THE MORNING GUARDIAN

TUESDAY, JULY 26 18 8

The most glaring instance of narrow minded journalism which we have noticed for some time past is displayed in a paper called the Pioneer, published in Summerside. This paper takes the GUARDIAN to task for having given prominence to the fact that Mr E W McCready has won fame for himself as war correspondent in Cuba for the New York Herald. After whining about the head lines over this article the Pioneer goes on to say that the column or two of matter which followed was copied. True, the article was copied, but it should be a significant fact to the Pioneer that honest credit was given to the St John Telegraph the paper from which the article was taken. And the Telegraph in turn gave credit to the New York Herald in which the article originally appeared. This is more than the Telegraph might have expected had its article subsequently appeared in the Pioneer. For a hurried glance over the self same paper which contained the criticism on the GUARDIAN'S "copied" article revealed the fact that out of a total of forty news items on its local page no less than 29 were copied from other papers. Twenty four of these were taken from the GUARDIAN while in not one instance was credit given. Of the remaining five copied locals credit is given for only two of them.

The Pioneer and its readers will do well to study the following parallel:—

The above are a few of the shorter paragraphs quoted in preference to longer ones owing to more important demands for space. It is amusing to note the weak attempts made by the Pioneer in somewhat changing the verbage of many other locals in order to disguise the fact that they are copied wholesale from the GUARDIAN. And yet the Pioneer prattles childishly about "copied matter."

Smoking is greatly on the increase in the United States. An idea of how wide spread the habit has become may be had from the fact that last year in that country the tobacco bill for 25,000,000 of people amounted to $600,000,000.

MISS M. ASHLEY'S REPORT

Of Malpeque C. E. Convention given in Grace Church.

In trying to convey to you an idea of the late convention I feel that it is almost impossible to do so. The one element that predominated, the grand lifting up and impelling force was the presence and power of the Holy Spirit, which no one can easily describe or even put on paper at all and which only those who were present can in the least realize.

The Second Annual Convention of the P E Island Christian Endeavor Union met in Malpeque Presbyterian Church July 13th, 1898. As we entered the church that itself was almost an inspiration, decorated as it was with an abundance of beautiful flowers intermixed with the C E colors, the pure white and the cardinal displayed in the flags, and the C E motto "For Christ and the Church." One hundred and eight-four endeavorers were present, 72 of whom were delegates. After a short prayer and praise service and the singing of "Onward Christian Soldier," the Rev G M Campbell, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit declared the convention opened. In doing so he said that although other things would come in and perhaps appear to predominate, still the great centre of this convention was Christ. He gave the motto for the year, Matt xx-29: "Christ came not to be ministered unto but to minister and to give his life a ransom for many." The whole convention then rose and sang "Peal out the watchword." Just here a touching tribute was paid to the memory of the vice president of the Union, the Rev D Sutherland. He has left this record behind him—"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth, yea saith the spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them." In his case has it been especially true that "He being dead yet speaketh," in this convention. A prayer followed that the great God of Heaven might sanctify this sorrow to our good. A duett "No sorrow there" very appropriately ended this part of the meeting. The Rev Mr Campbell then gave his opening address on Christian Endeavor as an Evangelizing force. Christian Endeavor he said means progress. already although only twenty years old its hosts are numbered by the thousands. When the children of Israel travelling through the wilderness came to a place where they were shut in on all sides, when forward march was impossible and retreat meant bondage and captivity and we read they were "Sore afraid" then Moses prayed. There is a time for prayer and a time for action for soon the word came "Speak unto the children of Israel that they go forward." Tremblingly they did so and the waters divided before them and they passed over on dry land. This is an example for all Endeavorers. God first as truly speaks to us his children as He did to the children of Israel, that we move forward,—forward for systematic study of the Bible—forward for loyalty to Christ and forward for soul winning and He will grant us the power which proceedeth from above. But there must be prayer fervent and increasing, first for strength and second for holiness. Are we looking anxiously for the deepening of the Holy spirit; There is something more to be done than merely to ask for it, to pray for the power, can we conceive how God can answer our prayer if our lives, our daily actions are in opposition. We offer the prayer "Thy kingdom come thy will be done on earth as it is by the angels in heaven" but God will only answer it by our own instrumentality; our own devotion. God answers no prayer that is not independent, that goes not out into action. The true relation of prayer to power is a practical question for every christian. A merchant may pray but unless he uses energy, force, action, endeavor his business cannot be a success. Do we expect to get to Heaven without starting? God says, start, believe, submit, strive to enter in and He opens the gate."

