SMILES

GABBY GERTIE

“When a man expects to inherit a million, a couple of bucks just make him soar.”

Insurrecto: Bring up the re serves! Aid: Impossible, general! He has just stubbed his toe on a cactus!

“When you go shopping, my dear why don't you get all the necessary things first?” “Oh, well, they somehow seem so unimportant.”

“THE THIRD WARNING”

a thrilling tale of love and mystery By AUGUSTUS MUIR

“But how can you help me?” I gripped her shoulders in my eagerness. “Listen! Geldart gave me orders to tell Gelsen. You and your friends will be released in a week. Not sooner, for he must get away. By now he is far on the road—by tomorrow he will be in France. But he goes a rich man! He take your money, Monsieur.” “My money? But I've got no money,” I cried.

“Not now maybe. But yesterday you were rich. The old man Drysdale was a friend of Geldart—it was he who gave him Black Edge for the trade.” “The old laird!” I gasped. “You mean he was hand-in-glove with Geldart? Why—”

“It is so. He was a good man, the laird, but money—that was his god, and he was poor. Geldart tempt him. He had known Geldart little, many years ago. And he went shares with his old friend. Oh, yes, the laird regret it later, but too late. Their first enterprise was in the Balkans, and the payment was in precious stones because there was no money. Geldart's share was soon gone, and Seymour's. But the old man kept his stones. Oh, yes, they were hidden from Geldart and Seymour, because they wanted money. They threatened to kill the old man in the end if he did not disclose the stones. And then he died, but the stones were still hidden in the Hall.” “The leather case!” I cried. “A leather case was stolen. There were jewels in it?”

“You are wrong, Monsieur. I saw the case in Geldart's hands with the little iron box broken open. There was only a letter addressed to Mr. Shaw, the clergyman. He was the old man's friend, yet he never knew the truth about Black Edge, though perhaps he suspected. But this letter to Mr. Shaw—I have read it, Monsieur! It did not say where the stones were hidden, but it said there was a little gift for his girl in a place he knew. Shaw knew! And Geldart had Shaw in his power at Black Edge before many hours.” “And Geldart has got them now.” “He has got them now. Shaw would not speak—he swore he knew nothing of the stones. Tonight Geldart was to torture him till he spoke. Oh, yes, he has got them now and is gone!” “And Seymour?”

“He went yesterday. Geldart told him the game was up, but he did not tell him he would torture Shaw. Geldart suspected Seymour had been trying to get the stones himself and fly with them—he had been watching Seymour like a hawk, and you should have seen him laugh when Seymour had gone! We shall share them together, you and I. Geldart said to me. But he is tricking me as he tricked Seymour. I would have told you all I knew in that barn at Black Edge, Monsieur, but I was loyal, and what could you expect? But now—I hate him! This is my revenge—I will set you free.”

SARGON IS NOW ON SALE HERE

Hughes' Drug Co., Ltd., Secures Exclusive 5 Year Franchise for Sargon, the New Formula Which Has Recently Been Introduced in Canada.

Local citizens who have heard of the results which have been accomplished by Sargon, will be interested in the announcement that this new and scientific formula can now be obtained in this city. Sargon was introduced in the United States in April 1928. Since that time it has become a nationally-known, nationally-accepted product. Not in recent years, perhaps, has any other medicine of its kind attained such widespread popularity, and were it not for the actual facts and figures given out by some of the leading drug firms of America, the success attained by this product would be hard to believe.

Sargon is now being introduced in Canada, and a new, modernly equipped plant has been established in Ontario to take care of the rapidly growing demand throughout the Dominion. In awarding the local agency, the manufacturers of Sargon are carrying out their established policy of confining the sale of one thoroughly responsible and centrally located drug firm in each city, and wherever introduced the Sargon store will be found to be one of the leading and most representative. Such firms are always anxious and willing to cooperate with the manufacturers of meritorious products, especially internationally known products of proven merit.

Sargon was recently introduced in Toronto, Hamilton, London and other cities in Ontario, and judging from the large initial sales and the repeat business it has enjoyed, it now seems a foregone conclusion that the success attained by Sargon in the United States will be duplicated in Canada. In the leading cities of the United States some of the most prominent hundreds of who have come forward to tell what Sargon has done for them, and many thousands have used it with the most gratifying results. Human nature is the same the world over, and when suffering men and women find a medicine that helps them, they want to tell their friends about it, and in this way Sargon is rapidly becoming known throughout the entire American continent.

The exclusive agency for Sargon and Sargon Soft Mass Pills for this city and section has been awarded to the Hughes' Drug Co., Ltd. In anti-demand, this well known firm has just received a large shipment of this celebrated medicine.

Her arms suddenly went round my neck. “You are different from these brutes!” she said in a whisper.

