TALKING PICTURES

At New Wonderland tonight. This evening after the arrival of the Picture Boat, there will be for the first time in Charlottetown, the wonderful Dramova Co. presenting a Talking Picture, the first one being "A Race for Millions." This is one of the most sensational dramas ever presented by talking pictures everywhere, and is well chosen for the opening one here. One reel in each show is a Talking one, the other motion pictures being exceptionally chosen to go with the talking ones, and the standard of excellence is already known for New Wonderland's pictures.

Also Frank L. Stanton and his talented Company will present "The Troubles of Brown" a screaming comedy with a laugh for every minute in it. The comedy may not be put on Monday evening, if the boat is not on time, but it will be presented on Tuesday and Wednesday with a complete change on Thursday. Change of Talking Pictures on Thursday, and complete change of comedy. Follow the crowd to Stanton's fun. Entertainment and laughter; the latest novelty in amusement, and the best talent procurable at New Wonderland all this week.

SULTAN'S LIFE SAVED TWICE BY A CANADIAN

HALIFAX, May 1.—The Sultan depends upon a Canadian to save his life. His hopes in his extremity are pinned upon Admiral Ransford D. Bucknam, who now commands the imperial navy, has charge of the construction and of the imperia yacht, and is the naval adviser and aide-de-camp of Abdul Hamid II.

Bucknam Pasha has been in Turkey only six years. He was born in Nova Scotia thirty-eight years ago. His father was lost at sea and when his grand-parents, John and Mrs. Bucknam, of Worcester, Mass., gave him the choice of farm life or going to sea at fourteen he chose the sea as a cabin boy in a merchant ship.

Twice, it is said, he has saved the life of the Sultan, and he is prepared to fight for it again if necessary. More than once has Bucknam Pasha himself, as he is known in Turkey, been the object of attack by would-be assassins. Guarded as he is in Constantinople his enemies have found little chance to slay him, but once in Kiel, while returning from a banquet, his foe nearly succeeded. Five of them attacked him with daggers, and only his expert knowledge of boxing saved his life. He felled three of them and was repelling the attacks of the fifth single-handed when help arrived.

AT HEART STILL A CANADIAN. Despite the honors that have been reaped upon him, Bucknam Pasha remains at heart a Canadian. He laughs at the thought of danger to himself. His coolness under danger was displayed four years ago when an attempt was made to kill the Sultan with a bomb as he was about to leave the Hamidieh Mosque, a thousand yards from the palace. The bomb exploded prematurely and killed eighty mounted men and their horses and wounded many more.

Bucknam Pasha was uninjured and he walked beside the Sultan's carriage with drawn sword as it threaded its way among the dead, back to the palace, threatening in a loud voice to decapitate any unauthorized person who approached.

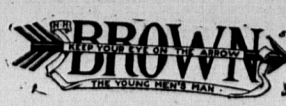

Bucknam has entire charge of the juggling of the Turkish Navy. Every dollar of the $200,000,000 set aside for this purpose which has thus far been expended has been paid out under his direction.

Upon the breast of his gold-embroidered uniform gleams the star of the Order of Osmanieh conferred upon by the Sultan. The same imperial hands have conferred a distinguished service medal, which Bucknam Pasha wears upon his left breast. Massive gold epaulets adorn his shoulders. A gold braided ferd and a jewel-studded sword completes the dress of the man upon whose naval wisdom and astuteness the Sultan leans. At court the Nova Scotian ranks with the nobles and he is more often consulted.

WAS IN TWO SHIPWRECKS. He was twice shipwrecked. Afterward he met John D. Rockefeller on a lake passenger steamer and the latter made him captain of a Standard Oil whaleback, where he was known as the "Kid Captain."

In 1902 he accepted a position with the Cramps of Philadelphia, and when the Turkish warship Medjidiah was completed in 1903 he was commissioned to sail her to the Bosphorus. There he met the Sultan, who was so impressed with his ability that he offered him the vice-adjutantcy of the empire.

Bucknam Pasha afterward went to San Francisco and married Miss Rose Thayer, who is now with him in the Ottoman capital. His salary is princely.

NEW BRUNSWICK'S SHALE DEPOSITS RICH

OTTAWA, May 1.—To the Senate Committee on Mines and Minerals this morning, Dr. Ellis, of the Geological Survey, stated that the New Brunswick oil shale deposits were far richer than those of Scotland from which the Standard Oil Company annually obtains sixty-two million gallons of oil, and fifty thousand tons of sulphate of ammonia. This was admitted in Scotland, he said, after experiments with the New Brunswick samples.

The manager of works there who had tested the New Brunswick shale declared that the deposits were the biggest gold mine that could be found anywhere. The Scotch shales produced thirty to forty gallons of oil per ton and the New Brunswick shale, said Dr. Ellis, would produce from sixty to a hundred and ten gallons a ton, and was far richer than the Scottish in sulphate of ammonia. The shale district extended from Dorchester to Norton, seventy miles and seventy seams had been discovered.

Its not a difficult matter to diagnose a real case of indigestion, usually there is a feeling of weight in the chest, the throat seems full and tight the stomach feels uncomfortable, head is apt to ache, breath is bad, appetite poor.

Nerviline is the cure, it's the only remedy that strengthens weak stomach, overcomes digestive disorders and keep you in fine form. For two years I suffered untold discomfort with indigestion," writes Mr. J. P. Huxley, of Great Barrington. "After meals I experienced a feeling of Nausea, my stomach was sour, I belched gas, food fermented. My head ached continually and I ran down in flesh, looked pale and sickly. I used Nerviline after meals and was helped at once. I wouldn't think of being without Nerviline now. It's useful for a hundred ailments. Not only will it cure the stomach of its ills, but for headache, biliousness, flatulence, cramps, etc. I have found it simply wonderful.
