Rustico Parish Rejoices At Honour Conferred On Canada's New Cardinal

This is the work of the Lord: It is marvelous in our eyes! This is the Day which the Lord hath made! Let us rejoice and be glad therein!

Cardinal McGuigan

The news of the elevation of the Archbishop of Toronto to the Sacred College of Cardinals was received with great joy by the people of his native parish.

His Eminence, James Charles Cardinal McGuigan, first English-speaking Canadian to be exalted to the priesthood, was born at Hunter River, Nov. 28, 1864.

His happy and very pious parents, George McGuigan and Anne McDonald, died in 1894 and 1895 respectively. He was given to the teaching of agriculture, handicrafts, carpentry, and other trades.

He was educated at the Sacred College of Cardinals, Rome, and at the University of Toronto. He was ordained a priest in 1891 and a bishop in 1904.

He was appointed Archbishop of Toronto in 1929 and elevated to the Sacred College of Cardinals in 1945.

He is the first Canadian to be elevated to the rank of Cardinal.
