—MINSTREL SHOW.—The Minstrel play "Mulligans Merry Minstrels," staged in Happyland Theatre Tuesday evening, by local talent, was a big success. The house, which was packed to the doors, was kept in a mighty uproar from the rising of the curtain till the end of the closing chorus. The end men especially, keeping the audience convulsed with laughter with their jokes at the expense of the Doctors, business men, the town council and the police. Oh, everyone received their share while the audience with one accord proclaimed this the best Minstrel show that was ever staged in Summerside. The minstrels were ably supported by Mrs. Roy Silliphant who accompanied them at the piano. The sale of Home made candy by the nurses of the P. C. Hospital netted a neat sum for that worthy institution.—H.

—PROHIBITION FINES.—On information of Inspector Barbour, four prohibition cases against parties charged with having intoxicated liquor in their possession, came up for trial at the court House on Tuesday before his Honor Judge McQuarrie. Two of the defendants were fined $200 and costs each or three months in jail, another old time law breaker, was sentenced to six months in jail with no option, the fourth party whose liquor had been seized at the express office got clear of a fine as he had not taken possession of the goods, the liquor, however, was confiscated and ordered to be handed over to the Temperance Commission.—H.
