

THE SUMMERSIDE GUARDIAN

and PRINCE GEORGE COUNTY CHRONICLE

The Western Guardian

This column is reserved for news of local interest but advertising of a serious nature may be inserted at a rate of one cent per word strictly payable in advance.

GINGER CORDIAL for making at Taylor Drug Co., Kensington.

SILVER FUR FOOD in 6 1/2 lb. cans in stock at Brace's. L-8521-8-1-21.

HAY HOPE, heavy castor machine oil, scythe and grind stones and all having equipment in stock at Brace's. L-8521-8-1-21.

R-M. STANDARD meat for biscuits, cubes, vita-crumble, kibbles, meal and silver fur food are all safe for feeds in hot weather. Order at Brace's. L-8768-8-1-21.

DOUBLE END BLOCKS wire and manilla hay rope, hay forks and having tools in stock at Brace's. L-8768-8-1-21.

POULTRY. — Purchasing poultry every day reserving the right to stop buying without notice. S. R. Fendleton, Kensington. L-8797-8-2-31.

ALL INTERESTED in the Bedouin Rink tea are asked to meet with the directors tonight at the rink at 8:30 p.m. L-8811

SIDE POLICE COURT—Four drunkards were fined three dollars and costs each in the Summerside Police Court on Thursday morning.

SAD NEWS RECEIVED—Mrs. Thomas Mitchell of Summerside has received the sad news that her brother, Charles Day, passed away at the Hospital in Moose Jaw on July 28th. He had been ill about two months. He was 54 years of age. He was a native of Alymer, Ontario. His wife died about a year ago. There are eight children left to mourn. Interment was at Moose Jaw.

LAD TO REST—The funeral of James Harry Hunter was held yesterday afternoon from the Presbyterian Church, Summerside, and was very largely attended. In the absence of the minister, Mr. Delmont Yeo, Presbyterian minister of Tyne Valley conducted the service. The pall bearers were Messrs. Earl Schurman, Maurice Mill, Charles R. Rogers, Wm. Strong, A. S. McKay and Emanuel Galloway. Interment was in the People's Cemetery, Summerside. S.

PERSONALS

—Friends will regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. G. P. Grady of Summerside and trust that she will be soon returned to her usual good health.—S.

—Miss Mary Langan of Seckville, N. B., is the guest of Mrs. Frances Tins at the Clifton Hotel.—S.

Open Season On Ruffed Grouse in N.B.

MONCTON, Aug. 1—An open season has been declared in New Brunswick for ruffed grouse and spruce partridge from October 1st to October 15th. Reports indicate a plentiful supply of these partridge throughout the province according to the Fish and Game Department of the Canadian National Railways. Hungarian partridge however are protected along with pheasants a considerable number of Hungarian partridge and English Ringneck and Mongolian pheasants have been liberated during the past few years in the New Brunswick woods but their numbers are not yet sufficient to permit of an open season being declared.

HITS BALL INTO DUKE'S CAR

(Canadian Press)
BUXTON, Derbyshire, England, Aug. 1—A ball from a cricket match in English cricket this year but John Iddon's boundary slam caused comment. Playing for Lancashire against Derbyshire, Iddon sent a ball through a window of the Duke of Devonshire's motor car which was standing in an adjoining car park.

A TASK

The unfinished task not only robs one of the joy of achievement, but it reacts sharply on one's character.—H. C. Spillman.

WELL DRILLING

Our new cable drill has arrived, our men are here and we need work. It takes a lot of wells to keep this outfit busy sinking them. If you need a new well or wish to ream out and recase an old one. Give us a call. All work guaranteed to stand the test of time.

TRASK WELL CO.
VAUGHAN GROOM,
Local Representative
SUMMERSIDE, P. E. I.
L-8787-7-31-W-F-34-M.

SINGLO

Summer Fox Rations with and without meat, for Pups and adults in your nearest dealer.

Sir. Newton Moore Made Honorary Chief Of Mic Macs

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
SYDNEY, N. S., Aug. 1—Sir Newton Moore, president of the Dominion Steel and Coal Corporation, became Ulimoo, honorary chief of the Mic Mac tribe in Cape Breton today at a colorful ceremony that attracted thousands of people attending Sydney's 150th anniversary celebration.

