"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Tongue Shows if Bilious, Constipated

Hurry mother! Even a cross, sick child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful today may prevent a sick child tomorrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic, or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Castor Oil Threat Wins For Fascisti

MILAN, Feb. 20.—During the municipal elections at Arona, on Lake Maggiore, the anti-Fascist element decided that, as a sign of protest against the Fascisti, they would not vote.

Thereupon the Fascisti placarded the city with bills reading:

"Whoever does not vote is ill. Whoever is ill needs castor oil."

The result was an unprecedented march of electors to the polls. The voters exceeded 80 per cent. of those entitled to exercise the franchise, an aggregate never before reached in the village.

The Fascist candidates received overwhelming majorities in the election.

Condition of Eye Perfect Thus Far

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Bandages yesterday were permanently removed from the eye of Alfred Lemonowiez, upon which were grafted portions of a pig's eye.

Dr. Edward Morgan, who performed the operation, tested him by telling him to walk to a window. Lemonowiez complied unhesitatingly. The surgeon said the condition of the eye is perfect thus far.

EAR MUFFS APPEAR ON TURBAN HATS

PARIS, Feb. 20 — Many of the small turbans today have a large edition of the old fashioned ear muffs. These ear muffs are gorgeous affairs of gold thread embroidery and fur. They are distinctly for ornament and nothing else, standing out from the ears a trifle and running up the sides of the turban to fasten at the top.

An Attractive Suit.

PARIS, Feb. 20 — An unusually attractive sports suit shown here today is of wool jersey in a pale shade of lavender. The skirt has gold stitching in a large check. The coat is plain except for an edging of gold braid.

Blouse Colors.

LONDON, Feb. 20 — Blouses of crepe de chine and georgette are seen lately in neutral shades touched by bits of brilliant color. A pale blue blouse will have a bow of bright purple at the neck. A beige blouse has orange stitchery while a white one boasts a few flowers of vivid green.

Discussion on Coats.

LONDON, Feb. 20 — Now that the many gored "umbrella" skirt begins to reappear there is discussion as to the sort of coat to be worn with it. some authorities insisted today on the knee length coat with loose back, but there has been a distinct revival of the very short bolero.

Fantastic Lingerie.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 — Some new lingerie shown today has fantastic patterns. Of triple ninon, the lingerie is in cream and ivory. The patterns, obviously influenced by discoveries at Thebes are copied from Egyptian temples and tombs. They are arranged in embroidered bands showing Egyptian scenes in Egyptian colorings.

Printed Georgette.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 — The International Silk Exposition at Grand Central Palace has nothing lovelier than the printed georgettes which are to be such a feature of spring styles. In striking patterns and shades, these thin silk fabrics are to be used as sleeves or as blouses for the two piece costumes that are to be so popular.

Peter Pan.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20 — Blouses for sports wear today show that Peter Pan collar which is at once so comfortable and so neat. The new Peter Pans are in a succession of small ruffles, trimmed with narrow lace.

New Bathing Style.

PALM BEACH, Feb. 20 — One of the bathing beauties here goes in for wristlets and anklets. Her suit is as near one piece as possible without actually being in one piece. It is of brilliant green and cerise, and of a knitted fabric. The sleeves are missing and the suit ends far above the knees, but nevertheless wristlets and anklets to match, about three inches wide are worn.
