His Lordship the Right Rev Bishop J. J. Collins of the Roman Catholic Cathedral, Kingston, Jamaica writes as follows—"Dr. Minor C. Baldwin gave two recitals on the organ in Holy Trinity Cathedral that won the admiration and unstinted praise of the musical public."

A delightful entertainment was given by D. S. and Mrs. Sherren, Cra-paud, recently in honor of Mrs. Ida Currier, Haverhill, Mass., and Mrs. C. C. Dunham, Brockton, Mass. Both those ladies have been away for a number of years and their many friends and relatives assembled together to enjoy a very pleasant evening. Selections were given on the gramophone and violin by Clark Fall and Joe Dunsford while the Misses Lina McDonald and Eva Sherren supplied music and singing on the organ. A bountiful collation was served on the spacious grounds which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. After all did ample justice to the good things provided by the happy company deemed it the time of their lives. Mrs. Dunham sailed for Boston, Sept. 8th, while Mrs. Currier anticipates a little longer stay.

A largely attended and very pretty wedding was solemnized at high noon today, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. McNaughton, Cameron street when their daughter, Katherine, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Morley Carson, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Quebec. The bride was beautiful gowned in Satin Duchin, and carried a shower bouquet of cut flowers. She was given away by her father, Miss Isabelle McNaughton, sister of the bride, played very acceptably Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride was attended by Miss Fannie Stewart, while the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. George Carson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. G. Lane, pastor of the Wesley Memorial Church, under a beautiful floral arch. The other rooms were also appropriately decorated for the occasion. A very large number of the friends of the contracting parties were present, and the esteem in which they are held, was evidenced by the display of beautiful and costly presents, of which the bride was the recipient. The groom's present to the bride was a handsome gold watch, and to the bridesmaid a beautiful pearl set ring. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served, at which Mr. and Mrs. Carson left for a honeymoon trip through P. E. I. and Nova Scotia. On their return, they will spend a few days in the city before proceeding to Quebec, where they will reside.—Mch. Exc.