Before the address of the tribe was placed on Sir Newton and Lady Moore, who received a brand new pair of moccasins, Chief Ben Christmas made a speech giving thanks for recognition of the right of the Indian in the white man's civilization.

No so long ago "it was the policy of that day to keep them in ignorance and barbarism." Chief Ben reminded the gathering. "But all this has changed in 75 years in spite of bitter opposition and difficulties that were apparently insurmountable."

"We are not treated not only as human beings, but as citizens. We have the Gospel and other books in our own language. We live in our own houses, dress, work and eat like other people, and have property and schools of our own."

The lot of the Indian had been improved 100 per cent in the last half century, the Chief continued, adding: "and the race is not becoming extinct, as some would believe."

"It is my great privilege on behalf of myself and my fellow Mic Macs of Cape Breton to have the honor of bestowing our highest traditional custom and honor upon you, namely, honorary chief of Mic Mac Indians of Cape Breton. In electing you as our honorary chief, we know of no more satisfactory way of demonstrating our sincere appreciation of your valuable and tireless efforts in promoting the industrial welfare of the peoples of this province, united and co-operated to wholeheartedly in sponsoring this great 150th anniversary celebration of the founding of our city. After much thought and consideration, we have unanimously decided to name you after times, Chief Ulimoo, meeting in English 'Chief Traveller.' He was one of our greatest leaders."

Following the investiture, Sir Newton and Lady Moore were introduced to members of the tribe and inspected wigwams and handicraft work.

Other features of today's celebration program included finals of the Maritime back and field championship, the Maritime boxing championships, speedboat races and band concerts.

Man Was Hanged for Theft Case, Guilt Doubtful

(By The Canadian Press)
KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 1—Recent controversies regarding the merits of capital punishment were revived in the village of Bath, a United Empire Loyalist settlement 18 miles west of here, has the unenviable distinction of being the scene about the year 1787 of the first judicial execution by this method in this part of Canada.

The crime was theft, the evidence entirely circumstantial and grave doubts were cast some time afterwards that the victim had stolen the watch at all, although condemned and sentenced by the judge with all the essential court formalities of the time.

According to He-nington's history of Emersonton and Bath, the prisoner protested his innocence, claiming he had purchased the watch from a peddler. The evidence consists of the finding of the alleged stolen article in his possession and the judge declared this cast upon the accused the onus of proving how he came by it.

In his failure to establish his innocence by witnesses the general rule of the law was inverted and he was sentenced to death.

While the judge was pronouncing sentence a speaker in the court interrupted by protesting against the sentence, but the audience was in sympathy with the finding of the court and hissed him down.

A few months later a peddler passing through the neighborhood confirmed the testimony of the hanged man by stating that the watch in question had been sold by him under the circumstances stated by the prisoner at the trial.

The law then was very hard on law violators as is shown in Bath records. At the first criminal court sitting there a negro was convicted of stealing a loaf of bread and was sentenced by the court to receive 29 lashes for his offence. At that time no interval of time elapsed between the passing of the sentence and the execution of it. The modern method of affording a chance for appeal was unknown.

There was no whipping post at Bath so the fellow was tied to a barrow and a few yards from the inn where the court sat and the court adjourned for a space of time to allow the spectators an opportunity to witness the lashing. After that the barrow was adopted as part of the mechanical equipment of the court and for years it was used to whip law violators found guilty at the Bath sittings.

Craze For Tame Mice
LONDON, July 30—There is a craze in England just now for tame mice, according to George Palmer, pet dealer, who has advertised: "Wanted, 10,000 Tame Adult Mice." Palmer says he is anxious to buy all the mice he can get. The craze has come through the appearance of Mickey Mouse on the screen, the dealer says.

Disease Spreads Among Flood Survivors

(A. F. By Guardian's Special Wire)
TOKYO, Aug. 1—A dispatch from Antung, Manchoukuo, by the Rengo (Japanese) News Agency correspondent reported today 91 per cent of flood survivors in the southern area of Manchoukuo were suffering from diseases as a result of deplorable sanitary conditions.

