COMFORT.
All their fragrance on the breeze;
Dancing shadows, green, still meadows—
Don't you moan, you've still got these.
These, and none can take them from
you;
These, and none can weigh their
worth,
What! you're tired and broke and
beaten?
Why, you're rich—you've got the earth!
Yes, if you're a tramp in tatters,
While the blue sky bends above,
You've got nearly all that matters,
You've got God, and God is love.
—Robert W. Service.

HAVE YOU A BAD SORE?
If so, remember these facts—Zam-Buk is by far the most widely used balm in Canada! Why has it become so popular? Because it heals sores, cures skin diseases, and does what is claimed for it. Why not let it heal your sore?
Remember that Zam-Buk is also different from the ordinary ointments. Most of these consist of animal fats. Zam-Buk contains no trace of an animal fat, or any mineral matter. It is absolutely herbal.
Remember that Zam-Buk is at the same time healing, soothing, and antiseptic. Kills poison instantly, and all harmful germs. It is suitable alike for recent injuries and diseases,
and for chronic sores, ulcers, etc.
Test how different now superior Zam-Buk really is. All druggists and stores at 50c. box. Use also Zam-Buk Soap. Relieves sunburn and prevents freckles. Best for baby's bath.
25c. tablet.

WORRELL-RATCHFORD NUPTIALS AT AMHERST.
AMHERST, June 5—A very pretty and fashionable wedding took place in Christ church this morning at ten o'clock, when Lillian Fraser Ratclford, daughter of C. E. Ratcl-ford, of the customs house service, to Clarendon Francis Worrell, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, at Souris, P. E. I., and son of His Lordship Bishop Worrell and Mrs.
Worrell, of Halifax. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev.
Mr. Quinton Warren, rector of Christ church, in the presence of a number of intimate friends and relations. The bride was given away by her father and wore a beautiful gown of white satin, with the conventional veil and orange blossoms,
and carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Caro Ratclford, who was prettily dressed in white net over pink and carried a bouquet of roses. The groom was supported by George Farris, of Halifax. Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride.
The young couple left on an extended wedding trip.

A Priceless Gift To Free
"Black Cat" Smokers

To those discriminating men of Canada who appreciate Virginia cigarettes of first quality—to the men who smoke "Black Cat" Cigarettes—we make the following offer:
In exchange for 50 coupons—one of which is now in every "Black Cat" packet—we will give a Coronation Cigarette Case.
It is hard to describe the beauty of these cases—their value is almost without price. For they are one of the most exquisite souvenirs of the crowning of our British Rulers.
100,000 of these cases—with the portraits of King George and Queen Mary in colours, inset—have already been distributed among our English smokers.
Now we want to make a similar gift to our Canadian patrons. And this is your opportunity.
Mind you, this is no inducement to smoke "Black Cat" Cigarettes. For this brand needs nothing of the sort.
Our gift offer is a token of our appreciation of patronage. And this token, as well as the cigarettes themselves, are products of British labor, financed by British capital.
This alone should mean much to you who know the integrity of long established British enterprises.
Behind this offer is the firm of "Carreras"—one whose integrity has been famous throughout England for over a century.
