

Smart Men's Hats

Perhaps you think this heading does not read right. BUT IT DOES.

It says just what we mean, that our Hats are for smart men, men who are smart enough to know the Best Hat in the world when they see it.

For men who are smart enough to know good style in a Hat.

For men who are smart enough to know when they are saving a dollar or so on the price of a Hat.

For men who are smart enough to know that among 5000 new Hats it's positive that he can suit his peculiar face better than where he finds a few dozen.

For men who are smart enough to know where they look, and their hats look smart.

For men who are smart enough to want their Hats properly fitted to their heads.

For men who are smart enough to want their names in their Hats.

For all smart men the Christy Hat is the smartest. And its good smart business for you to buy yours NOW.

AN UNASSUMING CABINET MINISTER

LONDON, April 3.—Mr. Burns opens the door to his visitors himself. Often he does not wait for the bell to ring, for as he spoke with the "T. B." man he had one eye on the window. Suddenly he rose and, with a courteous "Excuse me a moment," he was at the door. The caller was a lady.

"What can I do for you, madam?" said Mr. Burns. It was impossible not to overhear the question through the open door. Then came the half audible, low tones of a woman's voice.

"Please write to me, and I will attend to it," said Mr. Burns, and the next minute he was back in the room again. His people do not scruple to take the time which he gives so readily, but, appreciating the gift, they speak shortly and to the point, and do not waste precious moments, that some other individual in difficulties or trouble may not be denied the words of sympathetic counsel and practical advice which are always forthcoming.

Mr. Burns' time is precious, and the hour had come for him to go to his office. As he walked down through one street in which not a single soul was to be seen, Mr. Burns turned to the writer and said, with a tone of pardonable pride in his voice: "This is the way in which I like to see the streets at this hour of the day. The men have all gone to work, the children have all gone to their schools, and the women are all busy in their homes."

Wherever we met anyone, however, the popularity of Mr. Burns among those whom he affectionately calls "his people" was amply demonstrated. The men touched their hats, the women smiled and spoke their greeting, while Mr. Burns had a cordial word for all. In that fact lurks some portion at least of the secret of the popularity which it is the right hon. gentleman's privilege not merely to have earned, but to have deserved.

EDITOR'S MAIL.

ANTI-TUBERCULOSIS SOCIETY.

Sir,—I should like to inform you that the Anti-Tuberculosis Society are not seeking funds without definite work in view. We have appointed as Inspector the City Sanitary Officer. When he makes his thorough-going inspection he will report all cases needing our educative or material help. He has already reported one. His willingness to serve is in strong contrast with the general apathy.

We have also appointed Miss Mackenzie as a visiting nurse at the same time supplying her with the Society's literature for distribution. Two households have been and are now being visited.

We have proceeded thus far on faith. It is work that needs money and can only continue and extend if the necessary means are supplied.

If you can suggest a better means of making a beginning we will be glad to hear of it. If not, do you not think you can ask the general public to have a little faith in our effort?

Yours truly,
R. R. FITZGERALD.

VINDICATION OF THE DONKEY

LONDON, April 3.—The donkey has just been vindicated in the French courts, according to the London "Tribune." It has been decided that it is not libellous to call anyone an ass. The case came from the Department of the Ariège, where a school-master, after, one supposes, years of patient suffering, was driven to a moment of fury to write on the copy-book of one of his pupils. "This boy is an ass." The boy took the book home to his father, who seems to have resembled him in some respects, for he promptly began an action for libel against the schoolmaster. What is more, he won it in the local courts, and the asses of France suffered under the wrongful imputation until the schoolmaster, who evidently possesses a certain obstinacy of his own, carried his appeal to Paris, where the slur and the damage were alike quashed.

The Kidneys And Uric Acid

The All Important Work of These Filters of the Blood and How They may be Kept Healthy by
DR. CHASE'S KIDNEY-LIVER PILLS.

When the whole vital process of digestion and assimilation of food is completed there still remains the work of removing from the blood uric acid, salts and water, and this can be accomplished only by the kidneys. The failure of the kidneys to perform this work reacts on the whole digestive and filtering systems, chokes up the liver, and by means of the circulation of the blood sends the poisonous waste matter through the entire body, giving rise to pains, derangements and disease.

Beane of their direct action on the kidneys and their enlivening influence on the liver and bowels, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are the most thoroughly effective treatment available for the cure of diseases of the kidneys.

Among the early indications of kidney disease may be mentioned:

- Backache.
 - Fickle appetite.
 - Deposits in the urine.
 - Frequent desire to urinate, especially at night.
 - Rheumatism and sciatic pains, constipation and diarrhoea alternating.
 - Dropsical swelling.
 - Scanty, dark-colored urine.
 - Persistent loss of flesh and weight.
- Prompt relief is obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, and by persistent treatment the kidneys are restored to health and activity.
- No medicine which acts on the kidneys alone can possibly prove effective, because in the great majority of cases the liver and bowels are also deranged. Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a direct and combined action on the liver, kidneys and bowels they bring about satisfactory results in the most complicated cases.
- By using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, one pill a dose at bedtime, as often as is necessary to keep the bowels in regular healthful action, you insure yourself against kidney disease and the subsequent suffering from Bright's disease, dropsy, apoplexy or other equally dreaded ailments.