Petitions have been sent Ho Hanking, the capital, urging immediate assistance. Thirty free medical stations have been established in this city by Japanese and Manchoukuo authorities.

IN MEMORIAM

MR. EZRA POWER
The people of Hope River and vicinity were deeply saddened on June 28th when news came of the sudden passing in Jamaica Plains of Ezra Power. Mr. Power, a former resident of Hope River, had removed to the United States some years ago and came home in April of this year to visit his brother and sister, Bruce and Janie. During his stay here he renewed many acquaintances and although in poor health, no one realized that the end was so near. He had only been gone two weeks, however, when news of his death came.

Mr. Power was of a quiet disposition and was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

His funeral which was held in Jamaica Plains on Tuesday, July 1, was largely attended. Many Mass Cards and floral sprays bore evidence of the friends he had made and retained since going to reside in the United States.

There are left to mourn his loss, two brothers and one sister, namely, Bruce and Janie, Hope River, and Walter in Pennsylvania. He is also survived by his wife, formerly Mildred Murphy and six children: William, Clara, Earl, Walter, Richard and Margaret. Two children, Hilda and Elinor predeceased him.

May his soul rest in peace.
(Patrol please copy)

MRS. JOHN D. MCKINNON

There passed to her eternal reward in Roxbury, Mass., Mrs. John D. McKinnon and daughter of Mrs.

N.S. Marksmen Pioneers Win MacMurdo Trophy With 9-3 Victory; Red Wings Enter Protest

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
BEDFORD, Aug. 1—Twenty-six Nova Scotia marksmen were picked today at the close of the 15th annual meet of the Nova Scotia Rifle Association to compete at Ottawa this summer in the Canadian championships.

They were: Lt. H. F. Parker, Princess Louise Hussars; Capt. P. M. Smith, Annapolis Regiment; H. H. Morse, Annapolis Regiment; Lt. C. F. Kennedy, Colchester and Hants Regiment; Col. R. B. Simmonds, Princess Louise Fusiliers; Capt. T. M. Sieniewicz, Canadian Machine Gun Corps; Const. J. Oullen, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Insp. L. Nicholson, R.C.M.P.; Mr. W. C. Ploof, Royal Canadian Artillery; Sgt. T. Laman, Halifax Rifles; Col. C. H. Colwell, Canadian Machine Gun Corps; E. S. Leonard, Annapolis Regiment; Sgt. P. Brown, Coast Brigade Canadian Artillery; Chief Petty Officer W. J. Taylor, Royal Canadian Navy; J. Taylor, Annapolis Regiment; Capt. S. E. T. Fetterly, Canadian Machine Gun Corps; Sgt. H. Armstrong, Princess Louise Fusiliers; Capt. J. Cameron, Colchester and Hants Regiment; J. M. Kennedy, Colchester and Hants Regiment; Harold Smith, Colchester and Hants Regiment; N. S. Crawford, Halifax Rifles; R. Venham, Royal Canadian Navy; J. D. McEachern, Princess Louise Fusiliers; T. E. MacCallum, Colchester and Hants Regiment; R. G. Harmon, Coast Brigade Canadian Artillery, and G. Caulking.

The Pioneers batted their way to a 9-3 victory over the Red Wings here last night to win permanent possession of the MacMurdo Cup. The game was not by any means up to the standard of the other games in the series and it is understood that it will be protested. Scarcely a decision which was handed out by either of the three officials who were in charge of the game went by without vigorous protest from the Red Wing players. Before the game started an attempt was made by the Wings to have Umpire MacLeod removed, but the official stood pat claiming third base was missed by the League executive and intended to handle the game. There is a possibility that the game may be replayed.

Combining four singles and a double with a costly Red Wing error the Pioneers showed four runs across the plate to put the game on ice in their first turn at bat. Dodds leading off, singled and stole second. Schurman singled putting runners on first and third. Millman singled scoring Dodds and again leaving runners on first and third. Ward repeated with another single but was caught at third on the play. Larkin was safe as his grounder went through third and scored a moment later on Henry Bernard's beautiful double. McCabe struck out and McInnis fled out ending the inning. The Wings got men on first and second with one out in their half of the second but Noonan rose to the occasion, striking out Warren and forcing Bingham to lift up a pop fly.

