MAIL TRAIN DELAYED.—Owing to a collision between the Maritime Express and another train between Montreal and Quebec on Friday afternoon, the Maritime train was cancelled and the Ocean Limited from Montreal was delayed about six hours. As a consequence the Prince Edward Island train no. 40, was sent over in two sections, the first section arriving about nine o'clock Saturday night, with only the parcel mail. The other section left Moncton at 4 o'clock yesterday morning and arrived in Charlottetown about ten. It brought over the largest mail so far of the Christmas season. The postal clerks were engaged practically all day Sunday in getting mail ready for delivery this morning. To meet the traffic situation the railway officials ran a special train on Sunday from Emerald through Tignish, so that all passengers and mails could be forwarded to their destination without extra delay.

Water Street, father of the defendant, Percy Vale's testimony, was that on the previous night he and Willard Tanton found a box containing a can and tiddies of rum in the gangway of Mr. J. D. Jenkins place of business, Grafton Street, that with Tanton's assistance he had taken the rum and placed it in the cellar of his father's house, meaning, as he said, to report the matter to the prohibition officers.

Following Vale's conviction and fine the defendant asked "I suppose Tanton will be brought up too?" His Honor replied: "I suppose so." Turning to Inspector Haywood he asked: "Are you going to bring a prosecution?" The inspector replied in the affirmative.

On Sunday, Dec. 15, following the raid at Vale's house and previous to Vale's appearance in Court, according to information supplied by the police and prohibition officers, a seizure of about nine gallons of rum was made on the premises of Mr. L. P. Tanton.

According to the clerk of the City Police Court a charge against Mr. Tanton for illegal possession of liquor will be brought up later.

The announcement that amendments to the Pensions Act would be introduced at the next session of Parliament with a view to giving more liberal treatment to ex-service men, came as good news to Melville C. P. White, who although asserting that he was not qualified to express an opinion, said that he was interested on account of his connection with the poppy fund. "I think it is a good thing," Mr. White said to the Globe, "that the Government is feeling it should make an effort to be more liberal with these men, because what happens is that they draw the line at a certain point where a man is no longer eligible. This means, he turns to some other charitable organization which already has a full load to take. Mr. White also expressed the belief that more money would be necessary this year to meet the needs which the poppy fund served. "We could use a great deal more if we had it," he said. "Somebody must look after these men." There is no doubt in the world that the interpretation of the act has been too narrow. Keady McKay told the Globe, when commenting on the Ottawa announcement last night. "What we want rather is a sympathetic attitude on the part of the board, having respect always to the fact that as they are dispensing public money they should dispense it with great care." Mr. McKay reiterated the belief that a sympathetic cooperation on the part of the Pensions and Appeal Boards would be a solution to the problem and said, "I feel it is a very fine move on the part of these upon whom responsibility rests."

Church Services

ST. JAMES CHURCH Two inspiring Christmas sermons were delivered yesterday. Rev. Dr. Ramsay taking the morning service and Rev. J. M. McLeod the evening. The Christmas music was exceptionally well rendered under the capable direction of Mrs. J. A. Lawson, with Mr. Walter McNutt at the organ. In addition to the congregational singing of the lovely Christmas carols, Mr. Raoul Raymond sang a selected solo, Noel, his fine bass voice and expressive rendition being most effective. The solo in the fine anthem, "The First Christmas," was sweetly taken by Miss Marjory Wood, while Mrs. Raymond's delightful soprano voice was heard to splendid advantage in the solo part of the anthem, "Holy Night," was exquisitely given by Mrs. J. A. Lawson, Miss J. MacDonald, Messrs Charles Gallagher and Charles McKenzie. The effect of the sweetly blending voices was very much enjoyed. At the morning service Dr. Ramsay read a Christmas message to the congregation from Rev. Mr. Muir, at present in the P. E. I. Hospital, the congregation standing in appreciation. Dr. Ramsay intimated that he would convey the congregation's good wishes to their minister for his early recovery to restored health.

