guest of the Evening.—D. A. Lawson. Agriculture.—Olive Anderson, James D. McInnis. Professions.—Dr. McLaughlin. Trades and commerce.—C. E. Pratt, L. Anderson.

Our Invited Guests.—J. A. Matheson, G. B. McEachern. Host and Hostess.—D. McLair. To Mr. D. A. LAWSON, Station Agent, P. E. Island Railway.

DEAR SIR,—It is with very much regret we hear of your intention to leave the place. We had hoped that the worst would not come, but it has, and now we can only try to bear our loss with becoming grace. Eighteen years of life surely covers ground enough to test what a man is made. You stood the test well. You have shown a few or none of the abrasions that disfigure ordinary humanity—time does not tarnish an article that is genuine. Blood tells. The ancient house of Lawson is still standing. The self-control, affability of manner, enthusiasm, good cheer, that make you a popular public official secured for you a like esteem in private life. We cannot without feeling refer to the service you have done to the congregation in those years. They were years of difficulty. You have seen us to the end of them with an unselfishness that we always admired and it is disappointing that you are now called away just as we have reached a stage in prosperity that we all rejoice at, and which you have helped so much to bring about. As Secretary, Treasurer, Manager S. S. Teacher, member of the choir, you have shown yourself altogether efficient and in fidelity you have always been an inspiration to the best of us. We beg you to accept these simple gifts as tokens of our esteem. Of course it could hardly be expected that a man could show such an array of conspicuous virtues without the aid of a superior wife. We beg to assure Mr. Lawson also that she shares with you in very large measure the good will of our people, "Farewell" when the work of life is past, may we all meet again to hear the "well done" of good and faithful servants.

In behalf of congregation
OLIVER ANDERSON,
Chairman of Trustees.
M. McINNIS,
Secretary.
Mr. Lawson thanked them for their very flattering expressions of kindness both to himself and Mrs. Lawson, also for the valuable gifts which shall ever be held in remembrance of the pleasant association of St. Peter's Bay Congregation.

To D. A. LAWSON, Esq., STATION AGENT P. E. I. R., ST. PETER'S.
DEAR SIR,—Having learned of your departure from our midst and the severance of the business and social relations that have existed between us during the eighteen years of your residence, we cannot allow the occasion to pass without bearing testimony to our appreciation of your conduct as an official and citizen. As agent of the P. E. I. Railway we have found you a most competent courteous and obliging officer performing your official duties in such a way as to win the good will and esteem of all who have business relations with the road. As a citizen you have heartily identified yourself with every movement that has had for its object the material improvement of this place and the general advancement of our citizens, while in the Head St. Peter's Bay, Sept. 12th, 1901. Mr. Lawson made a fitting reply. The presentation to Mr. Lawson from St. Peter's Bay congregation was in the shape of a very elegant and costly silver water pitcher, basin and tray. Mr. Lawson replied to the address from the residents at St. Peter's Bay and the one from the church in a feeling manner.

TOO GOOD TO EAT A RISK.

It is dangerous to neglect a simple case of itching piles as the trouble is likely to become chronic and develop into fatal incurable fistula or cancer of the rectum. A simple application of Dr. Chase's Ointment will quickly relieve the itching and burning sensation, and a few boxes will cure any case of piles. This standard ointment has probably relieved more suffering than any preparation you can mention.
