Modest Claims Often Carry the Most Conviction.

When Maxim, the famous gun inventor, placed his gun before a committee of judges, he stated its carrying power to be much below what he felt sure the gun would accomplish. The result of the trial was therefore a great surprise, instead of disappointment. It is the same with the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. They do not publicly boast of all this remedy will accomplish, but prefer to let the users make the statements. What they do claim, is that it will positively cure diarrhoea, dysentery, pains in the stomach and bowels and has never been known to fail. For sale by all druggists.

GEN'L INSPECTION AT VICTORIA PARK

A Splendid Military Spectacle Afforded By the Troops Yesterday—March Past Before Major General Lake—Thorough Inspection of All the Troops Under Arms.

The spirit of militarism was rampant yesterday.

Major-General Lake and the officers accompanying him, who arrived here on Wednesday evening, lost no time with regard to getting to work. It may or may not have proved a suprise to the militia in camp, but the fact remained that at nine o'clock yesterday, the Commander in Chief put in an appearance at Headquarters and at once began his tour of inspection of the troops encamped at the Park and at Brighton Barracks.

At noon the Drill Shed was visited and inspected by Major General Lake and the visiting and local officers.

In the afternoon a general inspection took place on the Brigade Parade grounds at Victoria Park.

At a quarter to three the Artillery and the 82nd. Regiment were massed in column of companies, and the Light Horse were extended in a long and impressive line. The scene was a most striking one, and as the day was all that could be desired there was a large attendance of spectators.

LIEUT-COL MOORE,
District Officer Commanding.

A careful examination of the lines took place. Probably no inspecting officers has so rigidly looked into detail as the distinguished soldier who this year has come down to inspect the Prince Edward Island forces.

A thorough examination of the camp arrangements took place—everything being subjected to close scrutiny.

The 82nd Battalion was put through battalion drill as the regular forenoon work. and No. 3 Co. Artillery (Souris and Montague) was inspected by Col. Rutherford. They were put through Company drill and were also inspected at drill with the big guns in the drill shed.

In the mean time the Light Horse were undergoing inspection by Colonel Lessard. Their drill ground was the large field almost opposite the Exhibition grounds and here they went through the different evolutions. To a civilian they acquitted themselves most creditably, and it is understood that the splendid appearance of the men and their good mounts elicited favorable comment from the inspecting officer.

Major General Lake and the other inspecting officers came upon the grounds about three o'clock and was received with the general salute, all the troops being called to attention.

The General took up position at the the saluting base and a march past took place. The Light Horse went by in squadron formation and were followed by the Artillery. Then came the 82nd Battalion who really are deserving of the highest praise, for it must be understood that they labored under many more disadvantages than any of the other corps with respect to attending drills and fitting themselves for such an important inspection as that of yesterday. Their march past was most creditable and a flattering evidence of the capability of the men and the thoroughness of their drill instructors.

Of the Artillery it is hardly necessary to speak. They always march past like veterans and yesterday was no exception to the general rule. As to the Light Horse their position is that of a corps d'elite, and being composed of men who have been for some time enlisted their record did not suffer by their performance yesterday under the watchful eye of the General.

After the march past the Light Horse left the field, and the Artillery and 82nd were formed in column of company at company distance with the sections opened out, and General Lake then carefully inspected every man in the ranks.

This being concluded, ond it took some time, the City companies of Artillery were marched to the Drill Shed, where gun detachments were examined at big gun drill.

My Dear Friend Mr. Jordan—I cannot speak too loudly in praise of your Oil and Emulsion. I have taken all the Emulsion and am now taking the Oil, both are most excellent preparations. The pure oil can be taken as easily as cold water. You should advertise it better and I am sure it would come out second to none.

BELGIUM WINS CHALLENGE CUP

Which now for the First Time Leaves the United Kingdom.

HENLEY, July 5—(Special)—A crew representing the Club Nautique de Gand Belgium today defeated Trinity Hall, Combridge by three lengths in the final for the Grand Challenge Cup.

Time seven minutes, nine seconds.

The Cup thus leaves England for the first time in its history.

Mention must be made here of the Field Ambulance Corps, which yesterday paraded almost one hundred strong and made a very effective appearance as they went by the saluting stand. The men composing this corps are fine young fellows, well set up, and very soldier like in their appearance. As they are a corps of not very long standing, Major McLaughlin, their commanding officer is to be congratulated upon the manner in which his men marched past.

Another new corps, not perhaps attracting much attention on account of quantity but greatly deserving notice because of their quality was the signalling corps which for the first time made their appearance at general inspection at this camp. These men under Lieut Rogers have advanced rapidly in their work, and lack of time was the only reason why yesterday they were not given an opportunity to show what they could accomplish in field signalling.

The afternoon programme brought many visitors to the Park, and the review ground was fringed by a deep row of spectators. Never has the beautiful Park looked better or prettier than yesterday. The troops in position, the surrounding townsfolk, among which the pretty costumes of women predominated, and the rich background of foliage made those present realize that the search would be a long one before a scene to equal it could be found in Canada.

In the evening the visitors, the company officers, and Sir Louis Davies and His Worship Mayor Paton were entertained by the Headquarters Staff at the Brigade Mess.

A pleasant affair last night was the entertaining of the sergeants of the Light Horse by the sergeants of the Ambulance Corps, at the latter's mess. A most enjoyable little supper and smoker was enjoyed by all.

It is practically impossible to tell what the verdict of the inspecting staff will be, but it is understood that Colonel Gwatkin, who is an Imperial iniantry officer of long service and experience, expressed himself as much pleased with the appearance of the companies on parade yesterday afternoon, and also with the way battalion and company drill was carried out under command of the instructors.

This morning the Light Horse will be inspected at reconnaisance work, and in the afternoon No 3 Company 4th Regt. Artillery will be inspected at their parade graund at the Park.

Tomorrow the tents will be struck, and the captains and their men depart, and the pleasant spectacle that has been so much appreciated by visitors to the park, will be removed.

It has been said that this is the last year that the militia will meet for training on these grounds. Everybody, with a few exceptions, will regret if the troops are to be sent to some other place in the years to come, unless some sensible reason for the change is given.