TRINITY UNITED CHURCH

Delightful, elevating, inspiring are the proper words to describe both services yesterday. The Chancel was suitably decorated for the Christmas season. A full choir of 40 voices was present and splendid congregations turned out. The Christmas spirit of joy and gladness was awakened by the singing of such hymns as "Joy to the World, The Lord has Come," "O Come all ye Faithful, joyful and Triumphant," "Hark! the Herald Angels Sing, Glory to the New-Born King," and then in addition the Anthem "Arioso Shine, for thy Light is Come" with Mr. Harvey McPherson as soloist and the solo, "The Birthday of a King," by Mr. A. R. Gillis were beautiful numbers but the special feature was the violin solo "Meditation," so artistically rendered by Miss Kathleen Logan, of Halifax, the grand-daughter of our esteemed member Mr. James Paton. The morning sermon was delivered by Rev. C. N. Brown, from the text John 1-17 "For the law was given by Moses but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ." The service was broadcast by C. H. C. K. The program of the evening service has already been published. It comprised in addition to the Christmas hymns in which the congregation heartily joined, the following numbers: Solo "The Holy City," by Mr. F. W. Small, Carol "Hark! Those Holy Voices," Mr. George Johnson and Harmony Male Choir, Anthem "It came upon the midnight clear," with obligato sung by Miss Margaret Sterns and a second anthem "Like Silver Lamps" with Mr. G. Elmer Ritchie as soloist. There were also two violin solos by Miss Logan "Ave Maria" and "Benedictus." Of Miss Logan's playing it must be said that her tone-quality is that of the mature artist, and seldom have the people of Charlottetown heard such an excellent rendition of Gonnod's famous and beautiful "Ave Maria" dedicated to Bach's first prelude. The Benedictus (MacKenzie) new to most of us here revealed the artist in her best style. Her teacher Ivan Williams (the pupil) may well be proud of his pupil. Rev. Dr. Ramsay gave an address from the words found in Luke 1-78 "The Dayspring from on High." At the conclusion of the service several in the congregation expressed personally to Professor Fletcher, the very great delight they felt and commended him on his own work at the organ.

THE BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. C. Vincent, D. D., at the Baptist Church yesterday morning spoke on "Christ Came" His text, Galatians, 4, 4; "But when the fullness of time came, God sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law." Of all the days of the year, the most joyous is Christmas. And the joyousness of Christmas came with the birth of Jesus Christ, Saviour, Redeemer, and Lord. "In the fulness of time." How remarkable the timeliness of God's plans. God does what He does in His own time and at the right time. East and West were converging. There was one Empire, one civilization, one common longing for a fuller religious life. In order to gain the world, Rome had lost her own soul. Rome had prepared a world pillage. The Jews had taught the word the awful conviction of sin. Greece supplied the time since the World war.

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH

At the evening service in the Central Christian Church last night a large and appreciative audience assembled to witness "The Gifts for the King," the sacred service pagant. At this service there was an addition to the Church by Confession of Faith. So impressive were the lessons portrayed by this pagant that there have been several requests that it be repeated again, therefore, it will be repeated at 7 p. m. next Sunday, December 25th. At the morning service the pastor gave an exposition of the two detailed accounts of the Birth of Our Lord as found in the Gospels of Saint Matthew and Luke; and the choir under the direction of Mrs. Keith S. Rogers very commendably rendered special Christmas numbers. (Patriot please copy.)

flexible, expressive, wide spread language as the medium through which the message might be carried. Christianity is the synthesis of all the reaching desires and needs of earlier religious systems, binding together—all of truth in each and breathed upon by the breath of life whereby Christianity has become a living soul. Born was he, of a Virgin. Before us a mystery, too holy, too high for mock or cavilling. Born was one human in his needs, hungry, thirsty, needy, a seeker for friendship like us, but divinely a helper, Saviour and perfect Redeemer.

