One of the most enjoyable evenings spent for some time at the caterers of Mt. Allison School was at the closing exercises of the school on Wednesday evening last. The chairman of the trustees W. J. McEach-ern, occupied the chair. The entertainment consisted of solos, recitations, readings, dialogues, etc., by the pupils, all of which were rendered in a manner that showed careful tuition on the part of the teacher and also the entertaining ability of the young pupils. At the close of the program a high compliment was paid to the teacher, Miss Stella Hayden Vernon River, by the chairman for her excellent ability as a teacher and the lady-like manner in which she had conducted herself during the past year. This was heartily endorsed through a hearty vote of thanks tendered her. Those present in very complimentary remarks by Benj. Jenkins, Robert Jenkins, Wm.
Ballem, C. Rankin and L. Jenkins each in turn paying a glowing tribute to her for the entertainment and their regret at her departure.
Miss Hayden thanked those present for their kindness to her during the year and that her leaving the school was owing to her going to college during the next year. An abundance of ice-cream and cake prepared by the kind ladies of the district and which was evidently very acceptable, brought the entertainment to a close after the singing of the National Anthem. (One present.)

A very interesting cricket match was played on the Garrison grounds yesterday afternoon between the H.
S. Cornwall and the Garrison teams, much interest was taken in the contest. For last year the Garrison defeated the Cornwall without any difficulty. The Cornwall won the oss, and made 231 runs for nine wickets. The Garrison, while at bat made 166 for three wickets.—Halifax Herald. (Here is an appointment, for the Phoenix Cricket Club, the Cornwall boys, all well known here, evidently have a good aggregation and a game here would arouse a good deal of interest.)

Duncan McLean North River, met with the misfortune, recently of the loss by fire of his two barns with all their contents. On Wednesday night Mr.
McLean, retired as usual, leaving everything all right. He slept and some hours later was awakened by what he thought was hail striking on the roof of the house. His contention can be imagined when he looked at the window and found his two large barns a mass of seething flames, the flying cinders and smoking room which, falling on the roof of the house, had awakened him. Mr.
McLean's loss is a very heavy one.
Among the contents of the buildings leaving being hay, straw, grain, a surgery, an express, a number of pigs, and a quantity of agricultural implements. He has no idea as to the cause of the blaze. Some weeks ago Mr. McLean lost hay in stacks to the value of $50 by fire which also originated in some unaccountable manner. His latest loss will be the more severely felt by reason of the fact that there was no insurance.
