(NEA Radiophoto) Allied landings in the vicinity of Reggio Calabria were accomplished ahead of schedule and against little resistance, and reinforcements and supplies soon were moving across the strait from Sicily. This picture, transmitted by radio from Algiers to London, and then to New York, shows four soldiers splashing ashore from a landing barge.

For Better Education --- And Free School Books In The Junior Grades

The Progressive Conservative Candidates in their Progressive Conservative Platform make a definite, plain, straightforward promise in respect to Education and Free School Books.

Plank No. 13 reads: "We will initiate a complete revision of our Educational System so as to provide the practical as well as the Academic training suited to the needs of our Province; we will pay cost of living bonuses to the school teachers and will introduce a system of free school books in the Junior Grades of the Public Schools."

CROP REPORT

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 10.—Unsettled weather, varying from heavy showers to steady downpours, has slowed up harvesting operations over wide areas in the western grain growing region, according to the final crop report of the department of agriculture of the Canadian National Railways.
Light frosts have been reported from many northern sections; in some districts these have not caused damage to grain, but effects are shown in gardens. In other districts, however, the frost will cause reduction in grain grade.
Wheat cutting varies from 80 per cent to 90 per cent completed in some districts to as low as 50 per cent in others. In some districts where straight combining is practiced very little grain of any kind has yet been cut. Farmers in stock threshing areas are using this harvest layout to start fall plowing and the moisture is welcomed in districts where soil is dry.

MANN — OULTON — WEDDING

Bayfield United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Monday afternoon September 8th at four o'clock when Rev. Garland Brooks united in marriage Charlotte Cynthia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Enzor Oulton, Cape Tormentine, New Brunswick and L.A.C. Denis Bernard, F. Mann, R.A.F. son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Mann, London, England. The Church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by friends of the bride. Sweet peas tied with white ribbon marked the guest seats. While the guests were assembling, Mrs. Clayton McGlashan played appropriate organ selections. The bride, given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown of white faille with fitted bodice having a sweetheart neckline and closed in the back with ivory covered buttons. Her bridal veil of white tulle fell from a coronet of orange blossoms to beyond the hem of her dress. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of Johanna Hill Roses and Boverdia.

The bride was attended by her sisters, Mrs. W. L. Owen and Miss Edna Oulton, who were attired alike in floor length gowns of blue silk jersey. They wore shoulder length veils in a matching shade of blue, lace gloves and carried nosegays of roses and baby's breath. The flower girl, little Miss Sheila Brooks was dressed in blue silk and carried a basket of flowers. L. A. C. Stanley Swann, R. A. F. was groomsmen. Mr. Austin Oulton, brother of the bride, Mr. Alex Cameron and Mr. Wm. L. Owen were ushers. The bride's mother wore blue sheer dress with blue crepe redingote. Her accessories were black, and she wore a corsage of roses.

During the signing of the register, Mr. Kenneth Cameron sang, "All Joy be Thine." As the bridal party left the church, friends of the groom formed a guard of honor.
Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, with a vase of flowers on either side. Mrs. Charles Strang, aunt of the bride ushered in the guests. Those serving were Mrs. Alex Cameron, Mrs. Olen Oulton, Mrs. Blake Oulton, Mrs. Austin Oulton, Mrs. Amos Allen, Mrs. John Richard, Mrs. Wm. L. Owen, Mrs. Beverly Hildebrand, Ernest Cormier, Mrs. Robert McTeith, and the Misses Ella Oulmier and Marion Oulton.

After the reception, the bride and groom left for a trip in Nova Scotia. For travelling the bride wore a two piece blue wool coat and black accessories.
COAL PRODUCTION DOWN
LONDON. — (CP) — British coal output for the four weeks ending Aug. 7 was 12,388 tons, a drop of 1,928,000 tons from the previous four-week period. The Ministry of Fuel said the fact most miners taking their holidays in July and August was the main reason for drop.

TARGET FOR TODAY

TODAY, Victory is our first and only target. The things of tomorrow—the new shape of Freedom—the new pattern of Security—the new projects for a better world—these will follow when Victory comes.

The duty of every Canadian is clear. In this struggle, every gun counts, and every dollar that helps to buy a gun counts, too.

Victory depends on how earnestly each one of us carries out the urgent undertakings set forth in this resolution:

- I Resolve... that I will work and save and lend to the limit of my capacity to support the defenders of my freedom on the fighting fronts of the world.
- I Resolve... that I will forego luxuries and comforts now to make sure of future security for myself, my loved ones, and my fellow countrymen.
- I Resolve... that I will subscribe for Victory Bonds when they are offered, and will hold on to them until the war is over.
- I Resolve... that I will buy War Savings Certificates and Stamps regularly, and keep them invested for the duration.
- I Resolve... that my life insurance, which aids each Victory Loan and will help to further the measures for national re-adjustment after the war by providing individual independence, will be kept in force, for my own and the nation's benefit.

Your bonds, your war savings, and your life insurance are three safeguards for the future which should be maintained out of present income, even at the cost of personal sacrifice. Each has its protective value. Each means future delivery of money to you or yours. Each is as safe as the Dominion of Canada itself.

Every dollar saved today is a down payment on security and peace of mind.
