The flag on the Bandstand was at half mast yesterday in loving memory of late Bandmaster Galbraith.

J. P. C. McDonald, Monticello, who had his hand injured in a saw mill some time ago has completely recovered.

Miss Priscilla and Arthur Carruthers, Carleton, are spending their Easter holidays in Charlottetown.

Prof. J. A. Murphy, of St. Dunstan's College, and Peter D. Murphy of Cardigan, are in Tracadie visiting their uncle, Rev. P. D. McGuigan.

At the Farmers' Institute meeting held in Tracadie last week fine addresses were given by Peter Broome, York, and W. J. Gibson of Marshfield.

Angus & Cuptil of Eastport, Maine, who has been visiting his step-father, Capt. John Nicholson, of Eldon, who has been very ill is in the City.

The inmates of the Poor Asylum, were given a treat Easter Saturday by the W.C.U. Each one was presented with a prettily decorated box of candy.

Fredk. Haslam of Springfield accompanied by his friend Mr. Southgate of London, England, returned yesterday after spending the week in this City.

Dr. Sprague who goes to Sackville as Dean of the Theological Faculty of Mt. Allison University, will preach the baccalaureate at the coming commencement exercises.

Miss Ray Gillespie, Carleton, spent Principal of Margate school late yesterday in town. She leaves this morning by the Stanley for Pictou on return to Lemberg, Sask.

Daniel O'Hanley, has his preparations well advanced for lobster fishing. Mr. O'Hanley's factory at Cow River is the largest establishment of the kind on the North Side, he having more boats fishing and employing more hands than any other concern. Mr. O'Hanley purchased this factory from Thomas Kieckham, of Souris, several years ago.

A meeting of the Island Presbytery was held Friday. Rev. George E. Ross reported that on April 6th, he had moderated in a call at Marshfield in favor of Rev. John Hawley. The call was sustained and arrangements for the induction were left over till the May quarter. Mr. Hawley was appointed chaplain of the Hospital for the insane, and the new Infirmary. Rev. John Stirling has been called to Cavendish.

A correspondent writing from North Rustico says: Aquila Rollings is making extensive improvements to the lobster stand he purchased from McLeod & Rattray. He has built a new wharf 30 feet square and intends going into the coal business. William Court and Joseph Pineau have also built wharves in front of their fishing properties. No wild geese have yet put in an appearance something unusual here, and indicating a late spring.

The funeral of the late Mrs. C. D. Bell took place yesterday afternoon and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Querry conducting the services assisted by Rev. Mr. Fuller, and Rev. Mr. McLean. The following were the pall bearers: Edward Chandler, Leonard McKay, Harry Williams, G. W. H. Moore, Chester McLure, and G. M. Atwood. Mrs. Bell will be much missed in her home where a husband and only daughter Miss Grenneth are left to mourn. Death came suddenly and was caused by a stroke of apoplexy, only an hour's illness having preceded it. The deceased had undergone an operation ten days previously and was declared convalescent and seemed to be getting along very favorably. The Guardian extends sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

Try a bottle of our Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites if you are feeling run down and out of sorts. It will give you a good appetite build up your nervous system and make you feel well and strong again. Sold at 75c full pint bottle. A. W. Reddin, Pharm., B. Sunnyside.

Inspector Jenkins returned to Murray River last week on an official trip. He reports considerable laxity in the Prohibition law in parts of King's County.

Complaints are made to The Guardian that for the last three market days there has been no heat in the north west corner of the market building. This is said to be a hardship for those who have to stand in the market and stand in the cold temperature.

A reader of The Guardian writes drawing attention to the variation in local market prices as published in the Charlottetown papers. As far as The Guardian is concerned the market prices are corrected regularly every market day, and the endeavor is to have them as accurate as possible.

The Guardian regrets to learn of the death in this City of Charles Watling after a somewhat lengthy illness. A family of three daughters and one son are left to mourn namely Mrs. George Turner and Miss Evelyn Quincey, Mass; and Edith of Chelsea; and W. A. Watling of M. Trainor & Co's, City.

The funeral of the late Garfield McDonald of Vancouver, B. C., takes place from his father's residence King Street at seven o'clock this morning to the railway station leaving by train at 7.30 for Bradalbane thence to Springton Cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. Geo. E. Ross. Extended reference has already been made to the death of Mr. McDonald, whose remains were brought home yesterday accompanied by the brother Robert and sister Miss Ella who were residing in Vancouver.