Schurman and Millman added two runs for the Pioneers in their half of this inning on two bases on balls and two errors. The Pioneers ran up their total of runs to eight by adding two more in the third. Dodds led off with a single and McCabe scored on two singles, an error and a sacrifice. The Wings made two scores in the fifth which might have been prevented by good fielding on the part of the Pioneers. Warren singled to start the ball rolling and reached second as Dodds threw low to first attempting to catch him off the base. Bingham was safe at first as Dodds dropped a third strike and Warren was safe at third when Ward dropped the ball after having him trapped. Frank McInnis singled timely, scoring both Warren and Bingham. Lidstone added a run for the Wings in the sixth and McInnis equalled it with one for the Pioneers to end the scoring.

Features of last night's game were, the steady hurling of the veteran Doc Noonan, the heavy hitting of the Pioneers and Danny

Stocks Decline On N.Y. Mart

(By Frank MacMillan Associated Press Financial Writer)
NEW YORK, August 1—The steady drip of profit-taking finally wore down stock market resistance today an equities were freely offered in an active final hour's trading.

The selling market wavered and washed over a market resistance which had ruled steady during most of the session, and had even registered a scattering of new highs in early dealings.

Losses in most of the active issues were confined to a point at the outside, and there was a fair scattering of plus items including some of the farm group, amusements and industrial specialties.

The general decline, as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, was 3 of a point to 47.0. Turnover was brisk at 1,996,550 shares. The most active dealings occurred during the opening up ward spurt and again toward the close, when the pressure was on.

Bonds were under no particular pressure as a result of the decline in stocks, and gave a steady performance. U. S. Governments were mixed.

Good news for followers of the rails came to late in the day to be a market factor, as the House passed the Senate-approved Eastman Bill to regulate trucks and buses. Declines in the carrier shares ran about the same as in other groups.

Some of the individual issues which were able to move against the reactionary market tide for gains of fractions to a point or more included American Can at 144, International Harvester at 52 7/8, Hudson at 10, American Telephone at 131 3/8, and U. S. Smelting at 104.

Among leaders which declined fractionally were Chrysler at 59 1/4, Southern Pacific at 19 3/8, American Tobacco "B" at 99 7/8 and U. S. Steel at 43 1/4.

In the Canadian list McIntyre-Forecupine, Dome Mines, Ford of Canada "A" and Hiram Walker declined fractionally. Ford of Canada "B" advanced a point while Distillers-Seargams, St. Regis Paper and Hudson Bay Mining were slightly improved.

Revive Question Of Erin's Gold

(By Joseph Dennigan)
(Canadian Press Correspondent)
DUBLIN, Irish Free State, Aug. 1—Newly discovered gold deposits in the Irish Free State are being investigated by the famous heavyweights who are said to have lost his fortune in the purchase of shares in a County Cork "gold mine" sold to him by a United States Company promoter.

The gold mine has been aroused in the old question by allegations that Sean Lemass, President Eamon de Valera's Minister for Industry and Commerce, was a party to a scandal in leasing mining rights in County Wicklow to two members of his party. The charges, which were made by Deputy Patrick McGilligan, Mr. Lemass's predecessor in office, are to be investigated by a select committee of 11 members of the Dail.

The members of the Fianna Fail party who obtained the lease of the gold mining rights are Senator Michael Conyn, K. C. Vice-Chief of the Government, and Robert Briscoe, a Jewish deputy. It was alleged by Mr. McGilligan that the Minister for Industry and Commerce, acting under the Mines and Minerals Act passed with the State rights in respect of gold deposits in 1922, had leased to Woodbridge, County Wicklow, for a yearly rent of $25 to $50 and royalties of 1-25 part of the value obtained from the right; that the two members of the party entered into an agreement secretly with a London syndicate to exploit the rights under the name of Consolidated Goldfields of Ireland, Ltd. and that under the agreement they were to get shares valued at $60,000 and 2 1/4 per cent.

Mr. McGilligan suggested that it was not a proper thing that two members of the Ministers' own party should be allowed to traffic in rights which were not their own and the value of which they had not enhanced.

The Minister admitted that the lease had been granted but denied that there was any scandal involved and it is on his motion that the select committee has been established.

