

THE CENTRAL GUARDIAN

On the Night before Wash Day

Do this, and you will have a pleasant, easy, work-free wash-day—with wonderfully clean sweet clothes:

For each tub of clothes take half a package of Rinso, dissolve in just enough cool water to make it as thick as cream. Then stir in two quarts of boiling water, and stir well. When the bubbles disappear you will have a clear, amber-colored liquid that is the magical Rinso washing solution. Pour it into your tub of cool or lukewarm water, and put in the clothes and soak. For extra hard water or extra dirty clothes add more Rinso solution.

In the morning rinse thoroughly and hang out to dry—the washing is done! That's why Rinso is different from all other Soaps and Washing Powders.

She also wore the gift of the groom, a beautiful necklace of valuable orient pearls. The young people were unattended, a few relations being present. After the ceremony the bridal couple motored to the home of the bride, where a number of relations and intimate friends were awaiting their arrival. After all had wished them much happiness, the guests were served to a sumptuous repast, which was certainly enjoyed by all. The evening passed very pleasantly, with vocal and instrumental music. In due time, the chaperons arrived and paid their respects to the bride and groom. Their behaviour was most admirable and they were kindly treated. The bride is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Kier Bernard and is one of the most popular young ladies of the community. The young couple received valuable and useful gifts, showing the esteem in which they are held by all. In the wee sma hours of the morning, they departed for Graham's Road with the kind wishes of all for long life and much happiness. The evening of June 29th the young people of Graham's Road and vicinity called a pleasant evening was spent in the home of Mr. and Mrs. McKay sincerely wish them many years of wedded life and happiness.

IN MEMORIAM

THE LATE EWEN WALKER

It is with feeling of deepest regret that we chronicle the death of Mr. Ewen Walker, one of the most respected residents of Kelvin. His death occurred at his home on June 13th after a long illness. The late Mr. Walker had been a great sufferer from rheumatism, being bedfast for over seven years and in spite of all that medical skill and the tender nursing of a devoted wife and mother could do he passed into the great beyond. The deceased was 41 years of age and leaves to mourn besides a sorrowing widow and two children his mother, three sisters and two brothers, namely Mrs. Herbert Hogg, Kelvin; Mrs. Thos. Steward, Kensington; Mrs. G. Ross, James and Ira in the Canadian West. The funeral service was a very impressive one and was conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. W. Robertson. The pallbearers were John Steward, John Walker, James Jardine, Edward McMurdo, W. A. McMurdo and Harold Laird.

MRS. ANNIE FORRY

It was with deep regret that we learned of the death of Mrs. Forry who died in Boston on June 30th, formerly Miss Annie Haynes of Georgetown. Though not in robust health for the past few months, she was able to move about at her work as usual and was always cheerful and uncomplaining, so that friends and neighbors did not realize until a few weeks before her death that she was suffering from a disease which so quickly terminated her sojourn in this world. Her last days were cheered by the tender nursing of her daughters, Mary and the kind words and counsel she gave them during the last days of her life. It will be a help in their sore bereavement and with a prayer on their lips her spirit went forth to meet her God, trusting that she would be one of his servants. Besides her daughters she leaves to mourn two sisters, Mrs. Michael McDonald and Mrs. Stevens of Georgeville, besides one brother, Charles Haynes, also of Georgetown, to whom the sympathy of all is extended in their bereavement of a dear mother and loving sister. MRS. NEIL D. MCEACHERN

On Wednesday the twenty ninth day of June, Mary McDougall, beloved wife of Mr. Neil D. McEachern, Rice Point passed peacefully into rest at the age of seventy-two years after a distressing illness of three months from heart failure which she bore with the greatest patience and resignation to the Divine Will. During her illness her greatest comfort was found in hearing God's word read and sung and a great number of the Psalms and Paraphrases she could repeat and sing by memory both in English and Gaelic as she had learned them in the days of her youth.

She was an honoured member of the Church of Scotland for over fifty years and it could be truly said of her that she lived up to the profession which she had made in her early days. She leaves besides a sorrowing husband the following sons and daughters, the following: Miss Dorothy of New Bedford, Mass.; Donald in British Columbia, Neil Ewen at home and Margaret, Mrs. Dalrymple of Massachusetts and Mary Jane wife of Charles McDougall, Rice Point, who did all that they could to relieve the sufferings of a loving mother in her last days. The respect in which she was held was evidenced after a large number of people which attended her funeral which took place on Friday, June 1st to Canoe Cove Cemetery.

The services were conducted by her pastor the Rev. D. Lamont, speaking from Hebrews fourth chapter, tenth and eleventh verses. The pall bearers were Neil McQuarrie, Charles McDougall, Allan McDougall, Peter Currie, Alexander McLean and Neil McKenzie. (Patriot please copy.)

Campbell belonged gave him a full sense of their worth. The scriptures were read by the Rev. Geo. Millar of New London.

Mr. Campbell was born on June 5, 1858. His parents were James and Isabella (Johnstone) Campbell, and he was one of a family of eight of whom three are now living: William of Graham's Rd., Arichibald of Clifton and Alexander of Summerside. Three of the family have been taken away in the last 9 months. Mrs. John A. McKay of Graham's Road, John of Long River and James Andrew the subject of this sketch. He was married in 1882 to Miss Christie Lamont of Springton. Seven children survive him and treasure his name. Garret W. of Graham's Road; James Murdock of the same place; Jimmie at home; Mrs. Wallace McEwen, Campbellton, P. E. I.; Mrs. William Warren, Kensington; John Robert living in the West and Hugh A. at home. Mr. Campbell has been a sufferer for sometime and it was hoped that his useful life might be prolonged by the skill of specialists abroad. But the trouble had gone beyond human skill. It is easy to believe that for such a life as this there is another higher sphere of great usefulness and higher honour.

The services were conducted by her pastor the Rev. D. Lamont, speaking from Hebrews fourth chapter, tenth and eleventh verses. The pall bearers were Neil McQuarrie, Charles McDougall, Allan McDougall, Peter Currie, Alexander McLean and Neil McKenzie. (Patriot please copy.)
