LOCAL BRIEFS

The Latest News of the City and Province.

Gathered by Guardian Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

(See also on page 5.)

MR. JOHN M. CLARKE, Summerside, was in the city yesterday.

DR. ROBERTSON, Montague, was registered at the Davies yesterday.

REMOVED.—The Railwaymen's Sunday Meeting is now held in Prowse's New Block.

MISS JANE HARRIS arrived home Wednesday night, by the Stanley, after visiting friends in Halifax.

MR. JOSEPH S. MCKAY arrived home from P. E. I. on Friday last. We understand he expects shortly to leave for the Northwest, where he will conduct a series of meetings.—New Glasgow Chronicle.

A SUBSCRIBER in Boston is renewing his subscription writes THE GUARDIAN: "The conditions here are simply terrible in regard to money matters and are getting worse all the time. The mills in almost every line are either on short time or closed down and everything is worse than I ever saw it anywhere at any time. One can hire men at from $7 to $9 for doing work which used to command from $2 to $2.50 per day—and they are glad to get it. Dissatisfaction and unrest are very visible among all classes of politicians and their followers."

A SUCCESSFUL and enjoyable Missionary entertainment was held in the Methodist Church, St. Sable, on Wednesday evening last, under the auspices of the Epworth League of that place. It was greatly appreciated by the large audience that filled the church. The programme, consisting of solos, duets, choruses, recitations and dialogues, was all that could be desired. Miss Annie Smith presided efficiently at the organ, and was assisted by a large choir of young people that would be hard to excel anywhere. Mr. Fraser of Pictou was present and the interest of the occasion was increased by the selections he generously furnished with the graphophone. The pastor, Rev. Thos. Hicks, presided, and during the evening delivered an address on the Missionary work of the Church. The collection taken up amounted to nearly seven dollars.

OBITUARY—It is with sorrow we record the death of Miss Sarah Macrae, beloved daughter of Mr. Archibald Macrae of Point Prim, on the twenty-sixth of November. The deceased had been a sufferer for many years, but not until January last had she been confined to her room. Even in the midst of such suffering her pleasant, cheerful words were always comforting to those who so unwearyingly attended to her wants. It was indeed a joy to hear of her perfect assurance in the attainment of Christ, the Saviour. To her sorrowing parents and sisters we extend our sincere sympathy, ever remembering that God giveth rest,—rest from all sorrow, and watching, and fears, rest from all possible sighing and tears, rest through God's wonderful, endless years—At home with the blest.—COM.

The town was saddened on Wednesday morning last by news of the death of Mrs. S. Martin. She had been in ill health for over two years but not until the last three weeks when she was seized with an attack of pleurisy, was her life despaired of. She passed away about 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning leaving, besides her husband, a family of four sons and two daughters to mourn her departure. Of these Mrs. E. G. Roberts, Messrs. Robert, James and Lemuel Martin reside in South Edmonton, Mrs. McKenzie in Prince Edward Island and John Martin at Wilbur, Wash. The funeral took place from the family residence, on Thursday afternoon, at Edmonton cemetery, Rev. E. C. Gallup officiating. [The above is clipped from the Alberta Plaindealer of South Edmonton, Alberta, N. W. T., dated Dec. 16th. The deceased Mrs. Martin was a daughter of the late Mr. James Stewart, land surveyor of Brackley Point Road, and a sister of John Stewart, Hope River, Alexander Stewart, Cavendish, and Mrs. John McLeod, French River. Her daughter, Mrs. Hammond McKenzie, referred to, lives at Cavendish.]

The many friends sympathise with the father in his bereavement which seems doubly hard; the loss of a wife and child within a year. ## LAURELS WON

By Jas. Paton & Co. in a Post Card Competition.

In the November issue of the Dry Goods Review Messrs. Cookson, Louson & Co., importers and manufacturers of men's furnishings, Montreal, offered prizes for the design of a post card bearing on its face such information as would cause it to be retained in our counting rooms, offices and homes, instead of its being thrown into the waste basket.

A large number of competitors took part from all parts of Canada, among them being several from this city.

THE GUARDIAN takes pleasure in announcing that the firm of Messrs James Paton & Co., Charlottetown have been successful competitors, or in other words have won the laurels for the whole Dominion. They received word this morning to this effect:

Mr. Paton captures second prize and Mr. McLaren third, the first having been won by Mr. R. Gordon, Hamilton, Ontario.

The particulars of the prizes will appear in the Dry Goods Review for January, and will be read by 30,000 of the most prominent business men of Canada and the United States.

THE GUARDIAN congratulates this well known firm upon their success and would add that if the Dry Goods Review were to offer a prize for the most tastefully decorated store the Messrs James Paton & Co's employees would most likely be the successful competitors.