Pioneers Win MacMurdo Trophy With 9-3 Victory; Red Wings Enter Protest

The Pioneers batted their way to a 9-3 victory over the Red Wings here last night to win permanent possession of the MacMurdo Cup. The game was not by any means up to the standard of the other games in the series and it is understood that it will be protested. Scarcely a decision which was handed out by either of the three officials who were in charge of the game went by without vigorous protest from the Red Wing players. Before the game started an attempt was made by the Wings to have Umpire MacLeod removed, but the official stood pat claiming third base was missed by the League executive and intended to handle the game. There is a possibility that the game may be replayed.

Combining four singles and a double with a costly Red Wing error the Pioneers showed four runs across the plate to put the game on ice in their first turn at bat. Dodds leading off, singled and stole second. Schurman singled putting runners on first and third. Millman singled scoring Dodds and again leaving runners on first and third. Ward repeated with another single but was caught at third on the play. Larkin was safe as his grounder went through third and scored a moment later on Henry Bernard's beautiful double. McCabe struck out and McInnis fled out ending the inning. The Wings got men on first and second with one out in their half of the second but Noonan rose to the occasion, striking out Warren and forcing Bingham to lift up a pop fly.

Schurman and Millman added two runs for the Pioneers in their half of this inning on two bases on balls and two errors. The Pioneers ran up their total of runs to eight by adding two more in the third. Dodds led off with a single and McCabe scored on two singles, an error and a sacrifice. The Wings made two scores in the fifth which might have been prevented by good fielding on the part of the Pioneers. Warren singled to start the ball rolling and reached second as Dodds threw low to first attempting to catch him off the base. Bingham was safe at first as Dodds dropped a third strike and Warren was safe at third when Ward dropped the ball after having him trapped. Frank McInnis singled timely, scoring both Warren and Bingham. Lidstone added a run for the Wings in the sixth and McInnis equalled it with one for the Pioneers to end the scoring.

Features of last night's game were, the steady hurling of the veteran Doc Noonan, the heavy hitting of the Pioneers and Danny

Letter To Mr. W. E. Enman
From a Gentleman Cured of Asthma
Mr. W. E. Enman, who has just returned from Halifax, reports that a great number of splendid cures are being effected in Halifax and other parts of Nova Scotia by means of the Farador. The following letter is but a sample of many others:

Dear Mr. Enman—
I am enclosing the balance due on the Farador. I have decided to keep it. I have not had an attack of asthma since using it. I still follow the week-about treatment and I feel as well now as I did before I took those terrible attacks. Several people have got your address from me in order to write to you.

Thanking you, I remain,
Erna Slack.

On account of Mr. Slack's recovery, his brother, Mr. Sanford Slack, of Springfield, who suffered much from asthma, has also invested in a Farador. Mr. Enman will be at 266 Sydney Street, Charlottetown, for at least a week. Ask for literature with long list of people cured of many serious ailments. L-8818

District Convention

The District Convention of the following Women's Institutes, Mount Stewart, Savage Harbor, St. Andrews, Point de Roche, Canavoy, Cherry Hill, Head of Hillsboro, St. Patrick's Road, Pisiquid East, Pisiquid West, Ten Mile House, Glenaladon and Donaldson, was held in the Legion Hall, Mount Stewart, July 4, 1935, the President, Mrs. James Atkins presiding.

The afternoon session opened by singing Institute Hymns, followed by the Creed. Savages Institute, Sons of Peace Garden, Miss Frances Munn gave a splendid demonstration on Commercial Art. Miss Martin and Miss Mellish gave good demonstrations on cooking and fancy work. Those demonstrations were appreciated by the members present. There was a nice exhibit of bed coverings, modern and ancient. A nice supper was served by Savage Harbour Institute.

The evening meeting was attended by a large number of members and visitors. The meeting opened by singing "O Canada," followed by Recitation, Canavoy Institute; Sons, Point de Roche Institute; Address, Dental Hygiene, Dr. Keeping; Dialogue, Cherry Hill Institute; Sons, Pisiquid West Institute; Monologue, Head of Hillsboro Institute; Reading, Savage Harbour Institute; National Anthem.