The convention then sang "To the work," Reports from local societies were here submitted, these society reports educating an Indian boy, another supporting a deaf and dumb child and nearly all have raised money for missionary purposes. The chief factor of another society is the impetus it has given to Bible Study, and still another reports that their chief work has been the temperance cause, they hold one temperance meeting monthly and of 30 members 28 have signed the pledge. Three societies report junior Endeavors which have proven very successful, one of them raising $20 for missions.

The evening session was opened by the usual prayer and praise service, Mr W Turner leading.

Rev J M Fisher pastor of the Church welcomed the delegates on behalf of the people of Malpeque. He said the people of P E Island are a hospitable one, and Malpeque and vicinity were not behind their country-men in this respect, therefore a right cordial Presbyterian welcome was extended from the Church and the home. Mr Ernest Ramsay gave the address of welcome from the local C. E. Union. His interpretation of C. E. was Christian Entertainer which every local Endeavorer intended to prove true.

A reply to these addresses of welcome was given by Rev F A Whiteman, who announced himself by asserting there was nothing new under the sun. Although this is an age of convention, and conventions seem the genius of the present day, still conventions are as old as the old world itself corresponding as they do to the ancient pilgrimages in the far East. He liked the idea, inter denominational. Methodist fire and Baptist water force steam which is wisely kept in check by the Presbyterian brake.

CAN'T ENJOY LIFE

Because of nervousness, dyspepsia, heart trouble, etc. Lots of people just have to sit and look on while their healthy, vigorous friends have all the enjoyment of a strong and robust body. Dr. Ward's Pills will bring back health, strength, snap, vim and energy to even the weakest and weariest of suffering humankind.

A BAD INVESTMENT MADE GOOD.

I have half a gross of empty bottles upon my shelves. Everything my neighbors and friends would tell me to try I would go straight away to the drug store and purchase. I was in a terrible condition from dyspepsia and liver troubles and was getting worse all the time. I was so discouraged buying one medicine and the other and receiving no benefit that I was about giving up all hope of ever getting better, when my husband brought me home a box of Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills, which he said had been highly recommended to him. I began using them at once, when, to my great surprise, I felt better in a very short time and continued them for about two weeks more which cured me entirely. I have not the least sign of dyspepsia or liver troubles now, and have also gained several pounds in weight.

Signed, ANNIE E. GAUNTLEY,

Dr. Ward's Blood and Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents per box, 5 boxes for $2.00, at druggists, or mailed on receipt of price by The Dr. Ward Co., 71 Victoria St., Toronto. Book of information free.

On holidays in England two parties of men or boys will frequently get hold of opposite ends of a rope and pull on it, as a test of the strength of the two parties. They call it the "tug of war." Many a hardworking man and woman in each day's toil, is pulling a "tug of war" with death for an antagonist.

They fail to take proper care of their health. When they suffer from indigestion or a slight bilious attack they "wear it out." After a while these disorders wear out the reckless man or woman and the result is consumption, malaria, rheumatism, or some blood or skin disease. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser tells all about these diseases. It is free to all. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all the maladies named. It cures the cause. It makes the appetite hearty, the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and nerve tonic. Don't let a druggist impose on you with a more profitable substitute.

"I had a very severe pain in the small of my back, where my hips join on to my body, and it hurt so that I thought I was going to come apart," writes Wm. Z. Powers, Esq., of Erin Shades, Henrico Co., Va. "My doctor came and pronounced it rheumatism. He gave me a prescription, but I got no better, but worse. I purchased a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery from my druggist and commenced to use it. I began to improve at once and got well. Now I am in perfect health,—no pain, no rheumatism."

Nearly every disease known to doctors and the treatment is described in Doctor Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. One thousand and eight pages and over three hundred illustrations. FREE.