The Easter services at the Baptist church in this city were helpful and inspiring. Thoughtful hearts and hands banded the pulpit and platform with choice potted plants and ferns, with a large Easter lily in the centre, each and all bringing their lessons, and all bringing their selections and appropriate hymns. The anthems, which showed careful preparation were cheerful, assuring and uplifting to the worshipful spirit. Pastor White drew strong and practical lessons, from the Story of the Resurrection as told by St. Mark 16: 5-7. The resurrection body will be one of youth and great beauty. They saw a young man etc. (2) The resurrection will mean the removal of all doubts and fears. "Fear not," etc. (3) The third lesson was one of duty. "Go, tell his disciples," etc. (4) Christ goes before us into all the paths. He bids us enter. "He goeth before you. These points were tersely elaborated and aptly illustrated—making a truly helpful and instructive sermon. The Sunday school was well attended, and cheerfully conducted by supt. Gordon, and assistant A. F. Webster—the Lesson on Loving service was good. In the evening the choir repeated the morning anthems, and the pastor spoke on the words: "He that sinneth against Me, wrongeth his own soul." Prov. 8: 36. Two young men were welcomed into the fellowship of the church.

"The appreciation of the Canadian public for the merchant who always, under all conditions, gives the consumer the best is reflected nowhere as strongly as in enormous and ever-increasing sales of 'Salada' Tea.

The funeral of the late Robert Galbraith takes place tomorrow Wednesday at 3.45 to Railway station by train to Sherwood, with masonic honors.

The outward cargo by the Minto this morning will include one car milk, two cars way freight and seventeen horses, five of which are shipped by P. S. Brown to St. John.

A. F. Tomlins, who has been manager of the Nova Scotia Bank at Port Elgin, was given a farewell banquet by a number of his friends on the eve of his departure for Woodstock (Ont.) Mr. Tomlins was presented with an elegant gold signet ring, accompanied by expressions of good will and many regrets at his departure.

The annual Easter congregational meeting of St. Peter's Church of this City was held last evening. The usual reports were read and the following were elected: churchwardens for the ensuing year: F. R. Foster, W. H. Stewart, and Leth E. Brecken. The total receipts amounted to $3,700 for the past year, and there was no deficit.

The annual congregational meeting of St. Paul's Church, this City, was held last evening, the Rector presiding. The various reports were read and showed the work of the different societies etc. to have been very successful. After the regular routine the following vestrymen were elected for the ensuing year: Charles E. Leigh, Thomas G. Taylor, Edwin Aitken, W. W. Clark, H. F. Pethick, H. J. Cundall, Edgar McNutt. The churchwardens appointed are Charles Leigh and Fay Pope. The representatives to the Synod are E. R. Fitzgerald and A. B. Warburton.

There is general regret for the death of Robert Galbraith, briefly announced in yesterday's Guardian. During his long life and residence in Charlottetown no man was better liked than he. He was a native of Ireland being born on the banks of the river Boyne. In his earlier years his employment was that of a bank accountant but his devotion to music made him a prominent figure in Charlottetown band circles. He instituted the military band in 1860 when the present King Edward visited this Province and for many years thereafter was connected with the militia bands of this City. He was twice married and is survived by a widow and several grown-up children.

A bumper house greeted Kennette and Flynn at Wonderland last night, those talented comedians presenting "A Red Hot Letter." Kennette as "Foxy Grandpa, the recipient of the letter, was a clever impersonation of a now famous character. Mr. Flynn as Casey, the man who got a job and didn't know it was the soul of wit and ready repartee—the two proving the most capable and refined entertainers who have provided amusement for Wonderland for a long time. Their sketch was clean, refined Irish comedy, every line a witticism; every witticism brimming over with laughter. Mr. Kennette's rendition of "Harrison" was excellent, while Mr. Flynn's parody on the same was simply admirable. Their work was highly appreciated, and generous applause proved the appreciation which was so justly their due. The pictures were magnificent, the colored films superb in their gorgeous depictions. The program throughout was a grand earnest of good entertainment at Wonderland, now that the season for such is in fine swing once more.
