

ECZEMA

"For three long months I was not able to attend to my own needs; and for three weeks the eczema on my hands was so bad that I was unable to feed myself. I had to be fed as one feeds a baby, because I could not hold knife, fork, spoon or cup."

were soon in a foul condition, and my finger nails, all except two, fell off. During the different stages of my trouble, I sought the advice of three different doctors and received treatment, but although getting slight relief at first, there was no cure. Amputation was at one time thought necessary, but the timely introduction of Zam-Buk prevented this fearful ending.

So says Miss Violet McSorley, of 75 Gore Street, Sault Ste. Marie, in telling how Zam-Buk cured her of eczema. She adds: "Hands, wrists and arms up to the elbows were covered with eczema. The itching and the soreness were nigh unbearable. As the disease developed, the skin actually peeled off, leaving raw sores. The palms, fingers, backs of my hands and wrists were all in this shocking state, and I was forced to sit in agony all the while. The raw sores Zam-Buk was recommended by a friend and we bought a supply. The first few applications gave me a little ease, but it was not until I had continued with it for some time that I felt a decided improvement. After that my cure went on quickly. Zam-Buk did what everything else had failed to do. Now my hands and arms are quite free from the terrible eczema."

HOW ZAM-BUK IS SUPERIOR

Zam-Buk is entirely different to other balms, and as superior as it is different. Most salves are nine-tenths animal oil or fat. Zam-Buk has a trace of animal fat in it. Most salves contain mineral coloring matter. Zam-Buk is absolutely without. Many salves contain poisonous astringents. Zam-Buk doesn't. Zam-Buk is actually more powerfully antiseptic than crude carbolic acid. Yet it stops, instead of causing smarting when put on a wound.

ZAM-BUK'S MANY USES

Zam-Buk heals more quickly than any other known preparation: eczema, ulcers, piles, bad leg, rashes, ringworm, festering sores, cuts, bruises, burns, scalds, stiffness, poisoned wounds, face and lip sores, chapped hands, cold sores, etc. Best balm for baby's skin sores. Used as an emollient, it cures rheumatism, sciatica, etc. All druggists and stores 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price.

MAKE ALL COMERS WELCOME.

Turkish Feast in Which Open House is Very Literally the Order of the Day.

Every year in Turkey, in the month of Ramadan as they term it—which is the month when the Koran was revealed, in 26 parts, to Mohammed—it was for years a general custom in Turkey for the Turks to open their houses at 12 o'clock, the Turkish sunset time, to strangers, and any one was permitted to enter and take supper, a meal the Turks call oviftar, during Ramadan.

No matter how poor or how rich the persons, and whether a complete stranger or near friend, they come just before the sunset hour, and all are seated at the truly hospitable table before 12 o'clock. Immediately after the roar of the cannons announces sunset the Turks eat either an olive or a date, it being the legend that the holy prophet did this, and those who smoke may begin as soon as the date or olive, supposed to be the fruits of paradise, disappears. Then come jellies, as it is a belief in Turkey that sweets "collect the senses," whatever that may mean. Oddly enough, soups follow the sweets, and then after that eggs cooked in butter are served, followed in turn by mutton chops or roasted meat; these are succeeded by vegetables, and the vegetables by a sort of sugarless pudding, called beurek, and after this the famous baclava, or kadai.

After all this more meat courses, fish, and the vegetables are served, and such sweets as rice milk, (gullaj sudlaj), native blanc mange (mahallebi), plaf with hishah or junket (yaourt), and coffee.

DESIGN IN SHIFTING BUREAU

Suggestion of Sherlock Holmes Found Useful by Girl Who Likes to Be Well Dressed.

Apparently, the room was comfortable, but it had one insurmountable drawback. "There is only one place to keep the bureau," said the tall girl; "therefore I cannot live here. I must have a room large enough to permit hauling the bureau around. Here it will have to stand always so the light from the window will strike my left side while I dress. That would be detrimental to the small share of good looks now possessed by my right side.

"Sherlock Holmes put me on to the necessity of switching my looking glass around—every little while, if I wish to preserve a uniformity of good looks. He pointed out that the side of the body that the light strikes most directly while dressing will always be best groomed. The hair will be curled more artistically, the powder be laid on more smoothly, and even the clothes will be arranged more becomingly. This being so, it stands to reason that the side that gets most attention constantly is going to improve in the same ratio that the neglected side deteriorates, and that the person who dresses for months before a glass that always stands in the same position as regards the light is going to get really lopsided so far as good looks are concerned."

The top-floor girl sighed reflectively. "I wonder," she said, "if that is the reason my hair is so much thinner on the right side. Am going right straight home and move my bureau."

Sustaining Life.
Mrs. Andrew Crosse in her "Reminiscences" describes an old nurse, born at Broomfield, England, who lived to be nearly 100. "All her life she had eaten 'a dew bit and breakfast, a stay bit and dinner, a nommet and crummet and a bit after supper,' eight meals in all. Besides this it was her invariable custom to mix together all the doctors' stuff left after any illness in the house and swallow it, on the principle that what had cost money should not be wasted."

