POLICE COURT—At the Police Court Saturday morning a customs case was adjourned till Tuesday. For resisting a police officer, a man was fined $30 and costs or 60 days.

KINDERGARTEN will re-open on Monday morning January 13th at 9:30 o'clock in the social rooms of Triply United Church with Miss Berna Huestis in charge.

FUNERAL SERVICES—The funeral of the late Mrs. William Cairns was held from the family residence, Dunstaffnage, January 1st, and was largely attended. Rev. Ewen McDougall officiated, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Genge. The pall bearers were Messrs. W. E. Vessey, Wesley E. Wood, Herbert Thompson, Frederick Webster, James Stewart and Joseph Webster.

ROUND THE WORLD TOUR.—Dr. Leo Frank, who left recently for New York is sailing from San Francisco on January 15th, for Yokohama, by the steamship Asama, stopping at Honolulu. From Yokohama Dr. Frank will go to Tokyo, then inland to Hokkaido, Saghalin Islands, Karafuta, returning by way of Moscow, Leningrad, Riga, Berlin, Paris, returning to P. E. Island early in May.

INSTITUTE WORK.—The Bonshaw Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Wm. MacDonald with fifteen members and three visitors present. Roll call was answered with Christmas suggestions. Reports of the sick and school committees were given and new committees appointed. It was found that a vote of thanks be extended to those outside the Institute who helped in the work for our bazaar and supper. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Crosby, roll call to be answered with "What we came to the meeting for."

B. OF T. COUNCIL MEETING—A largely attended meeting of the Council of the Charlottetown Board of Trade was held on Saturday afternoon. Lt. Colonel Keith Rogers addressed the Board in respect to the report of the Canadian Commission on Radio Broadcasting and a questionnaire in respect thereto recently received from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce as to the local Board's attitude on the question. After a short discussion a committee was appointed to give the matter further consideration and report back to the Council, the committee named being Messrs. S. A. McDonald, J. A. Clark and Colonel Rogers. The matter of urging the inauguration of an air mail service to Charlottetown was placed in the hands of a sub-committee of the Council consisting of Vice-President Tweedy, and Messrs. R. E. Mutch, J. A. Clark and R. L. Cotton, who will forward their representations to the Postmaster General at an early date.

PERSONALS

Mr. R. D. McKinnon, of Selkirk, was a passenger to the city by the Eastern train Saturday.

Mr. George Keenan, Georgetown Royal, was among the visitors to the City Saturday.

Mr. John O. Currie, who spent his Christmas holidays in Charlottetown and Malpeque, left Saturday for his home in Hyde Park, Mass.

Anna Lee Scott

DOMESTIC SCIENCE AUTHORITY Now offers you her own idea of a Perfect-

Recipe Filing Cabinet

Including over 100 of her - Newest Recipe Creations AT BELOW COST

ONE of the most frequent requests Anna Lee Scott receives from her thousands of Domestic Science pupils throughout Canada is for information as to how she files her recipes and keeps them up to date. When we learned how interested women were in this subject, we made the proposal to Miss Scott that if she would agree to share her well thought out and up-to-the-minute recipe filing system and cabinet with you, we would have exact duplicates made up and offer a limited quantity of them to modern housewives at the ridiculously small price of 25c.—far less than the actual cost of making the cabinets. Miss Scott agreed gladly. She went further. She offered to contribute over 100 of her newest and choicest recipes, without cost and to include her most valuable cookery-secrets and serving ideas. Until you see Anna Lee Scott's remarkably complete recipe filing system and her new recipe creations, you cannot realize what a tremendous bargain this is. All recipes are classified under index cards. All subjects are covered—such as fish, fowl, desserts, garnishes, etc. All recipes are clearly, yet briefly, explained. Blank cards are included for pasting up additional recipes. You are not asked to buy any flour or send in any coupons to obtain a duplicate of Anna Lee Scott's Recipe Filing Cabinet for 25c. Your grocer has a supply of them. If he has sold them all (which he will very quickly), mail your 25c. to us direct and we will send you one post-paid—with our compliments. Specify whether you wish it printed in English or French. This unusual offer is our contribution toward lightening the housework and making cookery easier, handier and more pleasant for Canadian housewives who have made possible the great success of Maple Leaf Flour. You get the same uniform results with Maple Leaf Flour every time you bake. It carries a definite guarantee of uniform quality—every bag contains the highest grade of flour made from carefully selected Canadian hard wheat, milled by modern methods and checked by expert chemists at every stage of the milling process. Try it for your next baking. A new "Anna Lee Scott" recipe comes in every bag—printed in English and French—on a card to fit the cabinet. Get your Recipe Filing Cabinet—NOW.