DOING GOOD

Never did any soul do any good that it came reader to do the same again, with more enjoyment. Never was love or gratitude, or bounty practised, but with increasing joy, which made the practiser still more in love with the fair act.—Earl of Shaftesbury.

JUMPERS ARE CONSISTENT

(Canadian Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 1—The legend that race track bettors should leave alone the jumpers has been proved a myth. At the recent Aqueduct meeting 62 per cent of the favorites in jumping races were winners. One investor is said to have collected $100,000 in winnings. The percentage of favorites who came through in flat races was about 28 per cent.

Man Was Hanged for Theft Case, Guilt Doubtful

(By The Canadian Press)
KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 1—Recent controversies regarding the merits of capital punishment were revived in the village of Bath, a United Empire Loyalist settlement 18 miles west of here, has the unenviable distinction of being the scene about the year 1787 of the first judicial execution by this method in this part of Canada.

The crime was theft, the evidence entirely circumstantial and grave doubts were cast some time afterwards that the victim had stolen the watch at all, although condemned and sentenced by the judge with all the essential court formalities of the time.

According to He-nington's history of Emersonton and Bath, the prisoner protested his innocence, claiming he had purchased the watch from a peddler. The evidence consists of the finding of the alleged stolen article in his possession and the judge declared this cast upon the accused the onus of proving how he came by it.

In his failure to establish his innocence by witnesses the general rule of the law was inverted and he was sentenced to death.

While the judge was pronouncing sentence a speaker in the court interrupted by protesting against the sentence, but the audience was in sympathy with the finding of the court and hissed him down.

A few months later a peddler passing through the neighborhood confirmed the testimony of the hanged man by stating that the watch in question had been sold by him under the circumstances stated by the prisoner at the trial.

The law then was very hard on law violators as is shown in Bath records. At the first criminal court sitting there a negro was convicted of stealing a loaf of bread and was sentenced by the court to receive 29 lashes for his offence. At that time no interval of time elapsed between the passing of the sentence and the execution of it. The modern method of affording a chance for appeal was unknown.

There was no whipping post at Bath so the fellow was tied to a barrow and a few yards from the inn where the court sat and the court adjourned for a space of time to allow the spectators an opportunity to witness the lashing. After that the barrow was adopted as part of the mechanical equipment of the court and for years it was used to whip law violators found guilty at the Bath sittings.

STOCKS DECLINE ON N.Y. MART

(By Frank MacMillan Associated Press Financial Writer)
NEW YORK, August 1—The steady drip of profit-taking finally wore down stock market resistance today an equities were freely offered in an active final hour's trading.

The selling market wavered and washed over a market resistance which had ruled steady during most of the session, and had even registered a scattering of new highs in early dealings.

Losses in most of the active issues were confined to a point at the outside, and there was a fair scattering of plus items including some of the farm group, amusements and industrial specialties.

The general decline, as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, was 3 of a point to 47.0. Turnover was brisk at 1,996,550 shares. The most active dealings occurred during the opening up ward spurt and again toward the close, when the pressure was on.

Bonds were under no particular pressure as a result of the decline in stocks, and gave a steady performance. U. S. Governments were mixed.

Good news for followers of the rails came to late in the day to be a market factor, as the House passed the Senate-approved Eastman Bill to regulate trucks and buses. Declines in the carrier shares ran about the same as in other groups.

Some of the individual issues which were able to move against the reactionary market tide for gains of fractions to a point or more included American Can at 144, International Harvester at 52 7/8, Hudson at 10, American Telephone at 131 3/8, and U. S. Smelting at 104.

Among leaders which declined fractionally were Chrysler at 59 1/4, Southern Pacific at 19 3/8, American Tobacco "B" at 99 7/8 and U. S. Steel at 43 1/4.

In the Canadian list McIntyre-Forecupine, Dome Mines, Ford of Canada "A" and Hiram Walker declined fractionally. Ford of Canada "B" advanced a point while Distillers-Seargams, St. Regis Paper and Hudson Bay Mining were slightly improved.

Mr. McGilligan suggested that it was not a proper thing that two members of the Ministers' own party should be allowed to traffic in rights which were not their own and the value of which they had not enhanced.