He Was No Hayseed.

Many years ago when Londoners had not the excursion facilities for getting into the country that they enjoy now, Charley, a cockney friend, was staying at a farmhouse and soon made himself at home. Charley, with his pipe, was wandering around, closely examining the tops, ends and sides of a certain trim, well-made object fenced around in a paddock. He stared at it a little while, then shook his head dubiously. "What are you looking for, Charley?"

"Where's the door and the windows, uncle?" "Doors and windows? Why, that's a haystack." "No fear, uncle; you don't humbug me. Hay doesn't grow in lumps like that."—Tit Bits.

Wall from a Waiter.

The waiter spoke indignantly. "Men go about," he said, "complaining of being mistook for waiters, but it is on the other foot really that the shoe rests. Us waiters are the complainants in these cases of mistaken identity. Our kicks are sincere. The others' ring false. For at dances, and balls, and such like crushes many a young man makes money by being mistook for a waiter. How does he make money? Why, he is tipped, and all them tips he pockets, never thinking of handing them over to their rightful owners. At every big affair we count on a loss of five per cent. on the dishonest advantage that impecunious young swells take of being mistook for waiters."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Goodness.

Goodness is a large, often a perspective, word; like harvest, which at one stage when we talk of it lies all underground, with an indeterminate future; is the germ prospering in the darkness; at another, it has just put forth delicate green blades, and by and by the trembling blossoms are ready to be dashed off by an hour of rough wind or rain. Each stage has its peculiar blight, and may have the healthy life choked out of it by a particular action of the four winds which rears or neighbors it, or by damage brought from foulness afar.—George Elliot.

Had Weak Back.

Would Often Lie in Bed for Days Scarcely Able to Turn Herself.

Weak back comes from the kidneys, and when the kidneys are out of order the whole system becomes deranged. Those who have never been troubled with kidney trouble do not know of the suffering and misery which those afflicted undergo. Doan's Kidney Pills are a specific for all kidney troubles. They begin by helping the kidneys to flush all the acid and poisonous impurities which have collected, thus clearing out the kidneys, bladder and all the urinary passages and carrying away the uric acid, the chief cause of rheumatism, from the blood. Mrs. Arch. Schinare, Black Point, N.B., writes: "For years I was troubled with weak back. Oftentimes I have lain in bed for days, being scarcely able to turn myself, and I have also been a great sufferer while trying to perform my household duties. I had doctors attending me without avail and tried liniments and plasters, but nothing seemed to do me any good. I was about to give up in despair when my husband induced me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after using two boxes I am now well and able to do my work. I am positive Doan's Kidney Pills are all that you claim for them, and I would advise all kidney sufferers to give them a fair trial." Price, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. In ordering specify "Doan's."

Pure Flour, Madam, Needs No Bleaching

Now, Mistress Housewife, with regard to this Bleaching Business. On that there has been a tremendous contest. And the learned "high brow" are scrapping yet. Eminent medical authorities maintain the artificial whitening of the "housewife's delight" is harmful to health. Chemists equally eminent declare the process is in no way injurious, that its only effect is to give the flour a uniform colour. So there you are.

But the LONDON LANCET says: "The destruction of the natural colour of flour by bleaching agents synchronizes with the destruction of its flavour. Such tampering with the 'staff of life' should be made illegal." And, you know, physicians swear by the LONDON LANCET—ask yours. Then, listen to Prof. Shepherd, Chemist, South Dakota Food Department: "Artificially bleached flour—flour whitened with nitrous acid—a powerful antiseptic and extremely harmful to the digestive organs." Many say bleaching spoils the natural flavour of the flour. Can't I say, Madam, we only use FIVE ROSES—never bleached; we have never tired of the taste.

On the other side of the fence stand chemists and millers galore, whose integrity is unquestioned and who claim bleaching is not harmful. So there you are, Madam, take your pick. Bleaching, you see, Mistress Housewife, is a chemical process by which a stream of flour is passed through nitrous acid fumes and artificially whitened, giving to the freshly milled product the appearance of "kept" or properly aged flour. Now you couldn't tell one from the other in the sack, you'd never know which you were buying. FIVE ROSES, Madam, needs no chemical bleaching: it is so clear, so immaculate, so absolutely desirable in every way. Every bag is properly aged before being sold; the colour of FIVE ROSES is Nature's own colour as it exists in the sun-ripened Manitoba wheat. Using the healthiest, ripest spring wheat berries the Manitoba soil can produce. Extracting only the creamy, meatiest heart of the polished kernels—why in the name of purity should we bleach? If you don't want the bleached article, Madam—Say "FIVE ROSES" to your grocer. Otherwise—well, you can take your chances.
