The political meeting at Bradalbane last night was largely attended. The candidates present spoke on the various questions of the day. The meeting tonight is at New Glasgow.

The traffic on the P. E. I. Ry. is exceptionally heavy this fall. The number of passengers carried during exhibition week was larger than any other week in the history of the road.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Phoenix Cricket Club, last evening, the accounts for the year were submitted and passed; and it is pleasing to say that they had a very successful season. The club has just been reorganized, and considerable outlay was necessary this year. After the accounts for the year had been settled, a balance on the right side remains. The membership of the club this year has been satisfactory but next year the executive hope to interest most of the young men of the city in this grand old game. The secreatary treasurer J. W. Stanley, is to be congratulated upon his management of the finance.

The quarterly meeting of the Charlottetown Board of Trade last night was well attended and most interesting. After the routine of business, President Paton by request gave most interesting account of business life as he had seen it in his extensive travels during the last six months. Trade in foreign parts was not as flourishing as he had seen it, and warehouses were well filled with goods waiting for customers. The industrial classes lacked employ, and in this respect he believed that Canada was freer from poverty than any country under the sun. As compared with other places, Prince Edward Island was certainly the gem of the earth. Hon. Mr. Hughes in his report of the annual meeting of the Maritime Board of Trade regretted that more delegates from this Board had not found it convenient to attend the last annual meeting at Halifax. It was a grand educator and a splendid outing. At these meetings one comes in contact with the leading men of various places, and it is wonderful the growing interest all manifest in this province. Acting on the instructions given him by this Board he extended an invitation to the Maritime Board to hold its next annual meeting here, which was very heartily accepted. Re the resolutions on Freight and Passenger Traffic, the three short hauls and the exorbitant Express charges which this Board has asked him to present, they were adopted by the Maritime Board unanimously, and it is proposed to send a delegation at the proper time to push them through, for the people of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick are beginning to see that our interests are identical. At the conclusion of his report Mr. Hughes was warmly congratulated and thanked. Messrs H. Haszard and J. O. Hyndman were appointed a committee to report on "Draft-Treaty" on limitation of shipowners liability.

Today is Donation Day for the P. E. I. Hospital.

Thomas Frizzell of the P.E.I.R. at Summerside, was in the city yesterday.

P. J. Hogan, Charlottetown, is at present in charge of the booking station at York.

Dr. J. C. Ballem of Mount Albion leaves this morning for Centerville where he intends practising.

The entries for the races on the Charlottetown Driving Park on the 21st and 22nd inst close today.

Mrs. Pope Cooke, York, and Miss Katie Darrach, New Haven, are spending a few days in Mount Stewart the guests of Mrs. Artemas Cooke.

Ernest Doyle of the P. E. I. R. in this city, left for Iowa, recently, where he intends meeting his mother-in-law, Mrs. Griffin, who is on her way to Georgetown from a visit to her son, M. E. Griffin.

Among those leaving the City yesterday to attend the exhibition at Egmont were Lieut. Gov. McKinnon, Premier Haszard, Fishery Inspector Mathieson, Prof. Theodore Ross and other prominent citizens.

Miss Agnes McKinnon, who has been visiting her brother John McKinnon, Covehead, has returned to Chelsea, Mass. She was accompanied by her cousins, Benjamin and Arthur Brooks, who have been visiting with their aunts Mrs. John Cudmore, Winsloe and Mrs. Henry Ford, Glasgow Road.

Among the outward passengers from this city yesterday were: Miss Olive Peters, Rollo Bay for New York Daniel Mathieson, Murray Harbor for Vancouver B. C.; Rev. Mother Superior and Mother St. Angelina, Notre Dame Convent, City, for Montreal; Mrs. H. Vickerson, Hermitage for Boston, Miss Addie Hogan, City, for Boston and Ethel Mullins, City, for Boston.

A large political meeting was held in Irishtown Tuesday night. The hall was crowded with electors from far and near besides many ladies. Splendid order prevailed and the different speakers had a good hearing. Andrew McLeod presided as chairman and besides the candidates Messrs McLean, Warburton, Martin and Prowse speaking, Rev. A. D. Stirling of Kensington strongly presented the views of the Moral and Social Reform League. Among other speakers were Messrs Sinclair and Simpson.

The following clipping taken from the Fishing Gazette will be of interest to clam exporters in this Province. Trade was fairly good in the New York clam market during the past week. If present indications of weather continue, dealers here feel that there will be a really heavy demand for large and medium sized clams. Just now it looks as if the market for little necks will be only moderate, due to the ever increasing supply of Blue Point oysters. Arrivals of Prince Edward Island clams during the present week have not been heavy. Both large and medium sized sold at two dollars to two fifty per sack, while the price of little necks varied from two dollars and fifty to three dollars and fifty.

Empire Lodge, No. 19, Knights of Pythias meets tonight. Business of importance.