PITCH BLACK

I wasted not a moment in snapping back the bolts from the doors opposite. Marget and George were beside me, awaiting my bidding. The bulkhead swung back, and we dropped into the dinghy at the foot of the ladder. The night was pitch black, and I scudded quietly away from the ship. Out of earshot, I lay back and pulled for my life. The absence of the dinghy was found to be discovered in a matter of minutes, since they were on the point of setting sail, and it behooved us to put as much distance between us as possible in case of pursuit. We tore up on the beach so hard that we stepped ashore dryfoot. The place was deserted; there was no sign of the old lighter, nor the sound of a human being. We crossed the cart-track and made up the hillside. The fisherman's cottage, which passed on our right, was in darkness. Somehow after the feverish activities I had seen there the night before there was a strong feeling of desolation in the air. As the girl Therese had said, the last cargo had been shipped.

A fine drizzling rain caught us when we reached the highroad, a mile or two back from the coast. We were bareheaded and thinly clad, and for my part I was famished with hunger. Notwithstanding, we dropped on the roadside and panted like dogs.

“You're a genius, Ronny!” gasped George. “How in heaven's name did you manage it?” “I didn't. It was a deucedly pretty girl.” “A what?” demanded Marget. “Deucedly pretty girl, madam. Deucedly pretty. She insisted on kissing me, and I let her. That's what did the trick. She was lonely and sad, and I spoke soft words.” “u‘Huh!’ said Marget.

BASE BALL

Baseball players use Minard's for stiffness, strained ligaments and bruises. They also recommend it as a rubdown.

“I told them briefly what had happened, and what the girl Therese had related to me. But instead of mentioning Geldart's intention to write what he wanted out of Mr. Shaw by torture, I saved Marget's feeling by a tactful omission. “So it was Geldart, after all!” cried George excitedly when I had finished. “And he's gone! What a scoop it would have been to collar him.” “Man. I had set my heart on it! You've no idea where he's bound for, by any chance?” “The girl didn't know. All she knew was that he was doing a bolt with the old laird's boodie. She suggested France.” “I'll get the ports watched,” said George quickly. “We may nab him yet. A phone, a phone, my kingdom for a phone! There are two people I want to get on to at once. One is my Home Office man in Edinburgh—he'll get the instructions put through about watching for Geldart and Seymour. The other is Jerry Milleron at Berkeley; he'll pick us up in his car and run us over to Brackenridge in no time. Marget will be anxious to know about her father.” “Indeed, I am. All during the dreadful time in that ship I was desperate about him! Oh, where do you think he will be?” “Geldart got all he wanted, so you'll probably find your old man at home. There's only one thing to do, and that's to get a move on. Get up, my hearties, we're tired and weary, but it'll be daylight in half an hour!”

We found a farmhouse a mile or two farther on, and went across to it and knocked.

The West is Planting More Sweet Clover

From the Dominion Seed Branch comes one of the most interesting reports of field crop development in 1930, which is that the prairie provinces are sowing very much larger quantities of sweet clover seed this year than ever before. The Branch reports indicate a definite trend in the direction of increasing the proportion of forage crops throughout the West, and the beet sugar manufacturers are distributing sweet clover seed to beet growers for the purpose of maintaining the improving beet production. Saskatchewan is calling for larger quantities of sweet clover seed, which will probably be supplied from Eastern Canada, and Manitoba is also increasing the area of sweet clover seeded. As a crop sweet clover costs less to produce than some of the other legumes, it is practically sure crop, it has very high fertilizer value, and it can be introduced into a system of grain farming with particular ease. These are all factors which contribute to its growing popularity as a crop.

Piles are caused by congestion of blood in the lower bowel. Only an internal medicine can remove the cause. That's why salves and cutting fail. HEM-ROID, the prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonhardt, removes this congestion and strengthens the affected parts. HEM-ROID is now sold by druggists everywhere, and has such a wonderful record of success even in chronic and stubborn cases that — invites every pile sufferer to try HEM-ROID and guarantees money-back if it does not end all Pile misery.

9 out of 10 Screen Stars use Lux Toilet Soap

Photo by D. B. Keyes, Hollywood. CORINNE GRIFFITH, First National's charmingly beautiful star, says: “The thing I like best about Lux Toilet Soap is the wonderful smoothness of my skin after it!”

It has swept across the world from Hollywood to Europe. NO beauty is more important to a girl than alluring smooth skin. So says William A. Seiter, prominent First National director, summing up what 45 leading Hollywood directors have found out from their experience with motion pictures. “A screen star must pass the most merciless test—the great close-up lights find out the slightest flaw in the skin,” he goes on to say. “But the owner of a skin which can pass this test has the support of an immense adoring public.” It is because alluringly smooth skin is so vital for success on the screen that of the 521 important actresses in Hollywood, including all stars, 511 are simply devoted to Lux Toilet Soap. And all the great film studios have made it the official soap for their dressing rooms. The Broadway stage stars are equally enthusiastic about this soap, so daintily fragrant and white. And now, too, the screen stars of the European capitals have adopted Lux Toilet Soap! To keep their skin as faultlessly smooth as the Hollywood stars keep theirs. You will love the way it keeps your skin silken-smooth! And such generous lather, even in very hard water! Order several cakes of Lux Toilet Soap—today.

Luxury such as you have found only in fine French soaps at 50c and $1.00 the cake. . . NOW 10c
