RETURNS TO HALIFAX.—Armed Q. M. S. Wheatley, who has been in the city during the past month overhauling field artillery and machine guns, leaves this morning on return to Halifax. During his stay in the city Mr. Wheatley made many friends who will warmly welcome him back again should duty or pleasure call him.

An exciting hockey match took place at the Arena last night when the Millionaires of Charlottetown defeated the Crystals of Summerside in a play off game by the score of 4-3. In the first period Charlottetown made the only tally, Bufalini shooting it on a pass from Lane.

In the second period the score was 2-3 and at the close of the third it was 3-3.

A play off of ten minutes followed (five at each end and in the first five minutes Charlottetown put in the one which gave her victory—4-3.

Tamlyn did most of the scoring for Summerside.

Campbell, Buntain, McEachern and Lane starred for Charlottetown.

Many friends in Prince Edward Island will be pleased to learn that Capt. (Rev.) A. E. Andrew, rector of the Anglican Church in Pictou who went overseas as Chaplain with the Nova Scotia Highlanders has been awarded the Military Cross. Rev. Mr. Andrew is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew of St. Eleanors, and before his ordination was at the teaching staff of St. Peter's Boys School, in Charlottetown. He is a brother of Nursing Sister Andrew, at present in this city. Particulars as to how Captain Andrew won this honor are contained in a letter from Pte. Dan Campbell of the R. C. R., to his mother, Mrs. Alex. Campbell, of Central Cariboo, N. S. who wrote:

"Our Chaplain, Rev. A. E. Andrew, has been decorated with the Military Cross. He did well earn it. He went 'over the top' and tended the wounded under heavy shell and machine-gun fire. While dressing one fellow he (the wounded one) was struck three times with machine-gun bullets. It was at Cambrai he did the good work. When I got there—for it was at Cambrai I joined them, Mr. Andrew was with us. We got orders to go over the top. When we went about a hundred yards every machine gun the German had was turned loose on us. An officer told Mr. Andrew that it was no place for him, but he said: 'If the men can go, I can.' However, we did not get over that day, and we lost twelve men out of forty. Next morning our artillery pounded the hill for two hours and two other battalions succeeded in capturing the position."

"In the midst of life we are in death." Seldom has this been more clearly defined than in the sad death that befell the home of Mr. Bennett O'Holohan of Campbellton, Lot 7, on Wednesday February 5 when the "Angel of Death" visited the home and claimed for it own the devoted wife and mother at the age of 48 years.

Death at any time is sad and hard to bear, but especially so when a person is cut off in the prime of life. Deceased had been in her usual health up to Friday, January 31 when she became seriously ill, suffering from a severe pain in her head. She was taken to the Prince County Hospital, Summerside on Friday, Feb. 1, where she underwent an operation, and died Wednesday morning, Feb. 5. By her regrettable demise the family circle loses a loving wife and mother, the community a respected citizen and the church a faithful member, and her death has made a deep impression of sorrow and cast a gloom over the community. During her illness she was visited by Rev. F. X. Gallant, of Bloomfield, Lot 56 and received the last sacrament of the Holy Catholic Church. Her funeral took place Friday morning to St. Mark's Lot 7 and was largely attended there being upwards of ninety sleighs testifying to the high esteem in which she was held. A solemn Mass of Requiem was offered up by her beloved pastor, Rev. S. J. McDonald after which they wended their way to St. Mark's Cemetery, where the last sad rites were performed, and all that was mortal of one, whose name will not soon be forgotten was laid to rest. She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband, seven sons and three daughters, who were all at her bedside at her death, except Raymond, who is a member of the "France". To the sorrowful husband and family the wide spread sympathy of the community goes forth in this their hour of sorrow.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neville Large, Albany, on Jan. 21st when a large number of friends assembled to congratulate them on their fiftieth anniversary of their marriage.

The evening was enlivened with music interspersed with songs, and games appropriate to such an occasion were successfully played to the satisfaction and enjoyment of all present. Needless to say a very attractive and pleasing feature of the evening was witnessed when the company repaired to the spacious dining-room and took their places at a table set with exquisite neatness and abundantly covered with delectable dainties. After the party had satisfied the wants of an appetite, interested by so inviting a display they passed the remainder of the evening in various amusements until the gentle murmur of parting sighs and the lingering echoes of many a fond goodnight announced the end of a pleasant event.

The community of Indian Head, Sask. was shocked to learn of the death of Thomas R. Heaslip son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Vickerson which occurred at the General Hospital Indian Head Sask. January 14th, at the early age of 27 years. The deceased who was in the best of health until a week before his death was stricken down with that dread disease of influenza followed by pneumonia. He was of a bright and cheerful disposition and was a general favourite with all who knew him. He was born in Ireland and came to Western Canada in 1909 where he was engaged as a farmer for eight years first at Spadley and then with his brother James North of Indian Head. The funeral which was largely attended was conducted by the Orange Brethren Lodge No 1665 of Indian Head which the deceased was an active member for some time. The funeral services of the order were read at the graveside by pastor worshipful master John Blair and chaplain R. G. Thompson. The flowers which were numerous including four beautiful floral wreaths were laid on the grave in loving memory of the deceased by the Orange Brethren. The Grain Growers of which the deceased was an active member H. G. W. Wilson to whom the deceased was tenant and the fourth by the bereaved widow of the deceased. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Heaslip widow of the deceased who is left with one son to mourn the loss of a loving husband and kind and affectionate father. The Rev. Thomas McAff officiated as minister for the sad occasion and the remains were laid to rest in the Indian Head Cemetery.

On Thursday of last week the mortal remains of the late John McLeod of Quincy were conveyed to their last resting place in the Hartsville Cemetery from the home of his brother-in-law Rd. McLeod.

An unusually large congregation were present on the occasion to show their undiminished regard for the memory of a man who was held in highest honor among them all his life. The endowment belongs only to a few to maintain such an unbroken record for good for so long a period. It wasn't a case of intense application to well doing when his powers were on the decline. From his youth up he showed the same steady interest in every measure designed to promote the good of man and the glory of God. Temperance, Sunday School work, prayer-meetings found him unflagging in his zeal for over fifty years or as long as his strength lasted. Young people were the objects of his prayerful care.

He gave two generations in the Strathalbyn congregation the benefit of a life that was like the bright and shining light. He taught school for many years in Heartsville, Spring field and Summerside and in all those places his scholars revered his memory. Blessed with a serene temperament an attractive personality he made friends easily and never lost a friend. He left a large family to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and loving father—a wife, five sons and three daughters; Dr. John McLeod, William, Alex. Newton and Mrs. A. Marbin all of whom reside in Quincy; and Mrs. Rev. J. W. McKenzie, Belfast and Mrs. Rev. A. B. McLeod of Claremont Calif. Services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Stavert of the Hartsville Cong assisted by Rev. J. W. McKenzie. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord".

Always Uniform by Test
W HAT could be more puzzling than to suddenly get disappointing bread and pastry in spite of all your care? Why shouldn't the same brand of flour, the same recipe and the same care produce uniform results every time you bake? The answer most often is—lack of uniformity in your flour.
