will come again and receive you unto Myself" and so she passed away in the sunshine that never left her path during her long and eventful life. To the mind of some no sight is so beautiful as that of an aged saint just waiting for the word to cross to the land beyond, but there is another not less beautiful, viz., a mother engaged in the struggle against abounding difficulties to send out a large family of boys and girls to take their place and do their duty in this hard old world of ours. We honor her memory because in this she has succeeded above her peers. Here is the record: Capt. Don and McRae, retired and now residing in Chicago; Roderick, also of Chicago and prominently employed with the Edison Mfg. Co.; Hector, engaged in electrical engineering in Baltimore; Norman, in the Steel Works, New Glasgow, N. S.; Mrs. D. H. Brown, of Brockton; Mrs. Franklin Gay, of New Bedford; Dr. Annie, a practising physician in Fall River; Julia, a distinguished nurse, who has been with her mother in her last illness; Alexander, on the homestead, and Mrs. J. J. McDonald, of Pinette, recently deceased. Belfast is proud of this noble family and readily testify that the results named are in large measure due to the devoted efforts of a beloved mother. On the 19th all that was mortal of this esteemed woman was laid away tenderly in the Belfast Cemetery in the presence of a sympathizing people, the pastor of the congregation officiating.

Dreads Thought of Old Age

Almost every person dreads the thought of old age, yet it ought to bring relaxation and enjoyment, because of ripened judgment and experience. Years of happiness may be added to one's life by avoiding worry, a simple diet, light exercise and if the vitality gets low, our local druggist, E. A. Foster, druggist, Charlottetown; H. J. Mabon, druggist, Souris, guarantees Vinol to restore strength and vitality. It is a non-secret remedy in which are combined cod liver extractives, peptonate of iron and beef peptonate, in a mild tonic wine. Feeble old people quickly regain strength and vitality by its use.
