Invited to Prince Edward

The Management of the Prince Edward Theatre has invited the members of St. Dunstan's and League of the Cross Basketball teams to be their guests at the Prince Edward Wednesday night.

Police Court—At the police court yesterday morning one drunk was awarded $10.00 or thirty days in prison. Another, a motorist, was fined $50.00 or thirty days for being drunk and was fined $2.00 or ten days for having only one number, and another was awarded the same penalty for parking his car on the wrong side of the street. Ida Mull, a Moncton lady, was fined $2.00

Enjoyable Reception at Long Creek—Among the autumn festivities worthy of particular mention was a reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil and a second had his fall fine for day evening, Nov. 18th, when the members of the Women's Institute, and friends, wended their way to their home to give them a hearty welcome to our midst. Shortly after arriving, the President, Mrs. Dan MacEwen called the gathering to order, and regretting the fact we were somewhat late in welcoming our newcomers, nevertheless she returned to the podium and called upon Miss Jean MacArthur to read an address

Three months in jail for having liquor in her possession. She is a married woman, and has children, so His Honor rather than have the family a charge on this province, as an alternative gave her until Thursday to return to Moncton. She said she would go.

Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon Stretch, who spoke in highly complimentary terms of our new residents and felt it has been a great pleasure to have a former resident return from a successful stay in another land to reside in the land of his birth and trusted they would always recall with pleasure the day they settled at Long Creek. A most enjoyable evening was spent in amusements of various kinds, while music wended their way to their homes, after wishing Mr. and Mrs. MacKinnon a successful future in Bounteous refreshments were served.
