P. W. C. Rugby Team Takes Second Victory

Scoring a try and a penalty goal early in the second half Prince of Wales College rugby team yesterday chucked up their second win of the season as they beat St. Dunstan's University High School team yesterday afternoon 6-0 on the St. Dunstan's gridiron.

Big Ted Wilson of the P. W. C. team started his team on the way to victory when after booting the ball in touch on the Saints 10-yard line he plunged over the line from the toss-in. Five minutes later Bob Wood again a standout in the P. W. C. backfield made a beautiful placement from 25 yards out when the winners were awarded a penalty kick by referee James McCallum who handled yesterday's game in an efficient manner.

But it proved to be a hard-earned victory for the odds-on-favorite Prince of Wales. Father Fred Cass fielded a team whose average age was 15 and the youngsters came through in a great manner. With a heavy wind favoring them in the first half they kept the play in the shadow of the P. W. C. posts all during the half. At least half a dozen times they were within five yards of a try but lacked the necessary punch to get over. Prince of Wales had to touch for safety on three more occasions to keep the High School pack at bay. It was Woods who stood out in the first half as the English boy continually booted out of danger as the red and white clad players tried desperately to get over that last white marker.

But it was Prince of Wales turn to take the offensive as they played with the wind in the second and final half. Right after P. W. C. kicked off they raced right back into their opponent's territory. Saints threw the ball back to centre and in their first offensive but their respite was shortlived. Picking a loose ball Wilson booted accurately in touch on the Saints 10-yard line; as the ball came out to the lineup Wilson grabbed it and plunged his 180 pounds over the line for the touchdown. Woods made a beautiful attempt at convert from a difficult angle but was just a little wide of the posts. Keeping on the offensive P. W. C. again forced the Saints on the defensive; the game was getting to be more rugged and feeling was running high as they kept at it doggedly. Again forcing their way back inside the twenty-five yard mark P. W. C. were awarded a penalty kick 20 yards out from the posts and this time Woods judging the wind perfectly booted the oval high between the uprights to run the count to 6-0.

Three St. Dunstan's players were forced to the sidelines with injuries in the next few minutes as the game became even more rugged with an occasional fist being seen to let go but despite this Saints gradually came back to the offensive. Using dribbling tactics with good effect Saints threatened to score on the city team on three separate occasions only again to fail to have the necessary punch at the line as the winners defense stiffened. At the final whistle Saints were still in P. W. C. territory battling hard to break the zero chalked up against them.

The lineup: S.D.U.: Fullback, Gillis; three quarters, Hemphill, Martin, Kelly, McCallum; halves, Morris, Heinessey, J. A. MacDonald; forwards, O'Brien, L. MacDonald, L. Rossiter, W. McDonald, H. Shea, E. Caron, J. Dalziel, C. McKenna, Gorman.

Attendance At Major League Baseball Shows Big Gain For The Past Season

NEW YORK, Oct. 27—(AP)—Major league baseball attracted 10,200,000 fans during the 1941 season, but it was a year of mixed success.

Unofficial figures assembled since the close of the campaign showed the American League drew 5,220,519 and the National League

New President

DR. H. MCINTYRE Well-known professional man of the City who last night was elected president of the Charlottetown Curling Club.

5,029,689 for a combined total of 10,250,208.

This was a decrease of 31,883 from 1940, which means that in spite of war tension, higher costs of living and other obstacles, major league baseball almost held its own.

Yet it was a chaotic year which saw some making great gains and others taking incredible nose dives.

Detroit Tigers, who won the American League pennant and drew more than 1,000,000 admissions in 1940, saw their attendance fall off 400,463 and New York Yankees, who overcame all opposition and regained the world championship, dropped 24,263 on their season's attendance.

Thus Detroit's attendance collapsed because it didn't have a winning team and the Yankees lagged because they were too good.

The red hot National League was a mint for the pennant-winning Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals.

The Redbirds increased their gate 287,500 and the Dodgers fell off 244,772 to pass the 1,000,000 mark for the second time in three years. The Dodger total of 1,275,772 was a record for a Brooklyn club.

Four other clubs in the senior circuit suffered decreases ranging up to 210,344 for Cincinnati, where interest withered when the Reds couldn't stay on top.

The big business done by Brooklyn and the Cardinals, however, caused the National League as a whole to gain 181,389 over last year.

Millionaires "Hard Hit" As Dudley Advises Cape Bretoners No Transfers To Be Allowed

MIDLAND, Oct. 27—(CP)—President George Dudley of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association said here today that he had advised Sydney Millionaires, Allan Cup finalists last season, that transfers would not be granted to players obtained by Millionaires from clubs in Western Canada.

Dudley said the C.A.H.A. had conducted an investigation into the player movement following receipt of a protest from the western clubs. He said several players have recently moved to or are moving to Sydney, N.S.

All changes of residence must be made before May 15 except in the cases of players who are regarded as military replacements and such replacements are not granted unless the players have a release from their former clubs.

The C.A.H.A. President said as the western clubs refuse to grant releases to the players imported by Millionaires they cannot be regarded as military replacements.

Dudley said he understands that several C.A.H.A. clubs are negotiating with professional players who might be prevented from entering the United States this season through difficulty in obtaining passports.

Such players could be reinstated and allowed to play with C.A.H.A. teams if the C.A.H.A. were advised by the National Hockey League that such players were unable to find employment with professional clubs, Dudley said.

It would be improper or useless for any amateur club to be negotiating with these players for their services until their status had been settled and until they were free from their obligations to professional clubs.

Dudley added that interference with these players in the meantime would cause only difficulty and would defeat any possibility of the players being reinstated and being made available.

Old Chant Of "Les Canadiens Sont La" May Again Be Taken Up Is Indicated

This is the fifth of a series on the prospects of National Hockey League teams. Others will follow.

By Harold Atkins
Canadian Press Staff Writer

ST. HYACINTHE, Que., Oct. 27—(CP)—Those thousands who jammed the "millionaires" section at the Forum, to sing "Vive Les Canadiens" and shout encouragement to the Flying Frenchmen lack in the club's heyday a little over a decade ago, may be able to take up that old chant again in the not-too-distant future.

There'll be no Morenzos, Jolits or Lepines in this aggregation which may bring back old memories, but in Coach Dick Irvin's new edition of the Habitués there is the material for a club that will have the speed and color of those former Canadian teams.

With youth its theme, the Canadiens chances in the National Hockey League this season are a big question mark, but if the club should finish better than last year's entry which wound up in sixth place. With the bulk of last year's team back, Coach Dick Irvin is hoping he will be able to pluck out another few rookie sensations comparable to the half-dozen which rejuvenated his squad in the 1940-41 race.

Irvin, however, will not make any predictions on his club's chances, but there is a noticeable air of confidence on his face these days. Maybe he's thinking of the surprise he'll cause in the league this season, which opens for Canadiens at home Nov. 1 against Detroit Red Wings.

Tommy Gorman, General-Manager of the Canadian Arena Company and Manager of the Champion Chicago Black Hawks, thinks highly of the blue, blanc, rouse. Said Tommy:—

"This club has plenty of possibilities for the future even if it doesn't win the Stanley Cup this year, which I'm not saying it won't."

Gorman believes the club's main asset this year over last is that it has plenty of good reserve material to call upon if injury or something unforeseen befalls it. Canadian officials hope the championship famine, which has plagued Montreal for the past several seasons will end, and allow the fans to yell aloud again "Les Canadiens Sont La."