Jesus came to reveal God. "Show us the Father," said one. "So panteth our souls after Thee, O God," said another. In Christ we see the Almighty Father. In Christ our reaching desires for God are satisfied. If we would know of the tenderness and companionship of God, let us look in the face of Jesus Christ.

Jesus came to heal the break. Somehow or other, sadly the break came. Man forsok God who stood ready to welcome him back again. Sin with its corruption, its corrosive power, came and with its guilt and stain menaces us yet. In Christ lies the cure for his sin, its guilt, its stain and its power.

The evening sermon, "Christ is Coming Again" was a keen and eloquent appeal for a deeper realization of the message and importance of the Second Advent.

The morning music included Sir John Goss' beautiful carol "See amid the winter snows," with Mrs. Barbara MacNeill and Mr. V. L. Dingwell taking the solos; Norman Cairchill's anthem "Behold I Bring You Good Tidings," while after the sermon, the quartets, Messrs Quigley, Calder, Dingwell and Sterns sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem."

The evening music included three anthems from Handel's Messiah, "Lift up Your Heads," "Surely He Hath Borne our Griefs," and "And the Glory of the Lord."

The church was tastefully decorated with spruce and Poinsettia. The beautiful flowers were the kind gifts of the Boyver family, Mrs. H. C. Brown, and Miss Stevens.

The Sunday School as announced emphasized the season in a presentation of gifts for the benefit of the needy. A generous large offering in money and material gifts was brought by the members of the school, which had a particularly large attendance for the year.

KENSINGTON LADIES' HOCKEY.—This "up-to-the-minute" town will take considerable interest in its ladies' hockey team during the skating season. The fair athletes look like and sylph-like in their red and white uniforms. The team will be prepared to meet any ladies' hockey team, and will welcome correspondence from any team wishing for a match game.—K.

HOME FROM ONTARIO

Robert Murphy, of Kapus Kasing, Ontario, and Mrs. Murphy, (nee Edna Fitzgerald, of Waterford, Lot one), are home on a visit to friends and relatives in P. E. Island. Mr. Murphy who is a son of John Murphy of Montreal, is an electrical engineer for the big Consolidated Hydro Electric Power Co., operating in the district, supplying power to the mines operating on the out-croppings of the great mineral belt, known as the Pre-Cambrian Shield, which was described so well in McLean's magazine some months ago. The place is quite a Hudson Bay slope. It is on a line of the great transcontinental system of railways, which demonstrates the fact that where great wealth exists ways and means of transportation will be found. Mr. Murphy reports low temperatures—as low as 65 degrees below zero, but says only incidental in the high altitudes. The people dress to defy the elements, and work, life, fertility and the pursuit of happiness are on just the same as in more temperate zones.

The northern part of Canada is highly mineralized, and development has only commenced. The thoughts of 50 and 60 degrees below zero is a terrifying prospect to most people, but experience, the terror fades away—the writer can substantiate this, having spent four winters near the Arctic circle, and experienced 65 degrees below on several occasions. He would be more comfortable in a ten mile tramp in the north at 70 below than doing two miles here against a Nor-wester at zero. Mr. Murphy thinks that all young Canadians should stay in Canada, and help develop our great natural resources, where we have a voice in the administration of the affairs of government, "keeping the House in order" (as it were), not to emigrate to some foreign country, where we have no voice in the making of the laws, and must necessarily become "hewers of wood and drawers of water" in the capitalist and purse proud land of our adoption, whose administrators in their cupidity, while professing to give precedence to Canadian immigrants, are every day, in many ways, making it harder for Canadian immigrants—not to mention almost prohibitive tariff barriers against a friendly nation. It is a pity the emigration head tax wasn't made $300.00, but they are too wise to "kill the goose that lays the golden egg." We can afford to bide our time. Some day the "poor defenceless worm will turn" and we can impose a head tax, if so disposed with impunity. Mr. Murphy will return after the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Murphy will spend three months with her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fitzgerald and other relatives.—K.
