ROLLO BAY NOTES

A most enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Campbell on Thursday evening, April 19th, in honor of their son Gr. Bert, before leaving for overseas. All the youths of the adjoining districts together with all the boys of the Souris Draft were given a cordial invitation. Seventeen of the boys of the Battery responded. The evening was spent in music, singing, and dancing until morning dawned. Violin music being furnished by Messrs Frank Dixon, Guy Dingwell, Regie McDonald and Br. Richards. Supper was served in Mrs. Campbell's best style. Some very appropriate patriotic songs were sung by the boys of the Battery. Mrs. Aylmer McEwen, presiding at the organ. Sergeant Acorn gave Gr. Bert a suitable address, followed by a purse, gift from Gr. Bert's chums. Gr. Bert made a suitable reply. Sergeant Acorn related that Gr. Bert was one of the finest young men who ever donned the khaki. All joined in wishing the boys a safe voyage and a speedy return to their many friends who would be patiently awaiting their return. Many thanks were extended to Mr. and Mrs. Campbell for their pleasant time. All joined in singing the National Anthem and dispersed to their homes well pleased with their happy event.

FUNERAL SERVICES

The funeral of the late Mrs. David B. S. Johnstone took place on Monday May 7th at 10 o'clock. The attendance was large for Mrs. Johnstone was perhaps the oldest resident in Montague and all felt that it was the passing away of one who had been in the village before most of them were born. The service was conducted by the Rev. David Wright, Minister of St. Andrew's Church of which Mrs. Johnstone was a devoted member and a regular attendant. The Rev. Mr. Hubley and St. Andrew's Church Choir assisted the Minister. Mrs. Johnstone was born in Orwell 86 years ago. She was married in 1854 to David B. S. Johnstone of Cumberland Hill, Dundas. Mrs. Johnstone's father-in-law was a Sergeant in the famous Highland Regiment the 42nd or the "forty-two". He fought at Waterloo and his sword is in possession of his grandson, Wellington Johnstone of Montague. Mrs. Johnstone and her husband, who predeceased her by about 30 years, came to Montague about 50 years ago and located at the end of Montague Bridge and there she was a hand mark for nearly half a century. There were ten children Mrs. Dr. Ellis, deceased; Mrs. John Molish of Montague; William J. of Salem, Oregon; Dr. Barclay Johnstone deceased, Minn. Dr. Winthrop, Mass. Mrs. McInnis P. deceased; Mrs. B. E. Stuyve, Charlottetown; Wellington and a girl who died in infancy, and McAtague S. in Dakota. There are

ACCIDENT TO MR. REID

There was nearly a serious accident last Thursday at Victoria Cross. It seems that Mr. David Reid had out his magnificent stud horse in the yard. There was no other present save Mr. Wm. McDonald, with his mare from Pannure Island. Mr. Reid twice jerked the chain by which he was leading the stallion. This seemed to irritate the animal and he suddenly turned upon Mr. Reid and succeeded in forcing him into a corner, where Mr. Reid fell. The horse was at the time standing on his leg and striving to bite him. Had it not been for the coolness and presence of mind of Mr. McDonald it would have gone ill with Mr. Reid. The horse probably would have killed him. As it was Mr. McDonald succeeded in bearing the horse back and Mr. Reid arose to his feet and led the horse to his stall, where he tied many bruises. So far as is known his wounds were all surface wounds. He was up and dressed and going about the house on Saturday. It is thought that a few days will see him as well as ever.—B.

THE PIONEER

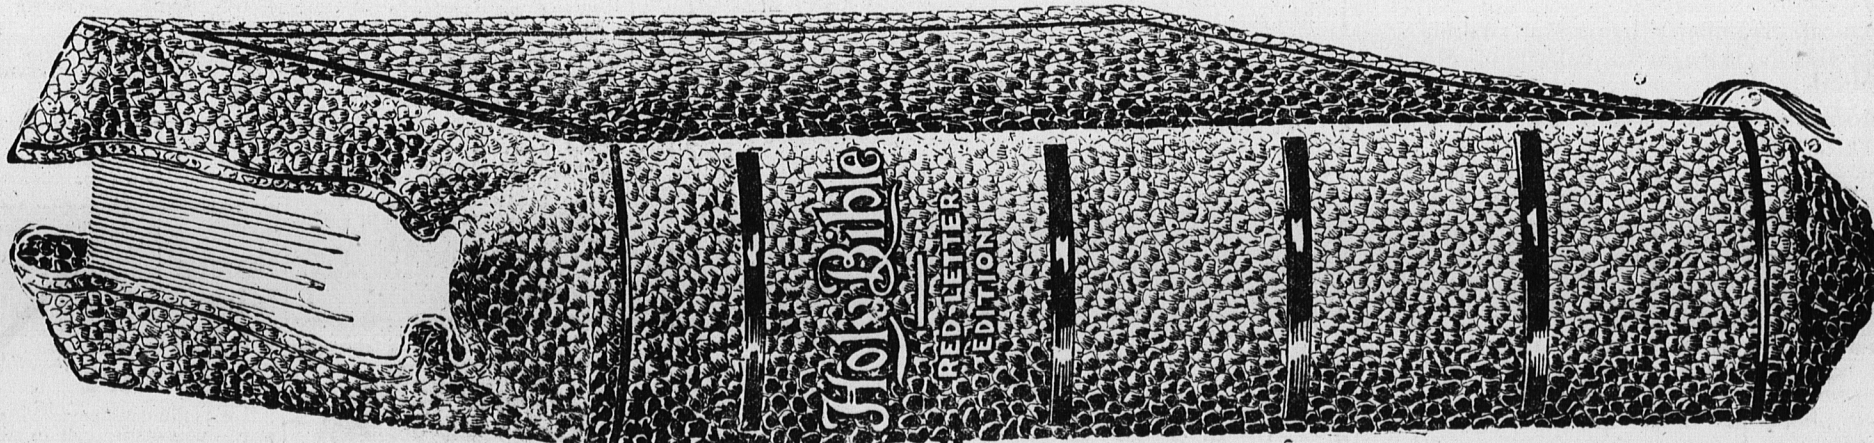

in the savage wilderness may have his Shakespeare, his Scott, his Dickens or his Burns—but first of all he will have his Bible! The sailor on the boundless main may barely know his letters, but somewhere in his kit you will find a Bible—perhaps with tear-stained inscription written with the trembling hands of old age—from his mother—next to God his best and truest friend! Seek any habitation of men in lands remote and distant—search the rude cabin of the settler—and you will find a Bible—thumbed—worn—ragged, maybe,—but loved and revered as the chiefest treasure of the little family in the clearing!
