WHY HAVE SORE FEET? JUST RUB IN MINARD'S LINIMENT

"Why I am going to Enlist..."

"I've thought this thing out carefully. The one thing I can't get away from is that there is no excuse for anyone doing less than their best these days. "I'm young and no one is dependent on me. So my place is in the Forces, where I can do a full-time job. I'll have the pride of knowing I'm doing my duty, too. "Mother says I'll have opportunities I never had before. I'll learn new work. I'll meet girls from all over Canada and see a lot of new places. Dad says in years to come I'll look back on this as one of the finest experiences of my life. He says the comradeship of the service is something you can't duplicate anywhere else. "It'll be a healthy life... good meals, plenty of exercise, interesting things to do on and off duty. And as Dad says, the pay is all clear income because everything is provided, including even medical and dental care."

Women are urgently needed in the Navy, Army and Air Force. You don't require special qualifications to enlist. You must be between 18 and 45, in good health, with Grade VIII schooling or better, and be single, or married without dependent children. Go to any Recruiting Centre and talk it over

MRS. CHRISTINA SHAW On April 21, 1943, the community of Lorne Valley was saddened by the passing away at her home of Mrs. Christina Shaw, for many years a resident of that place and held in high esteem by all within the range of her acquaintance. She was in her 80th year, being the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald McDonald, Forest Hill P. E. I. She was a true Christian and a warm-hearted friend, always ready to help where help was needed. She was a constant member of the Lorne Valley Presbyterian Church and always made it a rule to attend church when possible. In 1887 she married James Shaw of Lorne Valley who predeceased her thirty years ago. For many years adorning her profession by a life of faith and devotion to her Saviour, she was possessed of strong faith in God's ruling Providence and true Christian piety. Though she knew for some time back that she must leave all her beloved ones behind, she submitted to the will of God knowing that His ways are always right. The funeral took place on the 23rd of April and considering the state of the roads was largely attended.