The Minister admitted that the lease had been granted but denied that there was any scandal involved and it is on his motion that the select committee has been established.

Man Was Hanged for Theft Case, Guilt Doubtful

(By The Canadian Press)
KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 1—Recent controversies regarding the merits of capital punishment were revived in the village of Bath, a United Empire Loyalist settlement 18 miles west of here, has the unenviable distinction of being the scene about the year 1787 of the first judicial execution by this method in this part of Canada.

The crime was theft, the evidence entirely circumstantial and grave doubts were cast some time afterwards that the victim had stolen the watch at all, although condemned and sentenced by the judge with all the essential court formalities of the time.

According to He-nington's history of Emersonton and Bath, the prisoner protested his innocence, claiming he had purchased the watch from a peddler. The evidence consists of the finding of the alleged stolen article in his possession and the judge declared this cast upon the accused the onus of proving how he came by it.

In his failure to establish his innocence by witnesses the general rule of the law was inverted and he was sentenced to death.

While the judge was pronouncing sentence a speaker in the court interrupted by protesting against the sentence, but the audience was in sympathy with the finding of the court and hissed him down.

A few months later a peddler passing through the neighborhood confirmed the testimony of the hanged man by stating that the watch in question had been sold by him under the circumstances stated by the prisoner at the trial.

The law then was very hard on law violators as is shown in Bath records. At the first criminal court sitting there a negro was convicted of stealing a loaf of bread and was sentenced by the court to receive 29 lashes for his offence. At that time no interval of time elapsed between the passing of the sentence and the execution of it. The modern method of affording a chance for appeal was unknown.

There was no whipping post at Bath so the fellow was tied to a barrow and a few yards from the inn where the court sat and the court adjourned for a space of time to allow the spectators an opportunity to witness the lashing. After that the barrow was adopted as part of the mechanical equipment of the court and for years it was used to whip law violators found guilty at the Bath sittings.

STOCKS DECLINE ON N.Y. MART

(By Frank MacMillan Associated Press Financial Writer)
NEW YORK, August 1—The steady drip of profit-taking finally wore down stock market resistance today an equities were freely offered in an active final hour's trading.

The selling market wavered and washed over a market resistance which had ruled steady during most of the session, and had even registered a scattering of new highs in early dealings.

Losses in most of the active issues were confined to a point at the outside, and there was a fair scattering of plus items including some of the farm group, amusements and industrial specialties.

The general decline, as measured by the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, was 3 of a point to 47.0. Turnover was brisk at 1,996,550 shares. The most active dealings occurred during the opening up ward spurt and again toward the close, when the pressure was on.

Bonds were under no particular pressure as a result of the decline in stocks, and gave a steady performance. U. S. Governments were mixed.

Good news for followers of the rails came to late in the day to be a market factor, as the House passed the Senate-approved Eastman Bill to regulate trucks and buses. Declines in the carrier shares ran about the same as in other groups.

Some of the individual issues which were able to move against the reactionary market tide for gains of fractions to a point or more included American Can at 144, International Harvester at 52 7/8, Hudson at 10, American Telephone at 131 3/8, and U. S. Smelting at 104.

Among leaders which declined fractionally were Chrysler at 59 1/4, Southern Pacific at 19 3/8, American Tobacco "B" at 99 7/8 and U. S. Steel at 43 1/4.

In the Canadian list McIntyre-Forecupine, Dome Mines, Ford of Canada "A" and Hiram Walker declined fractionally. Ford of Canada "B" advanced a point while Distillers-Seargams, St. Regis Paper and Hudson Bay Mining were slightly improved.

Mr. McGilligan suggested that it was not a proper thing that two members of the Ministers' own party should be allowed to traffic in rights which were not their own and the value of which they had not enhanced.

The Minister admitted that the lease had been granted but denied that there was any scandal involved and it is on his motion that the select committee has been established.

HOLMAN'S QUALITY GROCERIES

Cost. U. Less

Bought in large quantities—the reason for Low Prices. Quick turn-over—Proof of Good Quality. It's a "Saving Habit" to shop Regularly at HOLMAN'S

Letter To Mr. W. E. Enman
From a Gentleman Cured of Asthma
Mr. W. E. En