INCREASE IN WHEAT EXPORTS

(Special to the Guardian)

OTTAWA, Jan. 10.—Exports of Canadian wheat shot upward during 1928. Increases are noted at every port in figures compiled by the board of harbor commissioners.

At Montreal the amount was 211,295,379 bushels, an increase of more than 16,000,000 bushels over the preceding year.

The total at St. John was 23,211,769 bushels. For the week ending December 31, shipments from Vancouver were 3,796,094 bushels.

Jack Dempsey's Plans Upset

NEW YORK, Jan. 10.—Jack Dempsey has not decided yet whether he will fight again as he had agreed to do for Tex Rickard, he announced today.

His plans for aiding the promotion of the Strubling-Sharkey at Miami Beach, February 27, also are unsettled as a result of a possible shift in this event.

This is the first definite intimation that in spite of previous pronouncements to the contrary and in spite of the advanced stage of Rickard's plans, the garden management may decide not to promote the Florida match.

Colonel John S. Hammond, acting general manager, said last Monday the bout would be held as scheduled.

Dempsey was vague as to his future fighting activities, if any, and indicated all the plans he had discussed with Rickard were in the air.

MARKET FOR CHOCOLATES IN NETHERLANDS EAST INDIES

Several world-famed brands of chocolates are sold in Java in addition to a number of lines not so well known, writes G. E. Heesman, Assistant Trade Commissioner in Batavia, in the forthcoming issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal.

Although the sale of the better class of chocolates is confined almost entirely to the comparatively small European population and to wealthy Chinese, total imports in 1927 were valued at $368,853.

Holland is the chief source of supply, followed by Great Britain. Other sources of supply are Belgium, France, Switzerland, Italy and the United States.

Canadian chocolates should have no difficulty on a quality basis, in securing part of the trade. One well known Canadian brand is already established in British Malaya, and the only Canadian chocolate line imported into Java has met with approval.

UNITED KINGDOM SUGAR BEET INDUSTRY

Weather conditions this season have been exceptionally favourable to the sugar beet crop, and reports indicate that the yields will be considerably greater than last year, writes James A. Strong, Assistant Trade Commissioner in Liverpool, in the forthcoming issue of the Commercial Intelligence Journal.

EMPIRE CONCLAVE OFF BUSINESS MEN

MONTREAL, Jan. 9.—When the Canadian Chamber of Commerce executive meets in Hamilton on January 22, it will consider, among many other important matters, the question of an Empire conference of businessmen for discussing ways and means of developing trade between Great Britain, the Dominions and the Colonies.

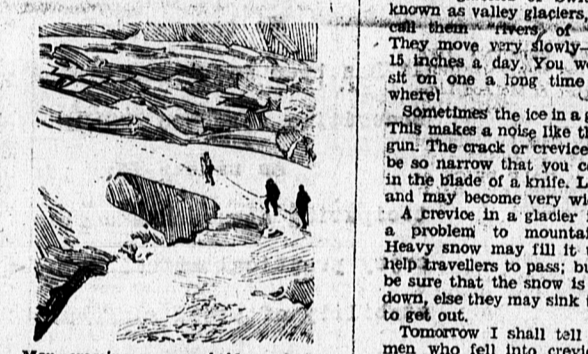

Other matters on the agenda include the following:

- 1. Consideration of recommendations made at the agricultural conference held recently in Toronto under the auspices of the Chamber. 2. A Dominion-wide, all-year program to be carried out in conjunction with the Canadian Joint Fire Prevention Committee for reducing the enormous loss caused by fire, both as regards life and property and which is responsible for approximately $100,000,000 of destruction per year in Canada. 3. The program for the fourth annual convention at Calgary and Edmonton next September. 4. A phase of immigration applicable to Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce activities. 5. The further interesting of British capital in Canada. 6. The Empire Shopping Week movement. 7. British salesmanship and marketing methods in Canada. 8. The best means of determining the opportunities for further agricultural processing in Canada and what agricultural products now imported can be grown locally, together with the promoting of such industries as can be soundly recommended with the assistance of Canadian capital, will be gone into by the executive.

GLACIERS AND CREVICES

You may have read about the glaciers or ice sheets which have spread over half of North America. They came long before white men arrived. When the glacier melted away, they dumped boulders and dirt in the bed of many a river, causing dams to be formed.

Other ice sheets may arrive in later times, spreading over the same land; but we shall not need to worry about them. We may feel confident

WEST INDIA COLONIES TO HOLD CONFERENCE

LONDON, Jan. 4.—The first conference of the West Indian colonies of the British Empire will be held in Barbados, commencing on Jan. 24 next when an attempt will be made to bring together the colonies on a basis enabling them to co-operate in all matters of common interest, but in no way infringing on the autonomy of the various colonies to manage their own affairs.

The conference is an outcome of the preliminary meeting of West Indian delegates at the Colonial Office in London three years ago, when the desirability of forming a standing conference in the West Indies was discussed.
